Stores Close Thanksgiving Day.

At a meeting of the Mount Airy Merchants Association held on November 8, 1926, the merchants who are members of the Association unanimously agreed that they would close their stores for Thanksgiving Day. Of course this does not apply to drug stores and stores that sell food.

Due to the splendid crop year for the farmers, and good business conditions of the merchants, they wish to take this opportunity to allow their employees as well as themselves to attend Thanksgiving services at the various churches, and give thanks for the general prosperity of the community.

A Birthday Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Barber was the scene of a pretty party Armistice Day when their daughter Julia celebrated her 10th birthday. Autumn leaves made attractive decorations and games were enjoyed after which black cream and cake were served, the favors were pumpkin holders filled with home made confection.

Parent-Teachers Association Organized at East Mount Airy.

Mount Airy, Route 2, Nov. 17.—The East Mount Airy graded school has been laying plans to form a parent-teachers association. The first meeting was held October 22, for the purpose of explaining what such an organization would mean to the parents and teachers and community as a whole.

The meeting was conducted by the principal of the school, Miss Lettie Gwyn, and her co-workers Mesdames Jones and Dunman.

The meeting was opened by prayer by R. L. Berry, who afterward gave a splendid talk on the value of an education. Mr. E. S. Hendren, county superintendent, made an excellent talk on the duties and attitudes of the parents toward the school and on the duties and attitudes of the teachers toward the community.

The program was closed by a duet, splendidly sung by Masters Frank Baughn and Ralph Midkiff, after which the Rev. Mr. Berry dismissed with prayer.

SOUR CREAM DISHES

When one has a cupful or two of sour cream it is nice to know several ways of using it.

Deviled Eggs.—Cook six eggs in the shell until hard. Cut into halves lengthwise, remove the yolks and mash with a fork, adding enough thick sour cream to moisten. Add mustard, salt and a little red pepper. If the cream is too sweet add a dash of lemon juice and put the mixture back into the whites.

Sour Cream Pie.—To one cupful of sour cream add two-thirds of a cupful of raisins chopped, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one tablespoonful of flour, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, the yolks of the two eggs, and a little salt. Bake in one crust and use the whites of the eggs for a meringue.

Mermita.—Take a cupful of thick sour cream, two cupfuls of brown sugar, one cupful of chopped raisins, two-thirds of a cupful of butter, two well-beaten eggs, one teaspoonful each of cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg, with flour to make a dough as stiff as can be stirred. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a well-greased pan, leaving plenty of room to spread. A raisin or nut may be added to each to garnish.

Quick Cream Cookies.—To one cupful of sour cream add one cupful of sugar, one egg, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful of soda, with salt and flavoring to taste. Drop by spoonfuls on well-greased pans, pat out and sprinkle with sugar, adding a nut or a raisin. Bake in a quick oven.

Sweet Potato Pie.—Take a cupful of sour cream, one cupful of sugar, one pint of mashed sweet potato, the yolks of four eggs, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one-half a nutmeg; salt all well mixed together. Bake in one crust and spread with strained honey while hot.

Graham Muffins.—Take one cupful of sour cream, one cupful of graham flour, one teaspoonful of soda and one tablespoonful of sugar, a beaten egg, all well mixed. Bake in buttered gem pans.
