Mrs. Williamson Bridge Hostess

Mrs. B. H. Williamson was hostess last Friday morning at five tables of bridge in compliment to Mrs. R. C. Carson, of Gaffney, S. C., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Dixon. Table prizes were given, the winners being Mesdames E. M. Linville, W. D. Leonard, E. H. Dixon, Miss Edna Homet, and Mrs. James Brown, of Asheville, the prizes were attractive bottles of perfume. To Mrs. Carson the hostess presented a silver vanity case. Among the out-of-town guests was Mrs. P. A. George, of Winston-Salem.

Delicious refreshments consisted of a salad course followed by raspberry ice with cake. Sweetpeas and larkspur furnished the floral decorations.

Mrs. Joyce Hostess For Visitors

Mrs. W. D. Joyce was hostess at a bridge party and dance Wednesday evening in compliment to her house guests Misses Ruby Bryson and Marguerite Hawkins of Asheville. Nine couples enjoyed Mrs. Joyce's hospitality and punch, sandwiches and candy were served during the evening. The home was decorated with Canterbury bells, roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Christian Hostess.

Mrs. W. W. Christian was hostess on Wednesday afternoon in compliment to her guest Mrs. Eugene Shaw, of Greensboro. Bridge was played at four tables, the high score prize being a very pretty hand painted call bell, the consolation Houligant bath salts and to the guest of honor Mrs. Christian presented a lovely flower holder.

Refreshments were served in two courses.

Mrs. Will A. Jones, of Louisville, spent last week here with relatives and was accompanied home by Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. S. N. Allred, of Texas, and niece little Mary Frances Hauser, of Anderson, S. C.

Mrs. Martin Hostess For Mrs. Carson

Mrs. Ruth Martin was hostess at a very delightful two table bridge party in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sargent Friday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. R. C. Carson, of Gaffney, S. C., sister and house guest of Mrs. Ed Dixon. A dainty gift was presented to the honoree and refreshments were served in two courses by the hostess assisted by Mrs. E. C. Rivers. The home was attractively decorated with Japanese iris.

Miss Helen Smith Goes Abroad

Miss Helen Smith leaves Thursday and will sail June 25th for Europe going with the North Motor Tour. Miss Smith and her friends and the entire party will be under the personal supervision of Mr. and Mrs. North, of Atlanta, Ga., who take their own Cadillac cars on the trip, giving them entire freedom in choosing their routes and stops.

Among the countries visited will be the British Isles, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and France.

Troop One Camp News

Troop 1, of Mount Airy, which is sponsored by the First Baptist Church, is making wonderful strides of progress since its organization. All the boys, which number 25 since the troop was organized in March, are making progress passing tests and acquiring a general knowledge of scouting. A few of the events that have taken place and will take place are: Tuesday night the troop enjoyed an over-night hike to the White Sulphur Springs which was enjoyed by everyone who attended. On July 19th Wayne P. Serrill, of Atlanta, Ga., a noted Southern play promoter, will send a representative here to stage an elaborate play with 25 or more boys of Troop 1 taking part. The costumes and characters of the play, "Cupid Up To Date," will make the evening filled with laughter for every one who attends. This play will be given at the National Theatre. Summer time is camping time. All of the boys are bubbling over with joy over the idea of such a wonderful site being secured on New River for the camp, which will be held the latter part of July.—Contributed.
