WAKE COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

The County Convention. The Negroes Snowed Under. None Allowed on the Ticket.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 24.—The Republican county convention renominated the old county ticket and J. P. H. Adams for senate and J. C. L. Harris for the house. A hot fight was waged over a nomination of a negro on the ticket. J. C. L. Harris defeated O'Kelly, the negro candidate.

Prof. Capehart, colored, in a speech declared that the negroes had been sacrificed by the promise of two $1,800 jobs in the agricultural department and one in the colored blind institution. John Nichols said the negroes were sold out and declared they were entitled to representation. Louie Capehart and other negroes bolted. Jim Young declared against nominating a negro on the ticket. He said he was going to urge the same policy in every county in the State. He declared that too many negroes had been nominated in Craven and other eastern counties and that some of them should be withdrawn.

An Outrage.

Cor. Fayetteville Observer.

RENNETT, N. C., Sept. 14, 1898.

DEAR SIR:—While in Fayetteville on Tuesday last I carried a lady in the first-class coach on the southbound train on the A. C. Line. Very close to the seat occupied by the lady was a negro soldier who occupied two seats with his feet up in the air. I remarked to the lady that I disliked to leave her so near to a negro soldier. On leaving the car the negro followed me into the next car and pulled his pistol on me for the remark I made to the lady. The conductor interfered to prevent trouble and forced the negro back to his own car. I am a white man and I am not going to be run over by any negro, even if he be a major-general. "All coons look alike to me." Had it not been for the conductor, the coroner would have had a job.

Yours for white supremacy and Democracy.

E. S. AUSLEY.

LAGRANGE NEWS.

FREE PRESS BUREAU,
LAGRANGE, SEPT. 26, 1898.

Treasurer D. M. Stanton, of the A. & N. C., is here today.

Miss Sallie Parks is spending today with Mrs. R. M. Harper.

Mrs. G. R. Richardson, of Goldsboro, is here visiting her parents.

Miss Maude Dawson, of Institute, returned from a visit to Miss Lela Fields Monday.

Miss Mamie Edwards, of Pitt, came today to visit Miss Lizzie Anderson, of near here.

Misses Pearl Hardee and Mabel Wooten attended the dedication of the new church in Wilson Sunday.

Miss Carraway, from Wayne, is in town soliciting subscriptions to the history of Spanish-American war.

Miss Bessie Rouse left today for Greensboro, where she will visit before returning to school in New York city.

The "Pink-tea" party was largely attended and reflected much credit on the getters-up. The receipts were $14.

Rev. J. W. Rose announced that he, assisted by Rev. Mr. Porter, of Newbern, would begin a series of meetings in the Baptist church here the fourth Sunday in October.

Milton Walters, alias "N. C. Pete," says "the A. & N. C. R. R. is building a platform at the end of the old depot, to help the farmers and keep them from lifting the heavy bales of cheap cotton."

Swannie, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Miller, died Saturday and was interred in Fair View cemetery Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. D. Thomas performing the sad funeral rites. "Suffer little children to come unto Me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of heaven." The feeble condition of Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their daughter, makes this sad stroke of Providence very distressing.

AN ULTIMATUM TO THE SULTAN.

Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy Have Decided to Settle the Cretan Question Immediately.

Rome, Sept. 24.—Within twenty-four hours Great Britain, Russia, France and Italy will append their signatures to an agreement for the pacification of the island of Crete, including a plan for coercion of the Sultan into submission. The scheme has been drafted for some time, but its enforcement was delayed, to invite the participation of Germany, which country declined.

At the beginning of the week the four powers will send an ultimatum to the sultan of Turkey, summoning him to accept the project and informing him that unless he does so measures will be taken to enforce his compliance.

The powers have irrevocably decided to settle the Cretan question immediately, and will not hesitate to send their fleets to the Dardanelles and beyond, if necessary.

Died.

Jessie, 13-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hodges died yesterday. The remains were interred in the cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Mollie A. Dawson, aged about 47 years, died Tuesday morning at the home of her father, Mr. John Rhem, in Sand Hill township. The burial will take place tomorrow evening at 3 o'clock at the family burying ground.

For 20 years the Democratic party administered the affairs of the State wisely until the State government was the best in the union—yes, even in the world. The present gang is a disgraceful failure, and have managed the State government in such a manner that we are not respected by other states—we are ashamed for our sister southern states to know of the disgraceful condition of our State.—Hon. J. A. Lockhart.
