Copeland School Holds Prolonged Debate.
Silsbee, Jan. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Jenkins and family have been spending the past week with relatives near Silsbee.

The preliminary for the triangular debate was held Friday afternoon to see which speakers would represent Copeland. Eleven participated. The question was "Resolved, that immigration should be abolished in the United States." The four speakers chosen were: Hans Roover, Mary Ellen Houck, Harvey Hyatt and Richard Simpson.

The people of this section were very much surprised when they awoke Monday morning and saw that the earth was covered with snow, now reported today at noon about 1 1/2 inches deep.

E. W. Fincham, of this place, has purchased a new Ford roadster.
There will be a pie supper at the Copeland school auditorium Saturday night, January 15. Everybody is invited to come.

For throat and fatigue drink a bottle of PEPSI-COLA—you'll be surprised at the result.
