Report About Camp Black.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The report of Col. Chas. Samart, of the medical department, after his exhaustive review of Camp Black, was given out today. After several statements regarding cleanliness and lack of medicine some of the features were eliminated. He criticises furloughing men who were not strong enough to travel and care for themselves, which was abused by the pressure brought to bear on the authorities by friends. He says that the site of the camp is excellent, that the soil with its grassy surface is ideal, that though there are some low spots around to retain the surface water he believes the fresh breezes prevent the development of malaria. He says some pools should have been filled if the camp is to be made permanent.

George Gould Sees Prosperity Ahead.

London, Sept. 13.—George Gould, who is about to sail for America, was interviewed and said: "All that I have heard from home since I came abroad has convinced me that we are on the eve of an era of prosperity, perhaps unprecedented. The business outlook could not be better, with a splendid harvest, very beneficial to railroads and everybody."

Troops Anxious to Parade.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Gen. Miles called at the white house today, carrying a message from Col. Greenleaf, chief surgeon at Camp Wikoff, that the artillery and regiments are in fine condition, and that fully fifty per cent. of them are anxious to parade New York. Gen. Miles asked the president to have the original plans carried out.

An Heiress Carried Out by the Undertow.

New York, Sept. 13.—The maid of Miss Louise King, the missing heiress who went to Coney Island, has confessed that she induced her to go beyond her depth and that she was carried out by the undertow.

LAGRANGE NEWS.

FREE PRESS BUREAU,
LAGRANGE, Sept. 12, 1898.

Mr. Dee Sutton lost a horse Sunday.

President D. W. Patrick, of the A. & N. C. R. R., was here today.

Miss Clara Wooten, of Kinston, is visiting at Mr. S. I. Wooten's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Paris, of Newbern, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Rosemond, daughter of Mr. J. L. Abbott, returned to her home last week.

Miss Fannie Sutton left for Westminster, Md., today to re-enter Western Maryland College.

Rev. T. H. Sutton will on Thursday night, September 15th, begin a series of meetings at Daly's Chapel.

There has been more tobacco sold on our market up to date than was sold during the whole season last year.

Dr. J. W. P. Smithwick, of our town, has some friends who are contemplating opening up a banking business here.

Rev. D. H. Petree called in his appointment for Sunday night that he might return to Lousin Swamp, where he is assisting in a series of meetings.

Mr. Amariah Parks, who left here May 4th to join the army, is home on a furlough. He will return to Jacksonville, Fla., Thursday and will, he thinks, soon be sent to Cuba.

Dr. M. W. Parks, of near Seven Springs, has, on account of his extensive farming interests, abandoned the practice of medicine, and, if he can get a house, will locate here on account of our school advantages. He has sold all his tobacco on this market this year.

The special train Saturday night struck a mule belonging to Mr. John Fields, of near here, and hurt him badly. Mr. W. H. Harper, veterinary surgeon, sewed up the place, taking 42 stitches. The same train killed a valuable cow belonging to a colored man near Beston.

DEATH OF MR. JOSIAH SUTTON.

Mr. Josiah Sutton, Sr., died at his home in Bucklesberry Monday morning, the 12th instant, at 4 o'clock, in the 89th year of his age. Mr. Sutton has been wonderfully blessed with good health, and a remarkable degree of success.

He has never had to buy corn nor bacon and always had some to sell. He was the first to pay his taxes every year. He would not allow you to credit him for anything. If he did not have the money with him he would wait until he came again.

He was never unkindful of the source from whence came all blessings. "Owe no man" was his motto. In all his dealings with his fellow man he was scrupulously honest.

He was, perhaps, the oldest man in the county, and for 66 years lived with the wife whom his death leaves a widow. He leaves a large family of children, grand and great grand children, a widow and a host of friends to mourn his demise.

The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large concourse of people.

"All heads must come
To the cold tomb,
Only the actions of the just
Smell sweet, and blossom in the dust."

INSTITUTE ITEMS.

Not many of our people succeeded in saving their fodder, so they are now making hay while the sun shines.

Politics are getting pretty well warmed up around here now, and we hope the white people will all get together and stick together, for "a house divided against itself shall surely fall" is true prophecy.

"You had better not go boating with Ada," said Tommy to his sister's fiancé. "Why not, Tommy?" "Cause I heard her say she intended to throw you overboard soon."—Tit-Bits.

Gooseberries on Trees.

Travelers in Burma see many strange things, and perhaps one of the strangest is the way in which some kinds of fruit grow.

For instance, gooseberries that at home grow on small bushes in this part of the world grow on trees over 25 feet high. They are not a soft, pulpy fruit, but are as hard as marbles.

The real Burman grapes also grow on high trees and not on vines. They hang from the branches and trunk of the tree in clusters on a long stalk and are covered with a thick outer skin, which cannot be eaten.

The cashon, or monkey nut, is also peculiar and consists of a large, juicy fruit of soft pulp, with its nut or kernel attached to the outside of the fruit at the end farthest from the stalk from which it hangs.—London Standard.

A Logical Conclusion.

In a recent Walla Walla divorce suit, in which the defendant failed to appear, the referee made the following report:

"The plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, and the defendant not appearing and no one appearing for him, therefore he did not appear."—Walla Walla Statesman.

BELIEVE IT IS LUCCESI.

One of the Anarchists Selected to Kill Principal Rulers of Europe.

Paris, Sept. 10.—President Felix Faure sent a telegram of condolence to Emperor Francis Joseph immediately upon receipt of the news of the assassination.

The police here believe the murder the result of a plot of Italian anarchists, and that the assassin is identical with one Luccesi, who is wanted by the Bologne police as a dangerous anarchist. The man known as Luccesi was implicated in the recent troubles at Milan, after which he fled to Zurich.

While at Zurich Luccesi was present at a meeting of Italian anarchists when seven were elected, including Luccesi, to assassinate the principal European sovereigns, including the king of Italy.

A French detective, who was present at the meeting in disguise, warned the French foreign office, which communicated its information to the Italian government. As a result King Humbert was carefully guarded, as was also M. Faure.

About a week ago another meeting of the same band of anarchists was held at Zurich, and those who had been selected at the previous meeting were accused of cowardice.

Thereupon Luccesi said: "I will show that I am no coward. I will kill some one."

The following day he left Zurich and went to Baleu, proceeding thence to Geneva.

Norfolk, Sept. 13.—Most of the seventh army corps under Gen. Lee, now in camp Cuba Libre at Jacksonville, are dissatisfied and want to be mustered out, especially the Virginians, according to Corporal Geir, who returned today. They are dissatisfied because they were given no chance to fight and prefer returning home to doing garrison duty in Havana. Corporal Geir thinks the seventh corps will go to Cuba in November.
