RED CROSS VOLUNTEER WORKERS BIG FACTOR

Broader Industry in Home Chapter and in Field Development of Disaster Service.

Volunteer industry in the American Red Cross is on an upward trend, due to the broader demand for assistance in meeting disaster relief requirements. Men and women from Red Cross Chapters in the last year exemplified by their work for disaster victims a greater activity than in any year since the end of the World War.

This service was given without stint and with the finest of spirit, according to Red Cross officials. Volunteer Red Cross workers have served by the thousands with the local Chapters in garment production, printing raised-type reading matter for the blind, in hospital service, as canteen workers and motor corps aids. Nearly all active Chapter workers are volunteers.

More than 50 per cent of the available reading material for the blind is produced by volunteer Red Cross workers. Volunteers produced 175,451 garments, 2,857,913 surgical dressings for hospital use, and 6,306 articles for emergency cloths maintained by Red Cross Chapters in various communities for disaster and other emergencies. The garment production, large as it was, did not include the thousands of garments made for the Mississippi flood sufferers by volunteers. Another important volunteer service is the preparation and sending of 30,000 Christmas bags to soldiers and bluejackets on duty in foreign stations.

Approximately 250 Chapters participate in Motor Corps service, while the growing interest of volunteers in health work constitutes an additional community safeguard in emergencies when the services of regular nurses might be overtaxed.

Volunteer service will be an important factor in the forthcoming eleventh Annual Roll Call, from November 11 to 24, in enrolling the 5,000,000 membership to be sought.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Tillotson celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary by entertaining about 25 of their friends last Friday evening. The living room was decorated with cut flowers and ferns, and it being Armistice Day the colors, red, white and blue were carried out. The evening was spent with contests and music. The prizes for the different contests were won by Mesdames J. H. Midkiff, Hubert Goad, James Dillon and Aldene Hutchens. A delicious chicken salad course and coffee followed by mints was served. Many useful and attractive gifts were received.

Tokio, Japan, traffic rules posted in 'English' in the police station: 'At the rise of the hand policeman stop rapidly. When a passenger of the foot hove in sight, tootle the horn. Trumpet at him. Melodiously at first, but if he still obstacles your passage, tootle him with vigor and express by word of mouth the warning, "Hi! Hi!" Beware the wandering horse that he shall not take fright as you pass him by. Do not explode the exhaust box at him as you pass him by. Go soothingly by. Give big space to the festive dog that shall sport in the roadway. Go soothingly in the grease mud, as there lurks the skid demon.'

In Tower Grove Park, St. Louis, is a pond covered with huge water lilies, the pads of which are strong enough to hold a person on the surface.
