

The Mt. Airy News

Mrs. Richard Morgan, of Newport News, Va., is the guest of Mrs. O. H. Yokley.

Arthur Hicks a tubercular patient will be moved to Sanatorium this week. He has a wife and five children.

Prof. J. H. Hurst has returned from Camptown, Pa., where he was called by the illness and death of his father, J. W. Hurst, a veteran of the Union forces of the Civil War.

Mrs. C. E. Lundy and son, Ellis Lundy, of Raleigh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Foy, Friday and Tuesday en route to and from Galax and other points in Virginia.

Mr. G. C. Welch, prominent merchant and business man of this city, has been very sick for some time, suffering with heart trouble. On account of his illness, his daughter, Mrs. Folger, arrived last week to be with him.

J. S. Belton, of the B. & H. Service Station, is this week attending the automobile show in Atlanta, where among other cars the new Willys-Knight and Whippet lines are on exhibit. This firm is the local dealer for these cars and will have them on hand in a short while.

Mr. Geo. O. Graves returned Saturday from attending the furniture exposition in Chicago and spent Monday in High Point leaving that night for a trip to New York in the interest of the Mount Airy Mantel and Table company. Mrs. Graves and small sons accompanied him to High Point.

An early Sunday morning fire destroyed three houses occupied by colored people across Lovill's Creek. Just a few weeks ago four or five houses were destroyed by fire on the same road, two of the houses were owned by the colored people and the loss was total, one was the property of Mrs. P. S. Rothrock, who carried small insurance, not covering her loss.

Lee Jones died in this city Tuesday afternoon after being in bad health for several months. On last Friday he severely cut himself on the arm with a razor, severing one of the main arteries from which he lost much blood, later causing his death. He is survived by a wife and several children.

Three workmen employed at Ashby and Gwyn's brick yard, four miles west of this city, had a narrow escape one day last week from serious injury when a side of a brick kiln they were working near caved in on them. A large truck was standing by the side of the wall and it served to protect the men from the falling wall, although all were painfully hurt by being struck with flying brick which fell all about them.

The little girl of Deputy Sheriff Walter Jones was painfully injured Monday morning near the quarry when she was struck by an automobile driven by Walter Wall, a farmer living east of this city. The child was crossing the road and several cars were passing at the same time which confused her. Those who witnessed the accident attached no blame to Mr. Wall. The muscles and leaders of one leg were badly injured and it will be some time before she can regain the use of it.

Off To Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Leonard, Misses Frances and Laura Neil Leonard and R. H. Jr., left Saturday for their winter home near Winterhaven, Fla., they expect to remain until June.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Merritt left Saturday to spend the balance of the winter in Florida. They visited Will Merritt at the State University, Chapel Hill en route.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haynes and Miss Anna Reece left Saturday to spend some time fishing and seeing Florida, New Smyrna and Ocala are among their favorite stops. Miss Reece will visit relatives in the "Land of Flowers" returning in the Spring.

Two Pretty Bridge Parties.

Mrs. Jesse F. Prather was hostess to the members of the Two Table Bridge club Tuesday of last week from 3 to 5 o'clock.

In the evening Miss Marian Prather was hostess to her bridge club with Mrs. Morgan Simmons, of Martinsville, Va., an out of town guest.

Delicious refreshments in two courses followed the playing on each occasion.

Club Studies Reconstruction Period Poetry.

The literary department of the Woman's Club of Mount Airy will meet with Mrs. John Sobotta on Pine street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the study of the poetry of the Reconstruction Period with Sidney Lanier representing the South and Josquin Miller the West and the Victorians of New England. Members are requested to bring their books of One Hundred and One Famous Poems.

Local Citizens Hospital Patients

Among the patients at Martin hospital are several residents of this city. Mrs. T. G. Fawcett, for treatment; Mrs. Ursula Slesloff for treatment; Mrs. D. E. Nelson is recovering from an operation performed Friday and Mrs. Jennie Mitchell is recovering from an aggravated case of influenza. Miss Nettie Alfred also an influenza patient returned home Sunday.

Dewey Poore Suffers Broken Nose.

Dewey Poore suffered a broken nose when he ran his car into a wall to avoid a collision with another car on the corner of Main and Church streets Tuesday evening. The front of his car was badly damaged. His injury was attended to at the hospital after which he returned home.

Sunday School Representatives Meet Sunday.

The officers, teachers, superintendents and representatives of organized classes of all denominations together with the pastors of local churches are invited to meet with Mr. C. W. Andrew in the Blue Ridge Hotel at 3:00 o'clock next Sunday afternoon to consider whether or not Mount Airy would like to extend an invitation to the executive committee to arrange for a meeting of the State Baraca Philathea convention here in the Spring.

Martin-Stone.

Miss Bertie Martin daughter of Mrs. Charles L. Martin, of this city, became the bride of Fred H. Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stone, of Round Peak, in a ceremony performed in the home of Rev. C. C. Haymore, who officiated at 8 P. M., Jan. 15.

Mr. Frank Hollingsworth to Be Buried Here.

News was received here Wednesday morning of the sudden death of Mr. Frank Hollingsworth, of Sanford, 51 years old, the youngest son of the late Dr. W. R. and Mrs. Susan Hollingsworth, of this city.

Mr. J. C. Hollingsworth and Dr. Bob Hollingsworth, brothers of the deceased, accompanied by Billy Ashby left at once for Sanford and will return with the remains Thursday morning and the funeral will take place from the home of his mother, Mrs. Susan Hollingsworth, at an hour to be set later.

Mr. Hollingsworth was for years a successful merchant, of Sanford, but retired recently and dealt in real estate. Besides his mother and brothers, two sisters survive, Mrs. S. Porter Graves, of this city, and Mrs. N. Glenn Williams, of Williams. The late Mrs. Ed Ashby, of this city, was also a sister.

The remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

Recent Bride Honored.

Mrs. James F. Ward was honored with a pretty rook party given Thursday afternoon in the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Emmett Brannock, when four tables accommodated the players. The high score prize, a pair of hand decorated bud vases, was won by Mrs. Earl Hines and the consolation, a hand made handkerchief, fell to the guest of honor who also received a lovely set of hand painted candles and candle sticks.

The Brannock home on West Lebanon street was beautified for the occasion with potted plants and cut flowers and after cards were laid aside a salad course, followed by fruit cake and coffee, was served. The favors were white and yellow baskets of mints.

Colored Child Dies of Burns.

The three year old daughter of Matilda Gilliam, colored, was badly burned about the face, neck and chest Tuesday morning when the child's clothing ignited from an open fire. The blaze was put out by neighbors who summoned the mother, who was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sparger, where she was employed as cook.

The child died Tuesday night of the burns and shock, two hours having elapsed while the mother was being notified and medical aid secured.

The family live on O'Neal hill and are extremely poor and destitute, the mother working out by the day to support herself and three small children, aged 1-2, 3 and 5 years. The father is dead and there is no one to care for the three babies, who have to be left alone through the day.

This is a case of real poverty, and financial aid or house furnishings would make the lot of this negro woman and two remaining babies a little easier. Aid can be given through the Surry County Health department.

Friends and customers of Miss Mary Jennie Creed will be glad to know that she has practically regained her health after her operation for appendicitis and expects to be at her post with the W. G. Lewis Co. beginning Monday.

Birth Rate Past Year Doubled the Deaths.

According to reports of J. C. Hill, registrar of births and deaths for this city, Mount Airy gained a total of 110 over the deaths for the year of 1926. During the year just closed there were recorded 130 deaths in the city while the stark brought 240 new lives into our borders.

The death rate the last half of the year was considerably lower than the first half—70 died during the first half and 50 during the last half of the year. But the births were more equally divided up, as there were 119 the first half and 121 the last half of the year.

Harris-Shugart.

Miss Anna Harris became the bride of Wade H. Shugart in a simple ceremony performed in the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Fox, in this city, Saturday morning, the Rev. Mr. Fox officiating. Both bride and groom are popular young people of Elkin and were accompanied by two friends from that city. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Shugart and the bride a daughter of Mrs. Ed Harris.
