Revival at Rockford Street Methodist Church.

"A Church where you are warmly welcomed to worship."
Rev. J. O. Ervin, Pastor.

Revival services are now in progress at Rockford Street Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. J. O. Ervin, is doing the preaching to large and growing crowds. The music by the choir and six-piece orchestra is being splendidly rendered.

On Sunday night the speaker pictured and presented to the audience, "The Poorest Man in the World," the man who is not a Christian. Using the words of St. Paul in Ephesians 2:12, where it is graphically noted that the man who is not a Christian is: first, without Christ; second, he is an alien to the commonwealth of Israel; third, he is a stranger to the covenant of promise; fourth, he is without hope; and fifth, he is without God in the world.

On Monday night the preacher discussed "Our Predominating Desires," using again the words of St. Paul in Romans 10:1, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved."

These meetings are being conducted each day at 3 p. m., and at 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited and warmly welcomed to any and all these services.

Greener Pastures.....

WE were CHEWING the RAG with Marshall Fowler YESTERDAY with a view to finding OUT if the GROCERY business is any BETTER than the DRUG business but he would rather own a BANK and have a HOLIDAY every few days and SATURDAY afternoons off. On the OTHER hand Ed Linville says being a BANKER is fine but SOMETIMES he wishes he was on a FARM and Ed McKinney would like to run a DRUG store and not have to WORRY about rain. It's FUNNY how the OTHER fellow's JOB always looks the SOFTEST isn't it?

MORAL: We are trying to do our little job as well as these other fellows are doing theirs.
