

Copeland School Enters County Contest at Dobson.

Siloam, April 25.—A contest held the morning of April 6 among the grades of Siloam and Copeland and to select the speakers eligible to recite at the County Commencement at Dobson resulted in Copeland gaining the privilege of sending six representatives. Little Miss Ruth Pendry, of Siloam captured the first grade championship for Siloam with her daintiness. A spelling contest entered with Copeland victorious over the rival school; though Siloam came out second and is eligible to send a girl speller to the final Surry contest at Dobson. The speakers who won are:

1st grade—Miss Ruth Pendry from Siloam; 2nd grade—Miss Virginia Dare Simpson, of Copeland; 3rd grade—Hassel Ashburn, Copeland; 4th grade—Miss Lillian Simpson, Copeland; 5th grade—Miss Mildred Cook, Copeland; 6th grade—Myrtle

N. C. Federation of Woman's Clubs Annual Meeting in Durham Next Week.

Club women who attend the 25th annual meeting of the North Carolina Federation of Woman's Clubs in Durham May 2-5th will find in store for them some of the most interesting programs ever held. The representation is based on membership which gives the Mount Airy Woman's Club the right to send four delegates including the president of the club and a cordial invitation is extended to all other club women to attend any or all of the sessions, the only privilege accorded delegates not accorded other women in attendance is the privilege of voting. All of the splendid programs and special features including the garden party at Chapel Hill, the cotton reception and annual Federation dinner will be open to all the club women who care to attend.

The Mount Airy Woman's Club is trying a new plan this year to secure representation; for several years past delegates have been elected by popular vote, but when the time approached in every case it has been necessary to substitute other at the last minute, who found they could go, for those who had been elected and could not go. This year no delegates have been elected and the president, Mrs. C. C. Hale urges all who desire to go to communicate with her and she will advise them about the plans and expense of the trip, and furnish them credential cards. It is earnestly hoped that several besides the allowed number of delegates will go from Mount Airy.

Read the ads. carefully. They will give you valuable news.
