

The Mt. Airy News

Mr. John Sobotta left several days ago for a business trip to New York.

Mrs. Mary Arnold is a patient at Martin Hospital for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kochitzky leave Friday to visit relatives in Cape Girardeau and St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Marie Wood Wood spent the past week end in Lincolnton, guest of Miss Adeline Hendren.

Mrs. W. E. Burnard and Kent Harman are visiting her brother and his father in Allentown, Va.

Miss Triplett, student of Meredith College, Raleigh, spent the week end with Miss Clara Bailey.

Mrs. George Sparger spent the week end with relatives in Greensboro.

Mrs. James E. Tilley will enter Martin hospital today for treatment and probable operation.

Mrs. Wade Carroll, of High Point, spent the week with her daughter Mrs. Ernest Bowman.

Dr. J. P. Cox spent Friday in Lexington attending the meeting of chiropractors.

Mrs. W. E. Jackson left Wednesday to purchase goods for Jackson's Ready-to-Wear store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hemmings, of Winston-Salem were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Holcomb.

E. C. Caldwell, of Greensboro, passed through here Tuesday returning from Galax, Va., where he closed a deal for the purchase of the new Galax hotel.

Miss Kathryn Owen student of Guilford College spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Owen.

Atty. and Mrs. B. Y. Goad and Mr. and Mrs. Heath Jenkins and son of Hillsville, Va. spent the week end here guests of Mrs. J. D. Jenkins.

Charles Parham, of Charleston, S. C., former college mate of Ted Reese was a recent visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wolts left Tuesday for an automobile trip through the Valley of Virginia to New York City.

Gerry Triplett, student of Campbell College, spent the past week end with his brother, Onie Triplett, manager of McLellan's Five and Ten Cent store.

Mr. and Mrs. George Koon of Hastings, Neb., were guests of their brother Mr. George Slatner and family here last week leaving Saturday to visit Mrs. T. M. Everitt and daughter in Charlotte.

Clark C. Shugart, of Crescent City, California, is in the city visiting his sister Mrs. W. E. Woodruff and other relatives in this section. Mr. Shugart went west many years ago and is back to spend a few weeks among friends of his younger days.

Mrs. Will James of The Hollow, Va., suffered a serious operation Monday at the hospital here in the hope of prolonging her life. She is 73 years old and is making a brave fight.

Mrs. Donald Rector leaves Friday for South Boston, Va., to be a member of the Gilliland-Anderson wedding party on Saturday evening. The bride Miss Lillian Gilliland will be remembered as bridesmaid at the marriage of Mrs. Rector.

Miss Louise Rothrock who is teaching at Burnsville, Anson County spent Sunday at home, she was accompanied by Miss Joan Rothrock, of Salisbury, Jack Mills, of Albemarle and Ray Lee, of Burnsville.

The Statesville Rotary Club honored themselves and Mount Airy by extending an invitation to Presiding Elder E. W. Fox of this city, which was accepted, to address them at their regular meeting held Tuesday at the noon lunch hour.

Mrs. C. C. Smitherman, capable telephone central has returned from North Wilkesboro where she spent the past four weeks. She substituted for Miss Johnson of the Horton Telephone Co.'s force there two weeks and finding Miss Johnson unable to resume her duties spent another two weeks training Mrs. Kye to operate the switchboard.

Mrs. P. S. Rothrock, left Monday morning for Charleston, S. C. to attend the general Convention United Daughters of Confederacy as delegate from the local chapter. She will visit her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Simpson at Hotel Franklin, Spartanburg, S. C. before returning. The convention opened with services in Old St. Philip's Church the 13th and will come to a close the 19th, all business sessions being held in the Francis Marion Hotel. At the convention will be Rev. Giles B. Cook, last surviving member of Gen. Lee's staff, 84 years young and active. The "Yellowstone" a new U. D. C. chapter of Wyoming will also have a representative at the convention.

J. E. Smith is spending this week in New York City on business.

Mrs. Will Prather spent Tuesday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. R. C. Carroll spent Friday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Mrs. James F. Prather is visiting her sister Mrs. Scott in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Worth are occupying rooms in the home of Mrs. G. C. Welch.

Mrs. J. H. Prather and son John spent Thursday in Winston-Salem and Greensboro shopping.

G. N. Slatner leaves the last of this week for a trip to Richmond, Va. and Washington, D. C.

A daughter, Peggy, was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Best last Saturday, weight seven pounds.

Mrs. W. S. Gentry and Mrs. Kent Harman are visiting Mrs. Robah Kerner in Kernersville.

Miss Mabel Young of Greensboro, is visiting her sisters Mrs. J. Will Prather and Frank Carter, Jr.

J. B. Beach has returned from a business trip to Roanoke and Richmond, Va.

John T. Moore, Jr., submitted to an operation for gangrenous appendix at Martin Hospital Tuesday night.

Miss Minnie Sue Sides, of Albemarle, student of N. C. W. Greensboro was the week end guest of Miss Ruth Reese.

The T. E. L. class of the First Baptist Church will meet in the church Thursday night for the election of officers and other business.

Misses Lillian Johnson, Verona West and Carrie Taylor, students of Meredith College, Raleigh, spent the week end at their homes in this city.

The Rev. H. M. Wellman of Pilot Mountain moved his family to the Mount Airy Circuit parsonage this week. The Rev. Mr. Wellman succeeds Rev. J. A. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall, Miss Annie Marshall of Westfield and Miss Mary Jennie Creed of this city spent Thursday in Greensboro on business.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Edith Cressy is able to sit in a wheel chair in the sanatorium in Wilmington where she was moved, when able to stand the trip, following her serious accident here in which she broke her hip.

Mrs. Nola Taylor, of Winston-Salem, visited friends here the last of the week returning from a vacation spent in Virginia with relatives. She resumed her duties as trained nurse in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Eldridge Monday.

Rev. E. G. Davis spent the first four days of the week attending the Baptist State Convention and Ministers Conference in Durham. The Rev. Mr. Davis was made secretary of the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Linville of Kernersville spent a few hours in the city Monday with Mr. Linville's brother, Edw. M. Linville. They were enroute to attend the funeral of Mrs. Linville's grandmother, Mrs. R. F. Jackson at Westfield.

Mrs. McCollum Book Club Hostess

Mrs. J. D. McCollum was hostess to the members of the Entre Nous Book club Thursday evening when rook furnished entertainment for the guests. Mrs. N. H. Wright, of Winston-Salem, guest of Mrs. E. H. Kochitzky was the only non member present. Sliced ham, white fruit salad, wafers, pumpkin pie and Russian tea were served. Assisting in serving were Mesdames E. C. Banner, A. B. Somerville, Misses Katherine Price, Elizabeth Lovill and Mary Hollingsworth. On Friday afternoon Mrs. McCollum was hostess to her neighbors when rook was played at two tables.

Mrs. Holcomb Hostess For Sister and Bride

Mrs. Hugh B. Holcomb was hostess at two lovely parties one Friday evening when bridge was played and one Saturday afternoon when rook was played her sister, Mrs. George Hemmings of Winston-Salem, being guest of honor on each occasion. On Friday evening Mrs. J. D. Smith, Jr., a recent bride was also an honor guest and to each of the honorees the hostess presented attractive guest prizes. Miss Mary Frankie Graves won high score at bridge and Mrs. J. A. Bodley at rook each received a pretty gift as their reward. The attractive home was decorated with pretty potted and cut flowers and an elaborate chicken salad course with coffee and whipped cream, mints and French pastry was served. The score cards were suggestive of Armistice Day and tiny American flags topped the pastry. Those assisting the hostess in serving were Mesdames E. H. Wrenn, W. E. Merritt, Jr., Ed Inman, H. O. Wolts, O. K. Merritt, E. M. Linville, W. J. Byerly, J. H. Hurst, and Wayne Christian.

Presbyterian Women Observe Week of Prayer

The Women's auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church is observing Week of Prayer and Self Denial this week with three services two for women only and one to which the whole membership of the church was invited. The women met with Mrs. William Merritt at her home on Rawley street Monday afternoon and again on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. W. G. Shelton. The program Wednesday was held in the church at 7.30 P. M. and the Southern Presbyterian Assembly's Home Missions is the special subject for both prayer and offerings at all of these meetings.

Mrs. Sobotta Hostess to Club Members

Mrs. John Sobotta was hostess to the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club Wednesday afternoon when bridge was played at two tables. A delicious chicken salad course was served with coffee.

Mrs. Merritt Book Club Hostess

Mrs. O. K. Merritt was hostess to the Young Matrons Book club members. Wednesday afternoon when rook was played at seven tables.

Mrs. J. D. Smith, Jr., a recent bride received with the hostess.

The high score prize a potted blooming gloxinia was won by Mrs. Carroll Hill and a gift of linen was presented to Mrs. Smith. Delicious refreshments followed the playing.

Club Women Study Work of Poets

The literature department of the Mount Airy Woman's Club will meet in the Community Building Friday afternoon at three o'clock for the study of the new poets' work of the "contemporary renaissance" and a discussion of Conway-Wesscott's book "Grandmother" winner of the Harper-Noble award for 1927-28.

Slumber Party for School Girl

Miss Mary Taylor was hostess to eight girls of the high school set Friday night at a slumber party in honor of Miss Jennie Faye Ervin, who, with her parents the Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Ervin, leaves this week to make her future home in Charlotte. Each of the invited guests with the hostess presented a memory gift to their schoolmate Miss Ervin. Rook was played in the early evening followed by refreshments.

FREE-

Ladies—We are giving away absolutely FREE a number of scissors that sell regularly for $3.50. Ask for details.

A. B. C. Store

Delightful Party for Tiny Tots

Little Miss Frances Prather celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday by entertaining twenty small friends with a party in the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Will Prather. The living room of the home was arranged as a children's playroom and the dining room was elaborately decorated in yellow and white with colored balloons floating from the decorated chandelier. Interesting games were played and a jolly time was had in securing grab bags with prizes. In a ball contest Elizabeth Sargent and Billy Hollingsworth won prizes. After the serving of refreshments and cutting the birthday cake the toy balloons were given as favors.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

There is consolation in visiting the resting place of our departed loved ones when the plot is designated with an appropriate monument, marker or other memorial. In placing floral tributes over the grave one feels a duty well done in glancing at the enduring marble or granite that marks the spot. We make and place all kinds of memorials.

The Surry Marble & Granite Works
R. S. Crawford, Owner
North Main St. Next to Dry Bridge

Thanksgiving Notice

Whereas the President of these United States and the Governor of our good state have declared that November 24th shall be set aside as a day of Thanksgiving, We, the following merchants doing business in the Town of Mount Airy, N. C., announce that our places of business will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, November 24th—

- First, Because we have been greatly blessed in this community.
- Second, Because the Churches of our town will have Thanksgiving service.
- Third, That our employees may have a day of rest.

(Signed)

- | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------------|
| West-Hill Co. | W. E. Merritt Co. |
| A. B. C. Store | Holcomb & Midkiff Hdw. Co. |
| Hawks-Boyles Co. | Hatcher Hardware Co. |
| Jackson's | Kapp Hardware Co. |
| Wagner's, Inc. | Jno. D. Thompson Fur. Co. |
| W. E. Barnard | Carter-Walker Furniture Co. |
| A. K. Harmon | Whitman's Music House. |
| L. H. Stone | Marion Music Store. |
| A. G. Bowman | McLellan's 5 & 10c Store |
| Galloway's | Balk's Department Store |
| A. & P. Store | Prather Clothing Company |
| Jamison's Store | S. M. Hale Dept. Store. |
| W. W. Thomas | Granite Mercantile Co. |
| L. I. Martin | Boyles Brothers, Inc. |
| Fowler's | E. M. Martin |
| G. C. Lovill Co. | W. G. Lewis |
| Smith Brothers | Harrison's |
| Cochran's Grocery | Balton Grocery Co. |
| W. F. Midkiff | T. H. Brown & Co. |
| | F. M. Fears. |

Thanksgiving

We know that next Thursday will be THANKSGIVING DAY but if you are reading this MESSAGE of ours this week EXPECTING to find OUT what we are THANKFUL for besides all the BUSINESS you folks have SHOVED our way the past YEAR you are going to be DISAPPOINTED. We have a lot of things to be THANKFUL for and you'd be SURPRISED at some of them if we told you, so we are NOT going to BUST out in PRINT with all the DETAILS just now, but instead are just going to TELL you about these boxes of NORRIS CANDY here at the STORE which will do a lot to make YOUR Thanksgiving more enjoyable.

Moral: That is if you buy some of NORRIS CANDY. "C. P. C."

MOUNT AIRY DRUG CO.

A Good Drug Store. Phone 128 For Prompt Delivery.