FRIDAY EVENING, October 13, 1899.

There will be a meeting of Haymakers tonight for the purpose of initiating candidates.

James Henry Guy, colored, is erecting a dwelling on the corner of Bright and Queen streets.

Mr. W. D. LaRoque returned last night from Richmond and Norfolk, where he bought a large stock of fine horses and mules, which will arrive here today.

We are glad to notice that our town authorities have had some roots on the sidewalks removed. This work should continue until all the roots are removed from the sidewalks.

The Rocky Mount Motor says: "A change having been made in Capt. E. Y. Cox's run necessitates his moving his family to Kinston. Their many friends here regret to have them leave."

Work has been commenced on an eight-room dwelling for Mr. E. B. Harget, of Onslow county, on Lenoir street, near the Eagle tobacco warehouse. Mr. Harget will move his family to Kinston.

There was about 125,000 pounds of tobacco sold in Kinston today. Today ends the sales for this week, which has been an unprecedented one in quantity of tobacco sold on our market—about 800,000 pounds being sold here this week.

It has been decided by the Cotton Mills to build eight or ten more houses, so as to accommodate more employes. This is a step looking forward to running the mill night and day, employing about 75 more people than at present.

A special term of court has been ordered for Lenoir county by Gov. Russell, to immediately follow the next regular term of court commencing November 13. The special term will be held until all cases on the docket are disposed of. Judge H. R. Bryan, of Newbern, will preside.

The hardest thing in adwriting is to write a plain, common sense, everyday talk. It seems easy to write this kind of an ad., but when one attempts to do it he finds how difficult it is. A plain statement of facts in an advertisement, if you have advantages to offer to induce trade, will bring in customers.

One of the best recommendations that can be given a show is that of a crowded house for consecutive nights. Lee, the hypnotist, has shown to packed houses every night this week at Newbern, and receives the highest commendation on every hand. His show is a high class one and will commence a series of performances in Kinston next Monday night.

From private advices we learn that Oak Ridge Institute is more prosperous than ever before, having fully twenty per cent. more students than it had last year, the best record in its history to date. This is the 47th year of this school's history and the 25th under the present management. This school is not supported by any denominational interest but rests on its merits alone. It is said to be the largest private fitting school in the south.

Next Monday night at the opera house Sylvain A. Lee and his company of hypnotists will appear in one of their unique entertainments, and at the close of the evening's performance will hypnotize a subject, put him to sleep and have him carried to one of the largest show windows of Mess. Einstein Bros', big store, where he will remain 24 hours, without food or water. This feature of Mr. Lee's entertainments was a great success this week in Newbern, and during Tuesday nearly every one in that city went to look at him, the ladies in particular being very much interested.

Stole a Mule and Buggy.

Yesterday morning a tall white man, who gave his name as Jim May and said he was from Henderson, and had been grading tobacco for Mr. Elijah Loftin for three weeks, about four miles from Kinston, borrowed a dark bay mule from Mr. B. M. Sparrow to come to Kinston, and yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock he hitched the mule to the buggy of Mr. Philip Stroud, back of Mr. S. H. Loftin's store, and left, putting the saddle in the buggy, so a colored boy, who saw him, says. A man of the same description was seen passing by Mr. Doc Wallace's late yesterday. He may be gone to Hookerton, Greenville, Rocky Mount or Wilson or elsewhere.

People everywhere are requested to be on the lookout for him and to arrest him if seen.

He is reported to have said his name was William May, but that he was always called Jim. He is a tall man of rather dark complexion, weighing about 165 pounds. The mule is a small dark bay mare mule, without marks. The buggy is an Ellis buggy, that had been a top buggy but the top had been taken off; wheels painted red; body, black.

Any information leading to the recovery of the property and the arrest of the thief will be gladly received by either B. M. Sparrow or Philip Stroud, Kinston, N. C. A suitable reward will be paid for the recovery of the property.

State papers are requested to copy above.

Sudden Death.

Greenville Reflector.
 Today we heard a sad story from Greene county. Mr. Frank Carr came over to Greenville Sunday. When he left home that morning his little 7-year old boy was playing about the yard, well and hearty. When Mr. Carr reached home that evening his little boy was dead. The little fellow had a chill during the day and died in about an hour after he was taken sick.

No Race Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 12.—A blanket of fog over the course and the utter absence of wind caused the fifth successive fizzle today when another attempt was made to sail the first Columbia-Shamrock series for the international trophy.

No Race Today.

New York, Oct. 13.—The race between the Columbia and the Shamrock has been declared off today. There is a fog and the breeze is too light.

Reserved seats for Lee's Monday night entertainment will be on sale at S. H. Loftin's store tomorrow—Saturday—morning.
