A color scheme of pink and green was carried out in a rather novel manner, a congealed salad in green was topped with pink cottage cheese, with this salad were served olives, sandwiches and green tea, green mints and pink rosebuds completed the attractive serving.

Central Methodist Church

REV. W. A. NEWELL, Pastor

The monthly union meeting of the day circles of the Woman's Missionary Society was held in the Sparger room Monday afternoon with a splendid program on social service conducted by Mrs. R. H. Leonard. The material for the program was selected from leaflets prepared by Mrs. W. A. Newell, of this city, who is chairman of the Social Service Department of the Council of the M. E. Church, South. The evening circle, which is composed of business girls and women who cannot attend the afternoon meeting met with Mrs. O. H. Yokley Monday evening and the same program of the afternoon was discussed. The Epworth League will hold an unusually interesting session next Sunday evening as reports will be made summing up the year's work before conference. New pledges and plans will be made for the coming year.

How Old Are You?

You are invited to come to Rockford Street Methodist Church next Friday night and answer pleasantly and positively. Now let no one have any fears, for it will not be announced to the company present, nor be published in the papers. Remember the date 8 to 10 P. M., Friday, June 10, 1927. You cannot afford to "missit." There is to be music—instrumental and vocal; solos, duets, quartets, and then some; the orchestra "with bells on." And there is to be a new thing under the sun—a mixed duet (Methodist and Baptist) Revs. Messrs. Davis and Ervin to sing. Yes and refreshments too. Come regardless of age or denominational lines. The old people are especially invited to an hour of good cheer. Just come to the Sunday school room and enter. Every one is allowed to bring an amount of change equal to one cent for each year of his age. Goes to the benefit of the Epworth League.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of our dear mother and also for the care and the beautiful flowers. May the Lord's richest blessing be with all who helped in our trouble.

Mary Jennie Creed and family.

IN EVERY HOUSEHOLD

There are pieces of furniture that need repairs; these pieces can be made as good as new, at small cost, if not allowed to wait until they are beyond repair and have to be rebuilt; rebuilding costs more than repairing. We specialize in these repairs and rebuilding, also refinishing and upholstering, and the price is always reasonable. Work done on short notice by experts in this line. Pictures framed, 24 hour service.

Antiques bought, sold, exchanged, or sold on consignment.

MORE ON PEDDLERS

We seem to have caused a STIR by our ARTICLE last week on the PEDDLER'S OVERHEAD and one of our CUSTOMERS asked why manufacturers choose that method of DISTRIBUTION if the OVERHEAD is so much GREATER than that of the RETAIL MERCHANT. We put it THIS way. The manufacturer sends out his HIGH POWERED agent who carries his SAMPLES into the home where it is difficult to compare them as to QUALITY and PRICE with COMPETITIVE MERCHANDISE. By AVOIDING comparison and FORCING sales he is often able to sell an INFERIOR article at a HIGH price and secure DISTRIBUTION which would be IMPOSSIBLE for him in a more COMPETITIVE market.

Moral: Compare his wares with those of our home merchant. It is up to us to make the comparison favorable to our goods.
