Neutral Mourns Its Child Dead.

Neutral, Jan. 11.—The muffled pealing of the great bell of the Church of the Nativity called Neutral to pay respect today at the eulogistic tier of its child dead—victim of the Laurier Palace theatre fire on Sunday.

Thirty-five white coffins, laid row on row on catafalques, in the nave of the church bore mute evidence of the great tragedy.

Thousands who came to pay their respect could not gain admission to the church, which was filled with parents and relatives, whose stifled sobs came in tragic contrast to the intonations of the priests and altar boys as the requiem mass was celebrated.

Probably Set Record For S. S. Attendance.

Madison, Jan. 15.—Five children of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sharpe, of this place, have established a record for attending Sunday school without missing a Sunday that probably cannot be duplicated by members of any other family in the State.

Matthew Sharpe, who is 24, has attended Sunday school since he was 3 years old without missing a single Sunday; Archie Sharpe, 19, has not missed a single Sunday from Sunday school since he was 6; Jesse Sharpe, now 17, has not been absent from Sunday school since he was 8; James Sharpe, 13 has attended Sunday school since he was 7 without missing a Sunday, and Tilus Sharpe, 11, has been going to Sunday school without missing a Sunday for six years.

Child's Secret Ends In Murder.

Bloomfield, N. J., Jan. 12.—A "secret" revealed by a six-year-old child to her father for a few pennies led to the slaying of her mother and the arrest of her father upon a charge of murder.

Richard Stringer, 32, the father, who was under arrest today, told police that when he returned from work Sunday he found his two children, Marion, 2, and Anna, 6, alone in the house.

Anna, he said, rushed up to him with a shout, "Daddy," she said, "if you will give me money for candy I'll tell you a secret."

A few pennies were produced. Anna told her secret. A strange man she said had been coming to the house in the afternoons to see her mother.

He questioned his wife, Gertrude, also 32, and after a quarrel he shot and killed her. He then proceeded to police headquarters and surrendered.

Trustee's Sale.

Webb Orders Re-Sale of Co-op Warehouse.

Winston-Salem Jan. 15.—Re-sale of Winston-Salem Cooperative warehouse this city, has been ordered by Judge E. Yates Webb, of Federal court. He ruled that the bid of $2,500, made by T. D. Tyack, of Winston-Salem was not a sufficient price for the property and refused to confirm the sale. It was pointed out by the judge that the warehouse cost the association approximately $70,000 and the bid is not sufficiently near the value of the property to justify confirmation of sale.

Turner-Tilley.

Winston-Salem, Jan. 14.—Wednesday morning January 12th, at 11:00 o'clock at the home of Rev. Moses Marsh, of Winston-Salem, Miss Berta Turner, of Laurel Fork, Va., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Turner was united in marriage to Mr. Joe Tilley, of Winston-Salem, the Rev. Mr. Marsh performed a ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Tilley have a host of friends who wish them much happiness.

The marriage was witnessed by several friends and relatives. Just after the ceremony they left for Coalwood, W. Va., where they will reside.

Hant Socked Him On The Head.

Durham, Jan. 8.—Work has been held up for two days because negro laborers engaged in demolishing the last wall of the old Julian S. Carr home in Durham refused to work because one of their number claimed he had been struck by a ghost and his jaw broken, the blow knocking him from his ladder. Claims are that spiritual warnings were given that the wall should not be torn down, the blow to the negro being a physical warning. It took two days for fear of the "hant" to be allayed enough so the negroes would return to work. Hundreds of citizens visited the scene of the former palatial and hospitable home of General Carr, which occupied an entire block. Several houses are to be built on the lot it occupied.

Tact.

Smith went every night to a pool room to play for ten cents a point. One night Mrs. Smith was awakened by loud and persistent knocking at her door. Putting her head out the window she asked: "Who is it? What do you want?" "Does Mrs. Smith live here?" asked the man on the step. "I am Mrs. Smith," she replied. "Well I'm Mr. Kelly from the pool room up the street. Your husband shoots pool there every evening." "Yes, I know that." "He was shooting tonight and lost $1,500." "My husband lost $1,500 shooting pool? He ought to drop dead!" "That's just what he did, madam. Good night!"
