THURSDAY EVENING, Sept. 7, 1899.

The American Tobacco Co.'s stemmy has commenced work.

Another carload of rails has arrived for the Bell Logging company.

Rev. W. G. Johnston is assisting Rev. S. W. Sumrell in a revival meeting at Wheat Swamp church this week.

Dr. R. H. Lewis informs us that the government thermometer was at 99° F. at 3 o'clock yesterday in Kinston.

A man from Jones county, who brought tobacco to Kinston today, had a large rattlesnake with 13 rattles which he had killed.

Lillie Kornegay, colored, was before the mayor yesterday for assault. She was bound over to court in the sum of a $50 bond, which she gave.

Many from and near Kinston went on the stockholders' excursion to Morehead City today. The train had ten coaches when it passed through Kinston.

The colored grand chapter order of the Eastern Star, a female Masonic organization of the State, will hold its convention in Kinston on Tuesday, September 12th. About 150 delegates are expected.

We have lately noticed much tobacco coming to Kinston from afar. This is a good sign that the Kinston tobacco market is constantly increasing its sales. People make no mistake when they bring their tobacco to Kinston.

About 175,000 pounds of tobacco were sold on the Kinston market today. The price for good bright tobacco is improving. More tobacco will probably be sold in Kinston this week than has ever been sold on our market for the same number of days before.

A dispatch from Winston to the Raleigh Post has this about a former Kinstonian: "Rev. H. C. Bowen has resigned as pastor of the Christian church. He will probably accept a call to a church in Virginia. He is a strong preacher, and has been here three years."

Margaret Chestnut and husband, Jesse Chestnut, both colored, were before J. G. Cox, J. P., yesterday for assault with a deadly weapon on Lola Kornegay, colored. Margaret was bound over to court under a $50 bond. The case against Jesse was dismissed.

A. W. Worthington, colored, the principal of the colored graded schools, of Kinston, has resigned to accept a position in the colored graded schools of Newbern. The trustees of the Kinston graded schools will probably elect a principal for the colored school at their next meeting.

The first bale of new cotton to be sold on Kinston market was bought this morning by Mr. John F. Mewborne for Sprunt & Sons, of Wilmington. The bale was brought here by Mr. Joshua Dawson, of Falling Creek township. The price paid was 5 1/2 cents, lacking only 5 points being as high as New York quotations.

A. & N. C. Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad company will be held in Morehead City, N. C., on Thursday, Sept. 28, 1899.

D. M. STANTON,
 Secretary and Treasurer.

from a printer who is willing and capable, and who will interest himself to the extent of making your printing best suited to your particular needs.

Inartistic Printers, who turn out medium or poor work, make little attempt to please you, but quote a low price and say nothing about quality, are many.

Artistic Printers,

who exercise good taste, use appropriate type and newest ideas, are few. To this class we strive to belong. We do printing for most of the best business and professional men in this section, and would like to do yours.

CAPUDINE, YOUR HEAD'S BEST FRIEND.

In the old days the only way to treat a headache was to "gria and bear it," or to take a nauseating purgative. Now people are being cured and their nerves and stomachs soothed by HICK'S

CAPUDINE

HEADACHE CURE. No morphine, chloral, antipyrine, cocaine or any dangerous drug.

It is a grateful, soothing remedy for tired nerves.

Sold in Kinston by J. E. Hood, Henry Dunn, Temple-Marston Co., and by William Tyndal at Dover, and by well stocked drugstores everywhere.
