Keep Fit!

Good Health Requires Good Elimination

To be well, you must keep the blood stream free from impurities. If the kidneys lag, allowing body poisons to accumulate, a toxic condition is created. One is apt to feel dull, languid, tired and aching. A nagging backache is sometimes a symptom, with drowsy headaches and dizzy spells. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. If you have reason to suspect improper kidney functioning, try Doan's Pills—a tested stimulant diuretic. Users praise them throughout the United States. Ask your neighbor!

BAD SPELLS Of Backache and Weakness Helped by Cardui. Because she wants other women to know about Cardui, Mrs. Ina Mae Jirright, Route No. 1, Troy, Ala., says this: "Mostly, I was afflicted with bad spells of backache. At times I felt as if my back would break. I would drag one foot after another, in a helpless sort of a way, and once I got down in bed. "My husband told me about Cardui and got me a bottle. I soon found out what a fine medicine it was. Ever since my first experience with it, I have continued taking it. I worry no more about my back, and after a few bottles, I have always been well." Last Monday night three negroes succeeded in breaking their way out of jail and making their escape. Two boys Fletcher Henderson and Gilmer Tucker were awaiting trial on a larceny charge and George McClintic was sent to jail by Judge Lewellyn for not supporting his family. Sheriff Hutchens had placed the prisoners in a steel cell on the first floor. In breaking through the bars they used a part of the iron bed as a crow bar, and after they had pried the iron bars loose from the floor of the cell it was an easy matter for them to jump to the ground from the hall window. In order to make as little noise as possible they wrapped their blankets around the crow bar while prying loose the bars. Nothing has been heard of the prisoners since their escape.

The first week of Surry Superior court for the trial of civil cases only came to close Saturday at noon. A large number of cases were disposed of during the week. Judge John M. Oglesby, of Concord, is presiding. The case of Mrs. Sena Thomas vs. Thomas and Luther Ashburn consumed two days of the courts time. She brought suit for damages on account of an alleged false arrest brought by the activities of the defendants charging her with the crime of infanticide. She was imprisoned and for this alleged false imprisonment she asks for damages. The action for damages was non suited as to Thomas Ashburn. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the defendant Luther Ashburn.

The second action was for divorce in which a young man F. E. Pardue was suing his wife for divorce. The plaintiff's main witness was his brother, Claude Pardue, and it was upon his testimony that the divorce was granted. He testified to the court of his illicit relations with his brother's wife a few months after the young couple were married. Following all the testimony, Judge Oglesby asked solicitor Graves to investigate the matter and expressed the indignation of the court at such conditions as were revealed by this evidence. The attorneys in the Sena Thomas vs. the Ashburn brothers were, for the plaintiff W. F. Carber and R. C. Freeman, for the defendants, J. H. Folger, A. D. Folger and S. P. Graves.

ARMY SPEED KING DIES IN HOSPITAL

Lieut. Bettis, Pulitzer Trophy Winner, Succumbs After Hard Fight. Washington, Sept. 1.—The Army lost one of its crack aviators today when Lieutenant Cyrus K. Bettis died as a result of injuries received last week in an airplane crash. Meningitis which developed yesterday prevented his recovery. The accident in which Bettis, winner of the Pulitzer trophy high speed race last year, was injured, occurred August 23 when he was on his way from Philadelphia to Selfridge Field, Mich. In a fog his plane crashed into a mountain near Bellefonte, Pa. Missing for forty-three hours, during which he crawled six miles to a road, he was later brought by airplane ambulance to Walter Reed Hospital here. Although known to be suffering from a broken leg and fractures on both jaws, he was believed to be on the way to recovery until complications set in yesterday. Leaving Philadelphia August 23, in company with two other planes for Selfridge Field, Mich., he became lost in a fog in the mountains of western Pennsylvania and crashed into Seven Sisters Mountain. He was unconscious for an hour and a half after the crash.

Unable to summon assistance, or later to attract the attention of planes sent to look for him, Bettis, with one leg broken and both jaws fractured, hopped and crawled several miles through the mountainous country to a road near Bellefonte, Pa., where he was found and taken to a hospital in that city. He was missing for more than 43 hours, during which time he was without food and had only the rainwater that he caught in his hands.
