GREAT CITY CAPTURED.

If you can imagine what it means for an invading army to capture a city of a million and a half people and drive out an army that had occupied it, then you can understand what has taken place in the city of Shanghai, China, during the past few days.

To talk about China it is hard to give a clear idea of what is taking place, so extensive is the country. If you think of our own country as being at war and the New England states holding New York city and the Southern states trying to capture it with a great army, then you have something of a picture of what is taking place in China.

All the great nations have war vessels and soldiers at Shanghai and will defend the foreign population if necessary.

China for Chinamen, is the slogan of the victorious armies, and that may mean war on all foreign citizens. If it does it will mean war with China by all the great nations.

AFTER FORDS MONEY.

Aaron Sapiro suing Henry Ford for a million dollars which sum he claims is due him in the way of damages arising from articles published in Ford's paper, The Dearborn Independent, which showed the business methods of Sapiro.

The Dearborn Independent is a paper that is owned and controlled by Mr. Ford. Its motto is: A chronicler of the neglected truth.

Aaron Sapiro, yet a young man, came into prominence some years ago as the attorney for a cooperative association out in the west. The association was highly profitable to the men who made it up and there was a disposition on the part of other citizens in other lines of endeavor to organize too.

Now Sapiro contends that he is damaged to the extent of a million dollars. Mr. Ford contends that a bit of the neglected truth has been told and that the world is wiser by knowing it and can now know what to expect when it turns over its hard earned cash to Sapiro and men of his kind.

The case will be front page news for weeks to come and will be a subject of national importance. Citizens from this state will be witnesses to show the methods of Sapiro in organizing the tobacco association.

Mrs. Combs of Fancy Gap Section Passes.

Mrs. Martha Combs well known resident of Cass and wife of Mr. Noah Combs departed this life Monday and her remains were laid to rest in the Edwards Cemetery Tuesday with Elder Vass, of Galax, Va., officiating.

EGGS AT $2.50 EACH.

If you had some of the cold cash of the realm do you think you would invest it in eggs at $2.50 each? The chances are that you would not. But Mrs. Bob Midkiff whose home is near this city did and she is proud of it. She has just ordered a setting of eggs, fifteen, for which she paid the neat sum of $37.50.

Mrs. Midkiff has been selling her eggs from her small flock all the winter for eight cents each, or ninety-six cents a dozen, while others about her were selling theirs for half that price.

TROUBLE IN GEORGIA.

They are having trouble in Georgia that they say is destined to overthrow the government unless something is done. Like an epidemic of measles the disposition to take mean scamps out and beat them up has spread over the whole state until it is decidedly unsafe for a man to undertake to live a double life.

Organized society must have law enforcement by courts, is a fact that no one can deny. To permit prowling bands of good or bad citizens to set themselves up as a court and be both judge and jury and inflict punishment on whom they convict in their hastily assembled courts is a method that can never be justified.

Mrs. William Taylor Thompson At Rest.

Mrs. Matilda Ann Thompson, aged 76 1/2 years, widow of W. Taylor Thompson, who departed this life thirty-two years ago, passed away at the home of her only son, Mr. John D. Thompson, in this city, last Friday at 11 A. M., after having been in a critical condition for a number of weeks.

The funeral was conducted from the home of Mr. Thompson Saturday afternoon at 2:30 P. M., the Revs. W. A. Newell and D. V. Price officiating in a tender and touching service and the remains were laid to rest in Oakdale Cemetery.

EVELESS EDENT?

"Bahl!" Says Ye Editor.

Probably you have heard of an Eveless Edent, of an Admiree Paradise, of a horseless carriage, of a toothless buzz-saw, but when, O, when, did any one in Mount Airy ever hear of a Womanless Wedding before?

However and nevertheless, this paper elsewhere in its columns bears the announcement of a forthcoming event of a matrimonial nature in which the female of the species will be conspicuous by their absence. This reminds us that young folks will be young folks no matter what their elders say to them.

Just the same the idea when viewed from a wholly disinterested standpoint and merely as a spectacle has a certain fascination. If, for instance, some bantam-weight bachelor should lead to the altar a charming but strapping Amazon like the lovely Miss Graham Harrison.
