

THE EVENING FREE PRESS.

N. HERBERT, Editor and Prop'r.

Entered at P. O. as second class mail matter.

There is considerable speculation as to the make up of Mr. McKinley's new cabinet. We are not bothering our heads about that. We don't give a continental who he puts in his cabinet. Hanna will give instructions as usual—Wilmington Star.

Returns from every legislative district in Texas shows that with one exception the next legislature will be solidly Democratic. The senate and house will be 158 Democrats and one Populist. My, but won't the Pop be lonesome. He'll do nothing but sign the pay roll.

Editor Deal, of the Wilkesboro Chronicle, explains the reason for the large number of baby girls by saying that it indicates that the people are opposed to the Philippine war, and do not care to furnish any boys for McKinley's imperial guard. There is a reason for everything—if all reasons are not good.

The Columbia State, looking to causes of defeat, remarks that he (Bryan) was beaten because he led an assault upon the entrenchments of the money power; but if you will look backward you will find that the money power has an unbroken record of presidential victories since the close of the war between the states.

Rhode Island, by an amendment to its state constitution, has abandoned its state capital functions at Newport and turned that port over to the salacious society of another seaport town. Providence will alone dispense statutory restrictions upon the Rhode Islanders henceforth—we mean the town of Providence of course.

Marion Butler has returned from his western campaigning trip. During the campaign he spoke in Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota. We've heard from these states. They went for McKinley. It is said that Butler does not appear to be "deeply grieved over the result of the election." Certainly not. He got what he wanted—the election of McKinley and his horde of money-changers.

In view of the decrease of population in some or at least one of the western states—Nevada—whose total for the state scarcely exceeds that of this, Wake county, and the evident decline in certain of the New England states, how would an amendment to the constitution providing that whenever the population of a state shall only entitle it to one member in the house of representatives such state shall be entitled to only one member in the senate. Does not this look fair?—Raleigh Post.

It is well understood that even two defeats in succession would cause the annihilation of the Republican party as now constituted. Therefore, the vapid politicians who clamor for the backward step of the Democracy must take warning that the influences that were potent at Kansas City last July will still control the Democratic party until the present verdict shall have been reversed and check given to those who seek the overthrow of popular government and the upbuilding of an empire on these shores. And a single word must be offered to the victorious Hanna and his president. While there can be no Waterloo for truth, history abounds with instances where victory has been the worst possible defeat. The fight has only just begun. It will continue as long as there remains in the human heart a hope for bettering humanity and for the extension of liberty regulated by law.—Johnstown Democrat.

Lost
Many golden opportunities have been lost by those who suffer from rheumatism. By taking Rheumacide now they will be permanently and positively cured. Sold by J. E. Hood.

Art's Happy Discovery.
"Dauber has hit it at last. He's making fame and money."
"How?"

"People have begun to notice that he paints smaller hands and feet than any other portrait artist in town."—Chicago Record.

An English authority has estimated that if all the inhabitants of the British Isles should decide to attend church on a given Sunday 25,000,000 would be crowded out for lack of seating room in the churches.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux, I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by J. E. Hood.

Juliet Got the Light.
At a small seaport town a star actress of the third magnitude appeared as Juliet.
"I cannot do justice to myself," she said to the manager, "if I do not have a limelight thrown on me when I appear at the balcony."
"We ain't got no limelight, miss, but I think we could get you a ship's blue light," replied the obliging manager, and to this the lady agreed.

The lad who went to the shop to buy the blue light brought back a signal rocket, which was given to him by mistake. The prompter took the rocket in good faith.
Romeo—He jests at scars who never felt a wound.
(Juliet appears. Prompter lights a match.)

"But, soft! What light through yonder window breaks?"
(This was the match lighting the fuse.)
"Arise, fair sun!"
The sun—or rather the rocket—did rise with a terrific hiss. Juliet was knocked off the balcony, the fly borders were set on fire, and the theater was filled with a sulphurous smoke, while the audience, which was fortunately a small one, made a stampede to the doors.

Since then "Romeo and Juliet" has always been looked upon in that town as a dramatic work that could not be witnessed without personal danger.—New World.

Siberian Luxuries.
The three great luxuries in Siberia are churches, theaters and museums. Even the smaller villages can usually be sighted from afar by means of the white walls and the towering, dome shaped cupolas of their churches. These are all amply supplied with bells whose rich tones roll in majestic harmony over distant hills and vales and break the monotony of the peasants' daily toil. Inside these churches are highly ornamented with paintings, and they are presided over by married priests, who take a deep and genuine interest in even the poorest of the flock.

An Amateur Critic.
Here is a schoolboy's criticism of Sir Walter Scott in an examination paper which the New York Commercial Advertiser vouches for: "Walter Scott was a great poet. When he was dying, he felt it coming on, so he wrote sum tuching lines which he ment for himself:
"The way was long the wind was cold the minstrel was infernal old.
"O may we all feel the same wen death catches hold of us."

Baptist Humor.
Here is a story from the Baptist conference at Leicester. It is about a minister. He found himself at chapel one morning without his sermon. "My dear brethren," he exclaimed, "I can only give you now what God will send me, but tonight I will come back better prepared."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Not a Song Bird.
"He said I was swanlike, I believe," said Miss Rawkis. "Wasn't that gallant of him?"
"Oh, I don't know," replied Miss Peppery. "It was while you were trying to sing that he made the remark."—Exchange.
