WEDNESDAY EVENING, Oct. 11, 1899.

The boys at the white graded school are getting up a football team.

Mr. C. T. Randolph shipped today four buggies to be put on exhibition at the Raleigh State fair, one top and three open buggies.

Mrs. J. H. Banks gave her nephew, Mr. Joe Ballard, and little girl, Miss Genevieve Banks, a birthday party yesterday. Many children were present and enjoyed the occasion. Confectioneries were served.

About 200,000 pounds of tobacco were sold in Kinston today. All four warehouses had fine breaks. Yesterday there were over 250,000 pounds here. The sales yesterday were blocked. Nearly half a million pounds of tobacco sold in Kinston in two consecutive days! Kinston is a big tobacco market.

The Atlantic Baptist association met at Newbern yesterday. Rev. C. W. Blanchard, of Kinston, was elected moderator. The association is to divide at the present session. All the churches west of Newbern are to form a new association at LaGrange on the 26th inst. The attendance at Newbern is large.

A meeting of the committee appointed to select a site for the furniture factory was held last night. Two locations are under consideration—one on the A. C. L., near Mr. S. H. Abbott's brick yard, on land belonging to Mr. J. W. Grainger; the other near the A. & N. C., on the land of Mr. A. Mitchell. A trade for one of these sites will be consummated today.

Mr. Joseph G. Chandler, advance agent of Lee, the hypnotist, was here today making arrangements for the appearance here next week of the company. This is the company that has made such a furor in Wilmington, Raleigh, Charlotte and other places in North Carolina. The company is now giving entertainments at Newbern and is meeting with great success there, as everywhere they go. Mr. Chandler is a son of Senator Chandler, of New Hampshire, and is an exceedingly clever gentleman.

"Luck" and "chance" are terms which do not enter into the calculations of the enterprising and energetic merchant. Being a progressive man, he is essentially practical. The competitive conditions with which he must contend require the exercise of good judgment, enterprise and foresight. In the management of his advertising those qualifications are especially requisite; and if he select as the medium through which to reach the public, a trusted and influential newspaper he makes assurance doubly sure. There is neither luck nor chance in the right sort of advertising. It invariably brings profitable results.—Philadelphia Record.

Tom Potter was before Justice L. J. Moore this morning charged with assaulting Chas. and Lon Potter with a deadly weapon. It was also asked that Tom Potter be put under a warrant to keep the peace. He was required to give a bond of $100 for his appearance at the next term of court and was put under a $100 peace warrant. He gave both. It seems that on Tuesday a week ago Tom, Chas. and Lon Potter, left Kinston together on a wagon and were drinking. A quarrel arose on the way over a discussion of an old family feud and Tom Potter drove Chas. and Lon Potter out of the wagon. These parties are all tenants on land belonging to Mr. J. W. Daly, in Falling Creek township; and that afternoon, after all had reached home, they renewed their quarrel, resulting in a fight, in which Tom Potter used a heavy stick, inflicting a few wounds on the other two Potters. Chas. and Lon Potter used light sticks and it seems were worsted.
