

The Mt. Airy News

Miss Love Bunker has returned to Greensboro after spending the week end at her home here.

Mrs. J. M. Fulton is a patient in Martin Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. John McSwain, of Timmonsville, S. C., is the guest of her parents, Judge and Mrs. W. F. Carter.

R. T. Gurrell, of Greensboro, is spending a few days here on business.

Miss Beulah Ashburn spent Monday with friends in Winston-Salem.

Miss Margaret Fulton, who holds a position in Winston-Salem, was a week end visitor in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fulton.

Misses Etta Bennett, Hazel and Connie Jacobs, and Messrs. Walter Combs and Willie Smith spent Sunday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Wade Moody is a patient at Martin Memorial Hospital for the purpose of having an operation for goitre.

Miss Louisa Kochtitzky spent Tuesday in Winston-Salem, where she was honor guest at a party given by Miss Josephine Dixon, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Ines Paisley, who teaches near Summerfield, will spend the coming week end with Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Baird.

Mrs. C. L. Coon, of Wilson, spent the week end here to be with her mother, Mrs. B. F. Sparger, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Sparger, of Carneys Point, N. J., were called here by the serious illness of Mr. Sparger's mother, Mrs. B. F. Sparger.

Miss Mary Beasley has returned to her home in this city after submitting to an operation at Martin Hospital for the removal of goitre.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Dixon and son Eddie Dick have returned to their home after spending the tobacco warehouse season in Henderson, where Mr. Dixon bought tobacco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Childress, Master Heath Johnson and Mrs. B. Y. Goad, attorney, all of Hillaville, Va., were week end guests of Mrs. J. D. Jenkins, in this city.

Miss Olive Newell, who has been a patient in Lawrence Hospital, Winston-Salem, for some weeks, has returned to her home in this city and will be confined to her room for the present.

Frank Smith, student of the University of North Carolina, and John Minick, student of Bucknell University, Louisburg, Pa., are doing good work as is shown by the appearance of their names on the honor rolls recently published by these institutions.

An organization to be known as the Girls Circle of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church was formed with twelve members in the home of Mrs. W. Fulton last Thursday evening. Refreshments were served after the business session.

D. A. Robertson is representing the Mount Airy Buggy & Auto Co. at a convention of the Studebaker dealers held in Detroit, Mich., and South Bend, Ind., this week. This convention also marks the 75th anniversary of the founding of the Studebaker Corporation of America.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smith have returned from Statesville, where they were called by the illness and death of Mrs. Smith's brother, Mr. Edgar Gilmer last week. Several others who were expecting to go over on Thursday for the funeral were prevented by the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Brock, Mrs. H. M. Foy and little daughter have gone to Greenville, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Brock to spend two weeks with their son Joe a student at Furman University and Mrs. Foy and little daughter to visit her mother and brother, Mrs. R. B. Hines and E. Hines.

W. S. Martin has arrived in this city to assume his new duties at the North Carolina Granite Corporation. Mr. Martin has been elected as secretary and treasurer of this concern. He served in that capacity for a number of years but last year spent several months in his home locality in the north, and returns to this city to take up the work he formerly did here.

Mrs. Hollingsworth Hostess to Entree Nous Club.

Mrs. W. M. Hollingsworth entertained the members of the Entree Nous Book Club Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the home of Mrs. R. R. Jackson. Quantities of spring flowers made a beautiful setting for six tables where ruck was played with zest. After cards were laid aside chicken salad, pickles, sandwiches, Russian tea and stuffed dates were served by Mesdames R. R. Jackson, Winston Fulton, E. G. Smith, Geo. O. Graves, J. C. Hollingsworth, Carroll Hill and E. C. Ashby.

Dinner-Bridge For Winners And Husbands.

Members and husbands of members of the Killcare Bridge Club were entertained at a four course dinner Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Will Hollingsworth with Mesdames E. W. Paddison, C. M. Whitlock and Fred Folger joint hostesses with Mrs. Hollingsworth, carrying out their custom of the losers entertaining the winners and husbands at the close of a series of games.

The home was tastefully decorated with jonquils and after dinner bridge was played.

Mrs. Whitlock Hostess to Killcare Club.

Mrs. C. M. Whitlock was hostess Thursday afternoon to the members of the Killcare Bridge Club at her home on North Main street the occasion being their regular bi-weekly meeting. Mrs. Roy Mitchell won the prize for a series of games, this being the last of the series. Ices, cake and nuts were served after the game.

Fascinating Study of Poetry By Club Women.

Members of the Literature Department of the Woman's Club met Friday afternoon in the Community Building and had an exceptionally interesting program beginning the study of the technique of modern poetry as outlined by Marguerite Wilkinson in her book "New Voices." The discussion covered the design and rhythm as interpreted and used by the modernist. Poems illustrating these points concluded the program.

"Who's Your Tailor?"

This is a most pertinent question, for who your tailor is depends on the appearance of your clothes. The last three days of this week there will be a representative of E. V. Price & Co., Chicago tailors, at Prather Clothing Store, with a full line of materials of the latest weaves and colors. Don't forget the dates, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week. Your attention is called to the announcement in another part of this paper.

Mrs. Martin Hostess For Bride-Elect

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Moir S. Martin was the scene of a beautiful party Thursday evening, when Mrs. Martin entertained the members of her book club, and a few other invited guests, in honor of Miss Louisa Kochtitzky, whose wedding to Mr. R. B. Crawford, Jr., of Winston-Salem, occurs March 26.

The home was decorated with quantities of spring flowers, and the idea of St. Patrick's Day was carried out in all decorations, favors and refreshments.

During the evening ruck was played at seven tables. The prize for high score being won by Mrs. Will Prather.

To her honor guest, Mrs. Martin presented an exquisite piece of glassware.

Following the games a very refreshing and attractive ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. B. Y. Graves, Mrs. Edwin Carter and Miss Edna Homet.

Dance and Card Party in Home of Mrs. Carter

Mrs. M. M. Carter entertained with an informal dance Friday evening in compliment to the twelve young lady teachers who make their home with her. Orchestra music was furnished and punch served throughout the evening.

On Saturday afternoon Misses Lydia Tyson, Laura Hedrick, Tabba Reynolds, Clara Baily, and Gene Culbertson entertained at bridge in the home of Mrs. Carter in compliment to Miss Mary D. Atkinson, of Guilford College, and Miss Lillian Stafford, of North Wilkesboro, Miss Atkinson being the guest of Misses Tyson, Hedrick and Reynolds and Miss Stafford being the guest of Misses Baily and Culbertson. A deck of cards was given as high score prize and gifts of perfume were presented to each of the guests of honor.

An appetizing salad course with coffee and whipped cream was served by the hostesses assisted by Miss Mary Zilla Carter.

Aged Citizen Dies.

William Anderson Nichols died at his home near White Plains last Thursday at the age of 78 years. He was twice married and is survived by eight children, Ben and Charlie Nichols of White Plains being sons of the deceased.

The funeral was conducted at the White Plains Friends Church by Elder G. O. Key of Pilot Mountain and Rev. T. W. Wooten of White Plains. Mr. Nichols was one of the substantial citizens of the county, a large crowd attended the funeral.

Friends and Relatives Gathering for Kochtitzky-Crawford Nuptials.

Friends and relatives of the family and bride are already arriving for the Kochtitzky-Crawford wedding which will take place in Central Methodist Church, Saturday evening, March 26th at 7:30 o'clock and which will be one of the leading events of the spring. The bridesmaids, who are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kochtitzky are Misses Elizabeth Lynn, Roanoke, Va.; Nancy Jones, Salem, Va.; Elizabeth Norfleet, Mary Martha Lybrook, Winston-Salem; Kathryn Howard, Kathryn Gregory, Greensboro; Mrs. Herman Blount, Rocky Mount, matron-of-honor; Miss Helen Smith, of this city, is also a bridesmaid. The groomsmen who arrive Friday are Dr. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount; Messrs. Bailey Lipfert, Forrest Wright, Marcus Wilkinson, Bill Roth, William Sheppard, Charles Norfleet, all of Winston-Salem; Mr. William Wright, violinist, is also of Winston-Salem. Among the affairs planned for the bridal party will be a bridge party given by Mrs. W. J. Byerly at 3:30 P. M. Friday, and an after rehearsal reception in the home of Mrs. John Sobotta Friday evening when the wedding cake will be cut; the ushers Messrs Grey Sydnor, Lindsay Holcomb, Billy Carter and Walter Carter, all of this city, will be hosts at a wedding breakfast at 12 M. Saturday in the private dining room of the Blue Ridge Hotel.

At 4 P. M. Saturday Mrs. E. H. Kochtitzky will entertain the entire bridal party and out-of-town guests with a buffet supper. At 7:30 the nuptial vows will be spoken when Miss Louisa Kochtitzky becomes the bride of Mr. Robert Baker Crawford, Jr., of Winston-Salem; at 8 o'clock the wedding reception in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kochtitzky will be a fitting close to the round of affairs with which the bride has been honored ever since the announcement of her engagement.

Beethoven Week.

Music lovers of Mount Airy are invited to pay tribute to one of the world's greatest composers, Ludwig Van Beethoven, Friday afternoon at the Community Building. This great master of music is foremost in the minds of the music world this week as Saturday, March 26 is the 100th anniversary of his death and the Music Department of the Woman's Club will commemorate his passing with a special program of Beethoven music rendered on the Automatic Othophonic Victrola. The use of this wonder instrument is given by the Victor Talking Machine Co., through their local dealers, the Carter-Walker Furniture Co., who will also furnish the Beethoven records.

All lovers of good music are urged by the department to attend this program which gives promise of being one of the greatest musical feasts held in Mount Airy for some time. Similar Beethoven concerts will be given throughout the county during the week. Be sure to be present Friday, March 25, at 8 o'clock in the Community Building.

Death of Young Woman.

On Sunday afternoon, March 20, about 3:20 P. M. death claimed Mrs. Lane Wood. She had been ill for about nine weeks, having been a patient in Martin Memorial Hospital for five weeks.

Funeral services were conducted at the Friends Church, White Plains, Tuesday, March 22nd. The services were conducted by Everett Draughn, Scales Draughn and Lottie M. Robertson.

Mrs. Woods was a consistent member of the Baptist Church, and in every way a thorough christian.

The lovely floral tributes were an expression of the high esteem in which she was held.

First Baptist Church

E. GIBSON DAVIS, Pastor
Bible School, 9:45 A. M.
Morning worship, 11:00 A. M.
B. Y. P. U., 6:30 P. M.
Evening Service, 7:30 P. M.
Prayer and Praise Service, Wednesday, 7:30 P. M.

The pastor preaches next Sunday morning and evening on the following subjects, "Kindling the Passion," and "The Careless Fools." You and your friends are cordially invited to all the services of our church. With an attendance of 471 in Bible school last Sunday will you not be one that will help to reach a 500 mark next Sunday? We should have that many in average attendance.

The evangelistic services under the direction of the pastor and Mr. Olive will begin a week from next Sunday. Make your plans to attend as many of these services as possible.

A full-grown elephant, men familiar with circus animals assert, is capable of carrying a two-ton load on his back.

CLOSING OUT It Must All Go! Do Your Easter Shopping at Wholesale Prices. Big stock spring Dress goods, White goods, fast color Prints and Suitings, at wholesale prices. Fine Umbrellas and Parasols at Closing-Out Prices. 6 Ladies' all Silk Umbrellas, in assorted colors, sold $7.00 and $8.50, closing-out prices, $4.28 and $5.28. 6 Umbrellas in good quality and colors, sold for $3.00 and $3.50, closing-out price, $1.78 and $2.28. 18 Men's full size Umbrellas in good quality gloria silk, sold for $3.00, closing out at $1.78. Children's Parasols all at closing-out prices. Boy's and Children's Suits and extra Trousers at wholesale prices. RED STAR HEMMED DIAPERS. 20 x 20 Closing Out Price, per dozen, 78c. 24 x 24 Closing Out Price, per dozen, 98c. 27 x 27 Closing Out Price, per dozen, $1.28. 30 x 30 Closing Out Price, per dozen, $1.48. PUMPS AND STRAP SLIPPERS. 50 pairs Ladies' small size Pumps and Strap Slippers, in the very fine grades, not bad styles, to close out at, per pair, 50c and 98c. ALL MUST GO, DOWN TO THE BARE WALLS. ALL FIXTURES FOR SALE. STORE BUILDING FOR RENT. Burke's. Dependable Store Merchants.

Easter! NEW FOOTWEAR. Easter is the time when we are most proud of our feet, for it is at this season when so many new styles are displayed from which to make a selection. And the warm weather permits their being worn in comfort. If you would be properly "footed" for Easter, let your optics fall upon our present display of fine footwear. You will realize instantly that you have come to the right place for style and comfort, and the price is also comfortable to your pocketbook. FASHION'S NEWEST HOSIERY. To match your footwear, we are displaying the season's newest array of hosiery. Every new shade in fine hosiery is here, and the prices are most reasonable. 49c to $2.50 per pair. Honest Values--Where Quality and Low Price Meets. BOYLES BROS. Haymore's Old Stand--Next to 5 and 10 MOUNT AIRY, N. C.