

Trespassing Hunter Must Replace Squirrels He Shot

Greensboro, Nov. 14.—P. E. Harman, local resident, a hunting dog, but he had the misfortune to stray on posted, restricted, land while in the quest of squirrels. He killed three and in anticipation tasted a succulent squirrel pie.

Game Warden Olan Barnes was notified of the trespass upon the premises of Tom Pemberton, well known

Notice Trustee's Sale of Land

By virtue of authority vested in the undersigned trustee in a certain deed of trust executed by the Eosdale Orchard Co., for the Slate Mountain Orchard Co., on the 25th day of March, 1920 and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Surry County, N. C., in book 70 page 147, default having been made in the payment of the notes therein secured, and at the request of the holder, I will sell for cash, to the highest bidder at public auction in front of the Bank of Mount Airy, Mount Airy, N. C., on Saturday, December 10th, 1927, at 1 o'clock P. M.,

1st Tract: Adjoining the lands of Sparger Orchard Company and others, and bounded as follows:

Beginning at the ford of the branch in the Brower road, and runs S. 54 deg. East 3.50 chs. to a maple, S. 30 deg. East 24 chains to an old road in the mountain, North 60 deg. East 2.54 chains to a stake in the old road, North 13 deg. East 3.42 to a stake in old road, North 41 deg. E. 2.58 chains to a chestnut oak in the road, North 10 deg. E. 1.35 chs. to a post oak in the road, North 35 deg. East 2.10 chains to a post oak in road, North 25 deg. East 2.55 chains to a stake, North 55 deg. East 2.94 chains to a stake in road, North 44 deg. East 4.50 chains to a stake in road, North 60 deg. East 5 chains to chestnut oak, North 55 deg. E. 2.90 chains to pine corner, North 43 1-2 deg. West 21.18 chains to the Brower road, South 41 1-2 deg. W. 9 chains to a stake, South 31 deg. W. 4.25 chs. to a stake, S. 44 1-2 deg. W. 6 chains to a stake in road, South 58 deg. W. 5.25 chs. to a stake in road and the beginning, containing 84 66-100 acres more or less.

2nd Tract: Adjoining the lands of Watson heirs, F. A. Crestman and others, and bounded as follows:

Beginning at a black gum, old corner, and runs S. 43 deg. E. crossing the Brower or Patrick Court House Road and Forkners Creek 45.50 chs. to pointers on top of Slate Mountain, the said North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Co.'s corner, thence N. 32 deg. E. with said company's line 33 chains to a chestnut oak, F. A. Cristman's corner, thence North 29 deg. W. re-crossing said Forkners Creek and Brower Road 29 chs. to a rock and pointers; said F. A. Cristman's corner; thence North 86 deg. W. 6.80 chs. to a chestnut oak; thence S. 4 deg. W. 22 chs. to a stake in field; thence N. 86 deg. W. 26.50 chs. to the beginning, containing one hundred six (106) acres, less 25 1-2 acres formerly belonging to A. J. Cristman, now to the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Co.

3rd Tract: Beginning at a pine and oak on top of Slate Mountain, the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Company's corner, on Mountain road, runs with said road as it meanders N. 54 deg. E. 4 chs. N. 28 deg. E. 4.15 chains, North 49 deg. E. 5.30 chs. N. 39 deg. East 3.80 chains; North 35 deg. East 2.75 chains; North 58 1-2 deg. East 2.25 chains; North 46 deg. E. 4.25 chains; N. 44 1-2 deg. E. 3 chains; North 68 deg. East 1.50 chs. North 51 deg. E. 2.05 chains; North 29 1-4 deg. East 3.50 chains; to a chestnut oak on side of road, Willis Moore's corner; thence East with said Willis Moore's line 10.50 chs. to some chestnut bushes, thence North continuing with Moore's line 24 chains to Forkner's Creek; thence South 68 deg. W. with said creek 3 chains; thence South about 32 1-2 deg. West about 52 chains to the beginning, containing twenty-nine (29) acres more or less.

4th Tract. Adjoining the lands of dairy farmer living on the Alamosa road, and acted. Now Mr. Pemberton, he it known, likes to have people visit and inspect his dairy—there is a painted invitation to that effect to be seen at the entrance to his place at all times—but when it comes to taking gun and slaying squirrels or other game, that is something else again. And so it was this time.

Mr. Harman, an electrician, was duly summoned into the court of W. S. Lyon, Justice of the peace. After hearing the evidence Magistrate Lyon gave his evidence in the trespass case:

"The defendant in this case is taxed with the costs and is required to replace the squirrels he killed with live ones."

Mr. Pemberton's crop of squirrels is not to suffer by what was held an invasion of his acres.

J. F. Hicks, Lum Cristman and others and bounded as follows:

Beginning at a Walnut tree on the East side of a branch and runs East fifty nine feet to a rock on the Patrick road; thence with the road fourteen chains and ten feet to a dogwood in the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Company's line; then North 45 deg. West 11 1-2 chains to a maple near the head of a branch; thence down said branch 20 chains to the beginning, containing eight acres more or less. This is a part of the home tract of J. F. Hicks.

5th Tract. Beginning at a Black Gum (Cristman's and Watson's corner) and runs with a branch as it meanders, South 17 deg. West 119 feet; South 10 deg. West 105 feet; South 7 deg. East 185 feet; South 20 deg. West 224 feet; South 16 deg. West 378 feet; to Johnson's corner; thence still following the branch S. 75 deg. West 75 feet; South 7 deg. West 272 feet to Johnson's lower corner, thence leaving the branch S. 65 deg. West 40 feet to the old Brower line; thence with the said Brower line South 5 deg. East 537 feet to an old locust corner, and South 5 1-2 deg. East 476 feet to a white oak stump on top of bluff, and South 53 1-2 deg. East 165 feet to the center of the Patrick road; thence with the said road North 48 deg. East 100 feet; North 60 1-2 deg. East 283 feet; North 43 1-2 deg. East 325 feet; thence leaving the road North 55 1-2 deg. West 65 feet to a walnut tree on the branch, thence following the branch North 20 deg. East 120 feet; North 13 deg. East 278 feet; North 14 deg. East 287 feet; North 20 deg. East 222 feet North 31 deg. West 105 feet; N. 11 1-2 deg. East 93 feet; and North 3 deg. East 165 feet Luther Hicks corner in Cristman's line, thence N. 42 deg. West 952 feet to the beginning, containing 32 3-4 acres more or less.

6th Tract: Beginning at a chestnut oak in the Slate Mountain F. A. Cristman corner in T. M. Brower's line, runs S. 32 1-4 deg. West 33 chs. 14 links to a pine on top of Slate Mountain, Brower's corner, and also the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Company's corner, thence N. 43 1-2 deg. West with said company's line 21.18 chains to a stake in the Brower or Patrick road, thence with said road as it meanders North 45 deg. East 19.80 chains; North 52 deg. East 6.81 chains to a stake in road; thence leaving said road South about 60 deg. East about 12 chains to the beginning, containing fifty four (54) acres more or less, except 25 1-2 acres lying on both sides of Forkner's creek and along the Brower or Patrick Court House road, which belongs to the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Company.

7th Tract. Beginning at a black gum and runs S. 43 1-2 deg. E. with the North Carolina Apple and Live Stock Company's line 14.40 chains to a sourwood; thence North 28 deg. E. 12.97 chains to a rock and pointers; thence 18 chains to the beginning, containing 7 1-2 acres more or less.

Sale made to satisfy a balance of $6,668.00 principal, interest and cost of sale to add. This the 5th day of Nov. 1927.

W. F. Carter, Trustee.

SCIENCE EXPLODES MYTHS ABOUT MARS

Astronomers Say Planet is No Home for Supermen but is Bleak, Red Desert.

Features of the ruddy planet Mars far different from those long painted by popular guess and fancy have been announced in recent months by astronomers who, with new far-seeing spectacles of science, have gained the first truly authentic introduction to that most fascinating neighbor of ours.

No traces of weird giants wandering over strange desert lands have they found; no mighty race of supermen, digging mammoth canals and living in a realm of mechanical wonder undreamed of on earth. Instead they have discovered substantial facts supplanting century-old speculation—facts about the atmosphere of Mars, its climate, landscapes and probable life, from which they hope eventually to form a close acquaintance.

In short they have revealed a new Mars—a world of frigid nights and warmer days, of high sailing clouds and parched soil where only the hardiest of plants may grow; a place strikingly familiar to the earth, yet so different that earth men, transplanted there, would pant vainly for breath through thirsty throats. This new picture of the red planet, writes Donald H. Menzel, of the Lick observatory, California, in Popular Science Monthly for December, has come about largely through the development of great telescopes, the magic of color photography, the perfection of delicate measuring instruments and the application of human logic.

Since Mars never comes nearer to us than 33,000,000 miles, the wonder is that men have been able to read its features at all. It is as if some friend of yours, standing on a mountain top 10 miles away, were to open a magazine and ask you to read it. Even through the world's largest telescopes the sentences would appear only as blurred lines, and the illustrations as blotches.

Nevertheless, instrument perfection has brought great discoveries. In the wake of some of these, it now appears certain that the amount of oxygen available for breathing at the surface of Mars is about one thirtieth that upon the earth at sea level. Thus, a man breathing normally at 20 times a minute here would have to do so 600 times on Mars to obtain the same amount of oxygen. For us, living on Mars would not be pleasant.

It appears, furthermore, that the canals are by no means as straight and geometrical as most observers psychologically draw them. In places the lines are crowded, intersecting, without apparent system and since the width of the canals often exceeds 100 miles, they cannot be waterways. A Martian would hardly dig such a width for a canal, reply the astronomers of today in answering the theory that a race of supermen built the network of markings which has romantically taken hold of public fancy.

Personal Mention of The Hollow Residents

The Hollow, Va., Nov. 16.—Mrs. Nannie Matthews and children of Amelia County, Va., are visiting Mrs. R. A. Clement this week.

Robert Boyles, of Indiana, is spending some time with his father and mother Mr. and Mrs. James Boyles. Messrs. George Marshall, Sam Smith, and Major Puckett, have gone to Winston with a truck load of tobacco this week.

Perry Smith of Pinnacle is moving to Mr. John King's farm to crop next year.

Miss Icy E. Bowman has returned to Winston-Salem after spending the week end with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowman.

George Gwyn and little son are quite sick at this writing Mr. Gwyn has pneumonia.

Tom Viperman will soon be moving to his new home which he bought some time ago.

Rev. C. A. Morrison was again appointed pastor on Ararat Circuit for the coming year, and preached an excellent sermon at Hunters Chapel last Sunday evening.

Hub Brown has been ejected superintendent of Hunters Chapel Sunday school for the coming year.

NOTICE OF SALE

Mount Airy, N. C., Nov. 10, 1927. By virtue of authority vested in me through an order made by the Judge of the Recorder's Court in Mount Airy Township in the case of State against A. R. Strand.

I will sell for cash to the highest bidder in front of the City Hall in Mt. Airy, N. C., on Saturday, Nov. 19th, 1927, at 3 o'clock P. M.

One Ford roadster, 1926 model. The same being confiscated for violation of the prohibition law by order of the Judge of the Recorder's Court of Mt. Airy Township. This Nov. 16th, 1927.

R. E. LAWRENCE, Chief of Police.

Evening Time Is Reading Time

These long winter evenings is truly reading time, when you can recline before a warm fire and enjoy a good book. And when in doubt what to read visit our store and let us show you over our selections.

See Our New Books

SHOW WINDOW
By Elmer Davis

TRANSPLANTED
By Brand Whitlock

"WE"
By Chas. Lindbergh

THE THUNDERER
By E. Barrington

THE ARISTOCRATIC MISS BREWSTER
By Joseph C. Lincoln

A GOOD WOMAN
By Louis Broomfield

The Other Tomorrow
By Octavus Roy Cohn

And 400 Other Good Books.

For Sale or For Rent.

TURNMYRE & LAMM

Two Registered Druggists

Phone 500—Its Easy to Remember

We Deliver.

THERE IS NO WEAK LINK

In our building and loan plan there is no weak link because our plans, building and loan system and capital are ample and efficient. They have been tried out and tested over a long period of years and have withstood every trial. If you want to save to advantage come to us and obtain one of our building and loan certificates.

Workmen's B. & L. Association

OFFICE MERRITT BUILDING

We are now offering the 36th Series of stock payments beginning November 1st.—Series will close December 1st. 25c weekly pays for each $100.00 subscribed.

W. G. Sydnor, Pres.—M. H. Sparger, Sec.-Treas.
R. D. George, Asst. Sec.-Treas.

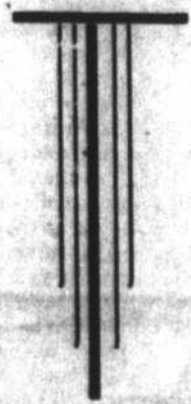

DIRECTORS

W. E. Merritt
J. B. Sparger
J. D. Thompson
Dr. M. S. Martin

B. Beasley
E. H. Kochtitaky
A. V. West
J. D. Sargent

A. G. Bowman

Don't Fail—

To See Our Window Display of Diamonds this Week.

Paddison Jewelry Co.

E. W. Paddison, Prop.

NEXT DOOR TO BLUE RIDGE HOTEL