Alleged Libeller Gets Suspended Sentence.

Winston-Salem, Oct. 16.—Convicted recently in Forsyth superior court of criminally libeling several lawyers and other leading citizens by word and fiction in the publication of frequent circulars W. B. Ellis, a former tobacco manufacturer here, was late Friday afternoon given a suspended sentence of 12 months on the county roads by Judge Oglesby besides being required to pay the costs in the case. Ellis was restrained from in any way, by publication, referring to any name appearing in the warrant drawn against him by the plaintiffs. Violations means sentence becomes effective. The suspended sentence covers a period of two years.

It Pays to Watch Your Step in Buying Balloons

Unknown brands are risky "bargains" in any type of tire—but especially so with Balloons.

Balloons work at low pressure. They've got to be flexible. And it takes good materials and the highest degree of manufacturing skill to combine flexibility with strength in a tire carcass.

Pathfinder Balloons are made and guaranteed by the world's largest manufacturer of quality tires. They're a safe and sane solution to your equipment problems AT A MIGHTY LOW PRICE.
