

The Mt. Airy News

Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Davis and children have returned from a visit to relatives in Pennsylvania.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sparger Friday, Nov. 5.

Miss Marjorie Worrall spent the past week end in Greensboro with friends and relatives.

Mrs. W. E. Crenay is visiting relatives in Wilmington.

Doak Williamson, of Saxapahaw, visited his brother E. H. Williamson and other friends here Sunday.

A daughter, Ava Nell was born to Mr. and Mrs. James H. Johnson November 4th.

Miss Donna Bolt, of High Point, spent the week end with friends in this city.

Mr. J. D. Sargent spent the past week and on Oriental going down last Thursday.

Miss Jessie Taylor, Harris, of Louisburg, is the guest of her sister Mrs. Walter D. Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Sides and daughter Rachel are visiting relatives in Saray, Okla.

A splendid 8 room residence is being erected by G. M. Childers corner of Spring and Broad streets.

Miss Anna Merritt, of Boston, Mass., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. H. Sparger, and other relatives in this city.

Mr. Warren Davis was called to Sanford Wednesday of last week, to attend the funeral of his sister Mrs. Mildred Matthews.

Mrs. C. C. Webb has returned to her home in Hillsville, Va., after visiting her daughter Mrs. S. A. Conduff.

Mrs. D. Kirby Pope, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. C. W. Banner, of Greensboro, are guests of their sister Mrs. C. H. Armfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hines and two younger children are visiting his mother Mrs. R. B. Hines in Greenville, S. C.

Mrs. Hannah Hess, of Pennsylvania, for several weeks guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Minick, is visiting Mr. Will Minick and family at Elkin.

Misses Isabel Bean and Kathryn Wannamacher, of Hickory, spent the week end in the city the guest of Miss Grace Foy.

Mrs. Gilmer Julian, of Alexandria, Va., arrived yesterday to spend a few days with her mother Mrs. W. B. Overby, of this city.

Mrs. Mollie Smith, of Greensboro, is the guest of Mrs. C. C. Haymore. Mrs. Smith was formerly a resident of this city.

Mrs. Witt Ashby, who has recently made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Munsey Sparger in Spencer, is the guest of her daughter Mrs. Curtis Worrall.

A box supper will be held at Bannertown school house next Saturday night for the benefit of the Oak Grove Church. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. George L. Shelton one of this city's leading dairymen who has been seriously ill at his home on route 6 for several weeks is slowly improving, his patrons will be glad to learn.

Miss Irma Saunders who is teaching at Saxapahaw visited her parents Sunday accompanied by Miss Virginia Haygood who teaches with her.

Mrs. G. R. Blount, known here as Elizabeth Rothrock, left Saturday for New York city to join her husband, who accepted a position with the Federal Government and took up his duties there the first of October.

Miss Olive Newell, student of Greensboro College for Women, Greensboro, spent the week end with her parents Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Newell, she was accompanied by Miss Gertrude Clay, of Brazil, also a student at G. C. W.

Mrs. N. W. Dobbins who was forced to make a hasty trip to Florida about two weeks ago on account of a very severe attack of asthma is very much improved she will be joined shortly by two of the younger children accompanied by Worth Dobbins and they will take a cottage at Cedar Key for the winter.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Haynes will be deeply interested in the news that Mrs. Haynes' condition is slightly improved, and hopes are entertained for her recovery. Mrs. Haynes has been critically ill with pneumonia in the right lung and was moved to Martin Hospital last Thursday where everything possible is being done for her.

Miss Elizabeth Rogers, of Massachusetts, teachers of athletics in N. C. C. W. Greensboro was the week end guest of Mesdames J. D. Sargent and Ruth Martin. Mrs. W. W. Christian accompanied Mesdames Sargent and Martin who motored to Greensboro to bring Miss Rogers here.

Mr. J. W. Greenwood, of Amelia county, Virginia, formerly of this city is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Short, Mr. Greenwood has not been here for the past nine years and is surprised and delighted with the growth and improvement in the town. He was accompanied here by Mr. John Jones and his daughter Miss May Greenwood who has been with Mrs. Short for some time will accompany him home.

Mrs. Betty Partridge is visiting relatives in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray are now housekeeping in an apartment in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Osborne, of Galax, Va., were week end guests of her father Mr. John Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. T. Bernard, of the Meadows of Dan, are guests of their son, W. E. Bernard and Mrs. Bernard.

The play "See You Later" given under the auspices of the local fire department, Friday night, netted the firemen about $85.00.

The Thanksgiving turkey dinner to be served by the ladies of the Missionary society of Central Methodist Church will be served on Wednesday evening Nov. 24th, at 6:30 o'clock in the church dining room. Tickets are now on sale at $1.00 per plate.

Mr. Charlie Draughn, who was hurt last Saturday on Rockford street when caught by a tractor, which he was moving to the Draughn farm near Dobson, escaped with only light injuries. He was able to leave the hospital early in the week and will soon be entirely recovered.

Mrs. Marshall Bridge Hostess.
Mrs. George E. Marshall entertained the members of her bridge club very delightfully Friday evening in the home of Mrs. J. D. Sargent. Mrs. D. Kirby Pope, Mrs. J. D. Sargent and Mrs. E. M. Hollingsworth filling in for absent members. The home was attractively decorated with huge yellow chrysanthemums and after the playing creamed chicken in patties, sandwiches, pickles, celery and ginger ale were served.

Mrs. Marion Club Hostess
Mrs. N. C. Marion was hostess to the members of the Entre Nous Book club at her cottage at White Sulphur Springs, Saturday afternoon, the only non-members present were Mrs. D. Kirby Pope, of Cleveland, O., and Miss Mary Kochitzky, of Cape Girardeau, Mo. The occasion was very delightful and a delicious salad course followed the game of rook, which with a business session filled the afternoon.

Little Georgie Forest Fulcher Celebrates Birthday.

Mrs. R. H. Fulcher entertained Wednesday evening honoring her little daughter, Georgie Forest, celebrating her sixth birthday. After many games were played, the little guests were invited into the dining room where the lovely birthday cake was cut and served with delicious ice cream, little pink baskets filled with mints were used as favors.

Mrs. Fulcher was assisted by Mrs. Mequire, Mrs. Paul and Mrs. McCaw. The little honoree received many lovely gifts.

Surprise Party For Mrs. Holcomb.

Mrs. F. D. Holcomb was honored Monday afternoon from five to seven o'clock by her sisters Misses Nannie Hazel and Mabel Satterfield at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Satterfield on Church street, the occasion being Mrs. Holcomb's birthday, and the party being a complete surprise to her. The honoree was invited for a ride by some of her friends and stopping at the Satterfield home for a visit was greeted by a number of her relatives and neighbors. The doors of the dining room were then opened upon a scene of rare loveliness—a huge birthday cake with lighted candles, banked with flowers and surrounded by tall lighted candles in crystal candle sticks forming the centre piece of the table. Then it was that Mrs. Holcomb realized that she was being honored, and she was showered with gifts by her friends. The young hostesses served a delicious fruit salad course, followed by pound cake and coffee. The birthday cake was cut by the honoree, and served in blocks, each bearing a lighted taper, as souvenirs. Those enjoying the Misses Satterfield's hospitality and honoring Mrs. Holcomb were Mrs. M. F. Satterfield, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Mrs. S. C. Rierson, Mrs. C. C. Hale, Mrs. William Saunders, Mrs. C. H. Haynes, Mrs. Mollie Hogan, Mrs. Sarah Armfield, Mrs. W. A. Jackson and Mrs. W. E. Woodruff.

First Baptist Church
E. GIBSON DAVIS, Pastor

Bible School, 9:45 A. M.
Morning worship, 11:30 A. M.
B. Y. P. U., 6:30 P. M.
Evening Service, 7:30 P. M.

The pastor preaches on the following themes next Sunday, "The Pre-eminent Christ," and "A Plea For Christ's Departure." Was Jesus only an intellectual teacher? Did He reveal the Father when He was here upon earth, and does He reveal Him now? Can He forgive sins to-day? Who made this strange plea of asking Jesus to move from their community? Is there any likelihood that men are asking the same things to-day?

These and more questions will be asked and answered in next Sunday's messages. Hear them!

There will be special music at both services. You and your friends are invited.

Tea For Teachers and New Members.

The ladies auxiliary of Trinity Episcopal Church gave a delightful tea for the teachers of the graded and high schools and new members of the church last Friday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur H. Marshall on Rockford street.

The home was attractively decorated and the affair was delightfully informal. A salad course with Russian tea and mints was served.

Hale's Department Store

100 Boys' Coats

Just received 100 Boys' and Youth's brand new Coats, from 6 to 18 years. These Coats are out of high class Suits that sold from $10.00 to $15.00 per suit. Now is the time to get your Boys' School Clothes for little money.

Men's Coats and Pants

A big lot of Men's Army Coats and Pants. Will sell coat and pants together or separately.

Ladies' Coats

We are receiving Ladies' Coats and Dresses every Express, right up to the minute styles and Quality at Hale's usual low prices.

Hale's Department Store

S. M. HALE, Proprietor

Estate of Luther G. Waugh

Situated at the Town of DOBSON, Surry County

At Public Auction

Thursday, Nov. 18

At 10:30 A. M. on the Premises

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY: Consisting of the family residence, all outhouses, four tobacco barns, high grade tobacco land, grain and fruit. Well watered and sufficient wood for all domestic purposes. A purchaser should be able to make enough money on the land each year to meet the annual payments.

Sub-divided into Small Tracts, Farms and Residential Lots.

Each cut to make it attractive and desirable. Location cannot be surpassed—less than five hundred feet from the Court House. Convenient to schools, churches, bank, postoffice and very fine High School. State Highway to Mount Airy and Elkin. This is an Administrators Sale, which means the property must be sold for the high dollar and the man on the grounds fixes the price at which it is to be sold.

Terms So Easy Most Everyone Can Afford to Buy!

One-fourth Cash, Balance 1, 2 and 3 Years to Pay.

Remember the Date
THURSDAY, NOV. 18th.

HEAR OUR LIVE WIRE CONCERT BAND

United Real Estate & Auction Co., Inc.

Bolich Building Telephone 1007 Winston-Salem, N. C. Sales Directors

Wachovia Bank & Trust Co.

Administrators, C. T. A.

Try Our SMOKES

It is not only the kind of a cigar, but also its CONDITION that counts when you smoke it.

We not only keep the finest cigars, but keep them in prime smoking condition.

Buy cigars by the BOX. They will cost you less this way and then you will HAVE them when your friends drop in.

LET US BE YOUR DRUGGISTS.

TURNMYRE & LAMM

Two Registered Druggists.

Earn $2,500 A Year

Large Eastern Manufacturer with nationally known product has opening for a high class man in this territory. Will pay about $2,500 first year. See Mr. Hauenstein after 6:30 any evening at 135 Cherry Street or phone No. 263 for appointment.