The club sold the pullets at auction in front of the Blue Ridge Hotel, Martin Bennett being the auctioneer, while bankers Bud Fawcett and Ed Linville stood back of the great crowd that gathered around the coops of pullets and with the four million dollars of resources in Mount Airy's two banks back of them they were amply able to pike the chickens to the limit of their value. Bidding for the birds was spirited during the half hour that was consumed in the auctioning off of the 46 pullets. The birds brought anywhere from $1.50 to $2.00 each and netted the club the sum of $83.75. This money will be used to buy pure bred eggs for the members next spring and again those securing the settings will be asked to return a pullet to the club from the hatchings, thus increasing the capital of the club in this work of providing the Republican; Constable, B. Interesting Items Gleaned From the Files of The Mount Airy News 21 Years Ago This Week

It is hard to believ a true story about the amount of trade that is coming to this town. One night this week men who are supposed to know stated that there were no less than 300 wagons in town. Cabbage and apples are coming in large quantities and are bringing good prices. Not many apples now that sell for less than 40 and 50 cents a bushel. Large quantities of tobacco are being sold on this market and the price is generally satisfactory. One hears very little said about low prices this year. Not much tobacco is sold that averages less than 8 and 9 cents and much of it averages higher than this.

The Granite Cutters have sent out.

Rev. M. A. Morris, of his county, sold tobacco sek that brought $55 as
