Rockford

Rockford, Nov. 26.—The O. Henry Literary Society of the Copeland High school held its regular debating meeting Thursday afternoon in the 11th grade room. The program was as follows:

Devotional, George Badgett; Oration, Claude Flincham. Debate: Question—"Resolved, that the prohibition law should be repealed." Affirmative, Thomas Houck, Floyd Bryant and Irvin Chilton. Negative: Willie Simmons, Claude Simpson, and Arthur Chilton. The affirmative won the decision of the judges. Current events: Virgil Wood, Jokes, Roy Harbour.

Ararat

Ararat, Nov. 25.—Mrs. A. J. Taylor is visiting her son, Mr. O. C. Taylor, who is an Agricultural teacher in the Lattimore High school at Lattimore, N. C.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Jones a son, Smith Wayne. Mr. Aubrey Taylor of Walnut Cove made a business trip into this section Monday.

Miss Lillian Flynn a former student of the Copeland High school took up her books in the usual manner and started down the road toward school one morning some time ago about eight o'clock. But this was not her destination. She was met before reaching the school by Floyd Wood of Mount Airy. She hopped into his little Ford and away they went. They were bound for Bristol, Tennessee where they were united into the holy bonds of matrimony in the presence of a few witnesses. They are now living on Marshall street, Mount Airy, and both declare that they are happy.

The student government has been introduced in the Copeland High school. In this system the student council cooperates with the faculty in keeping order and looking out for the best interest of the school. Jesse Badgett is president of the student council and Nellie Harbour is secretary. This system is being successfully used in 152 High schools in North Carolina.

Mr. Charlie Moser, a former resident of this section moved to Sandhills some time ago. Recently Mr. Moser has moved back into this section. We are glad to have Mr. Moser and family back with us again.

Pilot Mountain

Pilot Mountain, November 28.—B. N. Whitaker who has been confined to his room for quite a while is now improving we are very glad to note.

The buildings which were burned in Pilot Mountain last year when such a large loss was realized by Pilot citizens will soon be replaced by a new rock building on the corner of depot and Main street. This building will add to the beauty of Pilot Mountain as well as being useful, for it is a very beautiful building.

The Junior Order will soon start work on their new building.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones spent Thanksgiving in Greensboro.

Chief Lawrence and two Federal reserve officers, Dettor and Sevitt captured a steam distillery near Dapella, Saturday night Nov. 19. The distillery contained 150 gallons beer and 200 gallons sugar.

Dr. R. D. Flippin purchased a new Chevrolet coupe. We hope that it will be of great service to him in his work.

Mr. and Mrs. David Hole from High Point spent Thanksgiving with relatives here.

The regular meeting of the P. T. A. was held at the High school building Monday night. A very interesting program was carried out by a number of the students and parents, relating to the Thanksgiving season. The meeting was opened with the song, "America the Beautiful."

A committee was appointed of Mrs. J. S. Patterson, Mrs. O. T. Fowler and Miss Edith Napier to nominate two or more names to be voted on at next meeting for the office of president. Prayer was offered by Dr. R. A. Frye. Quotations by a group of girls on Thanksgiving was given followed by a recitation by little Miss Lucy Mitchell. A song "We Thank Thee," was sung by a group of primary children. A reading on the founding of Thanksgiving Day by the Pilgrims was given by Miss Evelyn Pell. Characters in costumes representing the early Pilgrim settlers showing the signs of the first Thanksgiving Day was presented.

Mrs. I. M. Gordon gave a reading on Thanksgiving. After a talk by Prof. Carroll, the meeting closed with the song "America."

Siloam

Siloam, Nov. 28.—Hugh Reese of Rockford, a freshman of Copeland High school is seriously ill and is now in a hospital at High Point.

Little Marion Atkinson, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Atkinson, who reside near Siloam died last night. He was a loving child and known widely throughout this community. There are many friends and relatives in this community to mourn his loss.

The old time fiddlers' convention, which was to have been held in the school auditorium here was postponed on account of an epidemic of measles and scarlet fever.

Miss Lela Flincham spent the week end with relatives in Winston-Salem.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE

There is consolation in visiting the resting place of our departed loved ones when the plot is designated with an appropriate monument, marker or other memorial. In placing floral tributes over the grave one feels a duty well done in glancing at the enduring marble or granite that marks the spot. We make and place all kinds of memorials.
