Funeral for W. N. Jones Is Conducted at Raleigh

Raleigh, Oct. 21.—Funeral services for W. N. Jones, 76, and distinguished lawyer of Raleigh, were held from the First Baptist Church this afternoon at four o'clock, his pastor, Rev. Dr. Powell W. Tucker, officiating.

Mr. Jones, who was during his long career as a lawyer, commissioner of labor and printing one term, was not known to state politics again, but his connection with the Baptist denomination and with Meredith and Wake Forest colleges kept him always in the public mind. His death yesterday morning early while he slept had followed an earlier meeting of the Meredith trustees Friday evening.

At The Zoo

"Little girl, why are you so interested in these birds?"

"Well, I just learned that there ain't no Santa Claus, and I'm out here to investigate this stork proposition."

Correct

Teacher—"Now children, a collision is two things coming together unexpectedly. Willie, give me an example."

Willie—"Twins!"

Quarterly Meeting of Friends at Westfield Sunday

Westfield, Oct. 22.—Quarterly meeting of the Friends Church will be held Sunday, quite an attendance is expected as it includes several meetings. Pilot Mountain, Galax, White Plains, Mount Airy, Danbury. There will be a special feature Sunday which is expected to be attractive and entertaining.

Mrs. E. G. Gilmer of Statesville, visited Mrs. R. T. Joyce Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. C. J. Galloway, of Greensboro, spent two days with her mother and visited Mount Airy Monday.

S. P. Christian went to Winston-Salem today.

Mr. Joseph Gant, of Burlington, and several other friends visited relatives here for a short while Sunday.

Monday was said to have been a record breaking tobacco sale day both in Winston and Mount Airy and prices on improvement.

The farmers have advanced well with wheat sowing and the biggest crop for years has been planted, in fact they seem to be in better condition than usual.

The whiskey business seems to have quieted down considerably. Very little bootlegging going on. We have good officers and they seem to be doing their duty.

Stokes court is going on this week for civil cases, last week was criminal indictments. Judge Shaw is a good judge and if all our judges were more like him it would be for the better we think.
