Club Meets at Blue Ridge Hotel 6:30 P. M. Every 2 and 4 Friday

Something New Under The Sun.

"We may live without poetry, music and books but civilized man cannot live without cooks." And Mount Airy club women cannot "meet" without chairs, so in order to raise funds with which to purchase chairs for the new Community Building, a group of benefit parties will be given Friday afternoon by the members of the finance committee, of which Mrs. J. H. Gwyn is chairman. These parties will be in different sections of town, and every member of the club and as numbers of other women have been invited to attend at 50 cents each, to swell the club treasury while they enjoy each other.

There will be an all-rook party at Mrs. J. D. McCollum's, with Mrs. McCollum, Mrs. Harvey Boyd, Mrs. A. B. Sommerville and Mrs. Henry Stewart joint hostesses.

In the home of Mrs. Herman Robinson on Lebanon street there will be an all-bridge party, the hostesses being Mesdames Claude Absher, J. H. Gwyn, John Midkiff and Mrs. Robinson.

At Mrs. W. W. Burke's on Pine street both bridge and rook will be played, and the hostesses will be Mrs. E. W. Paddison, Mrs. J. J. Leake, Mrs. W. J. Byerly and Mrs. Burke.

Also, tables for both rook and bridge will be arranged at the home of Mrs. J. D. Jenkins on S. Main St., joint hostesses with Mrs. Jenkins will be Mrs. Wince Fulton, Mrs. J. S. Bray and Mrs. C. M. Whitlock.

For the women who do not play either bridge or rook, a party will be given in the home of Mrs. Calvin Graves on Rawley Avenue, Mrs. Reid Jackson, Mrs. John Folger and Mrs. Cleve Hale being hostesses with Mrs. Graves.

An organized effort is being made to have these parties largely attended and the loyalty of club women to all past efforts assures the committee of unparalleled success.

It is so refreshing—PEPSI-COLA. Try a bottle.

Kiwanis Meets Friday Evening.

The Kiwanis meeting Friday night will be in charge of the Kiwanis educational committee. This committee is the following members: Melr, S. Martin, chairman; Members, J. H. Folger, E. H. Kochitsky, E. G. Davis, C. D. Crouch and E. W. Fox.

Melr never does things half way and he and his committee have arranged a most excellent program.

Dr. W. S. Rankin, director of the hospital fund of the Duke foundation will make the address of the evening. He is recognized as one of the greatest men the South has produced in many years and Mount Airy is distinctly honored by his presence on this occasion.

Miss Emma Johnson has consented to sing for us again and the male quartet is sure to be on hand. Any one of these three parts of the program will be worth while. Every member is urged to make a special effort to attend this meeting. Why not make it a 100 per cent meeting? We have never had one.

On February 11th the Winston-Salem club will meet with us and put on a program, let's plan to make this a great meeting too.

Senior League 8:45 P. M.

Next Sunday morning M. G. Daniel, Jr., a student of Wake Forest College and a native of Ninevah in Assyria will speak at the morning hour of worship on conditions in the Near East. He has a wonderful story to tell of that land of war and famine, of persecution and death and the public is invited to hear him.

A large delegation of leaguers attended the meeting at Elkin last Sunday afternoon, the Rockford Street Church delegation won the banner for the largest attendance. The next meeting will be held in the Rockford Street Church in April.

Rev. W. Arthur Barber, secretary of the W. N. C. Conference Epworth League, is having splendid meetings each evening this week in the Baraca room of this church, interesting programs have been arranged for Thursday and Friday evenings. If you have missed the other meetings try to attend these.

Miss Margaret Fisher, student of Greensboro College for Women, beautifully rendered an offertory solo, "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" in addition to the usual good music rendered by the regular church choir.

News of Siloam and Vicinity.

Siloam, Jan. 24.—Rev. Geo. Oakley, pastor of the Hills Grove church filled his regular appointment Sunday. He delivered an interesting sermon from the text, "How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation", and laid great emphasis on the word neglect.

Miss Ethel Lineback of Mount Airy had as her week end guest Miss Ruth Weaver, of this place.

Claude Flincham, correspondent for "The News" spent Sunday afternoon with relatives at Mount Airy.

The O. Henry Literary society of the Copeland high school held its regular meeting in the school auditorium Friday afternoon. The question involved was, "Resolved, that North Carolina is the best state in the Union."

The speakers were: Affirmative, Clayton Smith and Howard Taylor. Negative: Claude Flincham and Escoe Peele.

The sixth grade of the Copeland school played the Rockford team in a game of basket ball Friday at noon on the Copeland court. The score was 31 and 4 in favor of Copeland. It was a clean game. Referees, Graham and Cummings.

Former Judge Is Convicted.

Winston-Salem, Jan. 22.—Walter E. Brock, former Superior court judge, was convicted by a Forsyth county jury this afternoon on a charge of embezzlement of $900 from a former client, Mrs. Lillie Campbell, of Walkertown, near here.

Mrs. Campbell was one of Brock's clients.

A motion by the defense that the verdict be set aside was continued until the next term of court by the trial judge. The next term of court convenes on March 28.

North Carolina Holds Its Place As Stork State.

Washington, Jan. 16.—North Carolina, according to a census bureau report issued here today, continues to have the highest birth rate.

In 1924, as in 1920, North Caro-lin has the highest rate, 32.2 and 31.5 respectively per thousand," it says. North Carolina has more boy babies than girl babies. Her rural districts exceed by a small fraction her cities in births. The negro birth rate in 1924 was 34.9 per thousand.

The Last Word in Foot Comfort

Peters Shoes

Do you know the value of an arch support? If not, you are probably suffering needless strain and pain from foot trouble, caused by a weak or fallen arch, and an improperly fitted shoe.

Peters Shoes overcome this trouble for you, because they are scientifically constructed to conform to nature's demands, hence a shoe that fits the foot and protects it.

And since you pay no more for Peters Shoes than you do for ill-fitting ones without the arch support, why not make your next shoe purchase here and begin to enjoy real shoe comfort?
