The Woman's Missionary Union of the Dobson Baptist Church met Friday afternoon at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Albert Bunker near Mount Airy. Twenty-nine members were present and Mrs. Bunker proved herself a most charming hostess.

The president Mrs. W. W. Hampton, presided and also conducted the devotionals. Miss Elizabeth Norman was program leader. She gave a splendid talk in outlining the subject "The Baptists in Nigeria, Africa". Those who assisted in the program were Mrs. Rebecca Lamont, Mrs. A. D. Folger, Mrs. W. E. Reid, Mrs. W. L. Reese, Misses Emma Comer, Louise Norman and Mary Bet Norman. At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Bunker assisted by Mrs. Carroll Hill and Mrs. Graham Harrison served a delicious ice course with cake. The next-monthly meeting will be held with Mrs. W. B. Norman.

The Junior Missionary Society of the M. E. Church met with Miss Lucile Freeman Friday afternoon. Miss Maude Marion presided and also conducted the devotionals. Lois Folger gave an interesting talk on the Clayton School in China. Others participating in the program were Misses Maggie Harkrader, Lucile Freeman, Myrtle Hemmings and Mazie Comer.

Delicious refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business session. The next meeting will be held with Miss Maude Comer.

Prof. and Mrs. B. J. Benson, who have been residents of Dobson for the past three years left Friday for Sumnerfield, N. C. where they will make their future home. They will be missed in this community where they have many friends.

Grady Cooper who operates a trade and passenger bus returned home Friday night with passengers from a two days trip to Wilmington. He has another trip to Wilmington scheduled for Wednesday of this week. He leaves Dobson at 6:30 A. M. Wednesday morning. His rates are reasonable.

Three hundred North Carolina farm boys attended last week at Raleigh the annual meeting of the Young Tar Heel Farmer organization. These boys were delegates from 119 chapters in the rural schools where vocational agriculture is being taught and represents a total of 4,000 farm boys located in the 119 rural communities of North Carolina. The degree of "Carolina Farmer" was awarded to 7 of the boys for extraordinary progress in study of vocational agriculture. Degrees were presented by Dr. A. T. Allen, Supt. of Public Instruction. Among those receiving degrees was Thelma Alberty of Dobson who is a member of the vocational agricultural class of the Dobson High school.

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Folger and family of Spartanburg, S. C., spent the week end with his parents Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Folger. They were accompanied to Dobson by Dr. Folger who has been visiting in their home and also with his daughter Mrs. Edwin Bowles of Asheville.

Funeral services for Mrs. James Stanley were held Friday afternoon from the Double Creek Christian Church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. She passed away Wednesday. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Saunders of Winston-Salem, Rev. R. A. Helasbeck of Rural Hall and Rev. Mr. Co-ly of Galax, Va. Interment was made in the church cemetery. She was highly respected and has a host of friends who mourn her passing. Surviving are her husband and several children. She was 70 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Spier and family of Alleghany County spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Douglas.

A wedding of more than usual interest occurred Saturday when Miss Fern Folger, attractive daughter of Mrs. Belle Folger, became the bride of D. D. Middle of Sanford. The marriage ceremony was performed at the home of the bride by Rev. Elmer Simpson pastor of the Dobson M. E. Church. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were present. Mrs. Middle is a graduate of the Dobson High school, and later attended Davenport College. They will visit Washington, D. C., New York City and other places of interest on their honeymoon trip. Out of town guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Folger, and Myron Folger of High Point and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poole and Dr. Sam Folger of Greensboro, and Mr. Gordon Middle of Sanford.

Intimate Sketches of Mount Airy's Amateur Golf Players Made by The NEWS Artist As He Followed the Tournament Played Here Thursday

WHEN ALL I GOT TO DO IS RELAX, THEN START THE CLUB BACK WITH THE LEFT HAND ON AN IDEAL LINE, SHIFT WEIGHT TO THE RIGHT FOOT, KEEPING THE LEFT ARM STRAIGHT, AND BREAK THE WRISTS AT THE TOP OF THE BACKSWING WHEN THE CLUBHEAD SHOULD HAVE STRAIGHT DOWN—I BETTER LOOK AND SEE—THEN START THE DOWNSWING WITH THE LEFT HAND LEADING, AND PUSH SOME IN WITH A RIGHT-HAND PUSH, AND THEN SHIFT THE WEIGHT TO THE LEFT SIDE, BRACING, AND THROUING THE CLUBHEAD AFTER THE BALL—AND KEEP THE EYE ON THE BALL—THAT'S ALL I GOT TO REMEMBER

The lessons being given Ed. Linville are enough to run him nutty.

NICE TRY TO GOLF—BUT I GOT LOTS OF WORK TO DO—THERE'LL BE ALL NEXT WINTER TO WORK, OF COURSE—BUT I GOT A FAMILY TO SUPPORT AND I OUGHTA WORK—STILL THERE IS MY HEALTH TO CONSIDER— I GOTTA KEEP WELL, AND YOU GANT BEAT FRESH AIR, SUNSHINE AND EXERCISE—AS MY DUTY TO MY FAMILY GONES AHEAD O' WORK, I REALY ONE IT TO 'EM TO PLAY GOLF TODAY

Jack Sargent wins a losing argument with himself.

BY GORRY! I'M GONING TO GET UP A PETITION TO LEAVE TH' FAIRWAYS GROW AND NOW TH' ROUGH! I'M GETTIN' CUDDLED TRED OF CHIPPING BALLS OUT OF TH' TALL GRASS—ALL TH' TIME!

Doc Mitchell is going to bring about some changes if he stays in the rough much longer.

COME ON—I'VE GOT TO GO! IF YOU DONT SHOOT PESTYHOOD, DEAR, IN GON' TO GERRA! I JUST KNOW I AM!

LEAVE TH' GUY ALONE—HE'S BEEN SHOOTED—TH' OTHER DAY HE BUNK A 90 FOOT PUTT INTO A GOMPER HOLE!

Coley Whitlock's "puttering" on the green delayed three four-somes coming up.

BOYE, 'WELL PUT ME OUT OF TH' CLUB IF I TELL YA, BUT I MADE A BUNKER LIC 137! EVERY DAY IN EVERY WAY I GET WORDED! I' WORDED!

BY GOLLY, I DONT KNOW WHATS GONING T' BECOME OF ME!

Ed Inman is the only one who gets any fun out of a big score—but Bud Fawcett says Ed is too old to know better.

LONELY DAY GEORGE

FINE—I'VE BEEN AWAY FOR A WHILE—THERE BE MIGHT BEYOND! RUN!

Even through storms and cloud bursts Geo. Marshall and Lamm go on undaunted.

WELL, SAMP WORLD HERE I GO, ALL DRESSED UP LIKE HRS ANYONE PUT WORDS— I HAVN' CLUES—JUST LIKE BONEY JONES LINES, CLONES LIKE WALTER HARRI, BALLS LIKE TOMMY ARMOUR SHOOTS, TRES LIKE BILL HELMCAUS, I USE TH' SAME GIMP AS GEORGE DUMBAR, STAND LIKE AN ARNWOOD— AND PLAY GOLF LIKE SOMEBODY BLEED BRANCHONER! GOODBYE, BOYS— I'M THROUGH!

Tol Barber tried to jump off into the unknown void when he failed to beat Turnmyre.

Holy Cow!

THERE GONS A DIVOT IN MY NEW PLUS-FOURS THAT I GOT FOR CHRISTMAS

Ed Ashby proves too short to safely climb over the fences.

HAR! HAR! YER BALL WENT IN TH' CRICK! I MON WOTCHA GON'T DO?

I'LL SHOW YOU!

"Kick if you will the lion's cub, But laugh not at the golfing cub," an honored Wines Fulton when Graham Harrison put one over J. Lovill's crew.

CURSES! I ALWAYS HIT THE BALL RIGHT ON TOP!

EVER TRY GETTING DOWN ON YOUR KNEES AND SAY 'GOD BLESS YOU'?

"Bilgyant" Merrill didn't take kindly to the advice of Oscar Yalby and Joe Brook.

YEAH, I MADE A 76

OH, GOMD A 100-0!

Miles Fay hit the lough on old man Herbert when he beats the "old man" in the "father-and-son" match.

IF I GAK THIS, I'LL HAVE A 88

LISSEN, GUY! IF YOU DONT KEEP ANY BETTER TRACK ON YOUR DOLLARS—TAN YOU DO UP YOUR GOLF STROKES, YOU'LL DIE IN TH' FOREWORLD!

Joe Frather counted up a 88 but Bill Hadley kept the count too, and Joe had a 88.
