FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 16, 1900.

Cotton sold in Kinston today at 9 to 9 1/2.

A large number of people from this section, who had been attending the Newbern fair, returned home today.

The eleventh annual Thanksgiving party will be held in the Academy at Hookerton Thanksgiving night, Nov. 29. No invitations will be sent out.

Dr. R. H. Temple returned last night from Philadelphia, where he had been taking a course in the Philadelphia Polyclinic. The doctor will locate in Kinston. His office will be in the building next to Hotel Bailey. We welcome him back to Kinston.

The Christian church will have its annual reunion and roll call next Sunday, it being the second anniversary of the present pastor's incumbency. Reports of the different departments of work will be given. It will be an interesting day for all the members and for any others who wish to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Mazon and children, of Pennsylvania, came to Kinston yesterday, traveling through the country. They have a nice wagon, specially made for camping out. The strange looking turnout attracted much attention. The family have traveled 650 miles so far. They will spend the winter at Newbern.

Last night at 8 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. J. T. Skinner, Miss Mary W. Jenkins was married to Mr. Henry T. Oglesby, both of Kinston. Rev. D. H. Tuttle officiated. There were quite a number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties present. Immediately after the ceremony the couple went to their home on Gordon street. We extend best wishes.

The grim monster death has claimed another victim in Kinston. This morning at 4:50 o'clock, Mrs. M. V. Dixon quietly passed away at her home of East street, after an illness of nearly three months. Mrs. Dixon had a complication of diseases. She leaves a husband and two children, a son and daughter. Her father and several brothers and sisters survive her. The husband and son accompanied her to Reynoldsville, Va., today, near which place all that is mortal of Mrs. Dixon will be laid to rest in the family burying ground tomorrow. Mr. Dixon is employed as sawyer at Hines Bros.' mill. We extend sympathy to the bereaved.

The burial of the remains of Mr. Robert H. Rountree, Jr., took place at the cemetery yesterday evening at 5 o'clock. The Odd Fellows, of whom he was a member, together with a number of citizens, met the body at the train and followed it to the cemetery. Rev. W. G. Johnston conducted the funeral services. Mr. Rountree died suddenly of acute pneumonia. He was 33 years of age. His father, Mr. R. H. Rountree, and Mr. Jack Rountree, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mr. Geo. Rountree, of Wilmington, came to attend the funeral. 'Tis sad that one just in the prime of life, a specimen of fine young manhood, with such a bright future, should be cut down by the merciless cycle of death, but the bereaved relatives and warm friends find comfort in the thought that "He doeth all things well."

Card of Thanks.

Being a comparative stranger in your midst, I take this means to extend my sincere thanks for and deep appreciation of the many kindnesses shown by so many of the citizens of Kinston to my lamented wife and myself during her fatal illness.

M. V. Dixon.

Rhoda Royal Show.

This aggregation arrived in Kinston early this morning, and at an early hour occurred the interesting scene of putting together the tents and various departments of the big circus.

The tents are placed in the usual place. The parade took place at noon and was very good. The steam calliope dispensed hot music that was strong enough to soothe the savages' savagery. The horses are very pretty, and the costumes of the riders presented a nice appearance.

We go to press too early to give an account of this afternoon's performance. There will be another performance tonight. Doors open at 7 o'clock; performance begins at 8 o'clock.

Superior Court.

Cases disposed of Thursday afternoon: State vs. Hub Sellers; assault with deadly weapon. Guilty. Sentenced 8 months in jail, and worked on county roads.

State vs. Harlowe Phillips, carrying concealed weapon. Guilty. Fined $10 and costs.

The case of State vs. Job Deaver for killing Wm. Candell was taken up, and eleven of the jury were selected, when the special venire was exhausted.

This morning the jury was completed, and the trial entered into. At noon four witnesses for the State had been examined. The case will take all of this afternoon. Following is the jury: S. H. Taylor, Daniel Hines, Elias Sullivan, J. H. Ellis, I. D. Grady, T. E. Smith, Noah Fields, E. M. Herring, S. C. Canley, C. E. Kennedy, Jas. Williams and J. G. Smith.

Big Storm Out West.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Reports received here say that the worst storm of the season thus far is raging throughout the northwest states. At Deadwood, Lead City and Sioux Falls snow is at a depth sufficient to stop all the street railways and traffic throughout the Dakotas and Montana is seriously delayed.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. L. Smith went to Weldon this morning and will return tonight.

Miss Jennie Adams, of Ayden, came last night to visit friends in Kinston.

Mrs. J. C. Wagner returned yesterday from a visit to relatives at Wilmington.

Sheriff B. W. Edwards and Mr. M. H. Potter, of Snow Hill, were in Kinston today.

Mesdames Seth West, F. P. Outlaw and J. F. Carpenter, of Dover, spent yesterday in Kinston.

Mrs. W. R. Dixon and children, of Tuscarora, left Kinston this morning for Greenville to visit friends.

Mrs. E. C. Williams and child, of Greenville, came last night to visit her husband, who is employed here.

Mrs. J. C. Arnold, of Norfolk, spent last night in Kinston, and left for Greene county today to visit relatives.

Miss Callie Quarles, of Wilson, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. S. H. Rountree, Jr., returned home today.

Rev. A. L. Betts, of Raleigh, came yesterday, spent last night at Rev. C. W. Blanchard's, and went to Greenville this morning.

Mr. Seth Dixon and daughter, Miss Cora, who had been visiting at Mr. B. F. Dixon's, near here, returned home this morning.

Mr. John Bagby, of Richmond, who had been visiting friends here in company with Mr. Albert E. Rountree, returned to his home this morning.

GLENFIELD ITEMS.

November 15, 1900.

Miss Myrtle Taylor, who is teaching at Dixonsville, spent last Saturday and Sunday at Mr. J. J. Moore's.

Nearly everybody around here attended the conference at Hull Road last Sunday.

Several of this community are attending the Newbern fair this week.

Rev. C. W. Robinson filled his appointment at Rainbow Sunday.

Misses Lizzie Moore and Myrtle Taylor spent last Saturday in Kinston.

We learn that Mr. Mack Canady was found dead in bed this morning. It is supposed he died of Bright's disease. We extend sympathy to the family.

A Great Shake-Up In Dress Goods Prices.

Owing to the continued mild weather, manufacturers and jobbers have been unable to dispose of their stocks at anything like actual value. Many of them have therefore been forced to sacrifice a good part of them. Their necessity was our opportunity and we bought liberally. As a result, we are able to offer you some of the season's best Dress Goods at prices below their worth and the following list will convince you that we mean what we say:

At 50c Yard....

38 inch all wool Panne Venetians. 38 inch Wool Homespuns. 40 inch Silk Finish Henriettas. 38 inch Camel's Hair Suitings. The above goods in all colors. Goods in this lot are all worth from 60c to 75c per yard.

At 75c Yard....

50 inch all-wool Zibeline and Homespun Suitings in Tan, Castor, Royal and Navy Blue. 46 inch Cheviot Serges in Black and Blue only. 36 inch Polka Dot French Flannels—all colors. Regular prices for all worth this line has been $1.00 yard.

In addition to the above we are offering exceptional values in Broadcloths, Satin Soliels, Satin Berbers, Peirolla Cloths, etc. Come here this week for your Dress Goods and save money.
