FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 19, 1900.

Owing to sickness Dr. R. H. Lewis will not be able to entertain his Sunday school class tonight.

A special from Washington, D. C., says: "The minor children of Thomas Sutton, of Kinston, have been granted a pension of $16."

Miss Mary Baker, of South West township, and Hedlas Allen, of Wilson county, were married in Kinston last night by J. G. Cox, J. P.

Evangelist W. A. Jenkins, of Goldsboro, will begin a series of meetings next Monday night to continue one week, and will be held in the court house.

The Goldsboro correspondent Raleigh Post, Jan 17th, says: "Mr. Thos. J. Roberts, of the Bell Telephone company, of Norfolk, met by appointment the beautiful Miss Suddie L. Dawson, of Le-noir county, at the court house in our city this morning and they were soon made man and wife, Justice A. T. Grady tying the knot."

"When times are dull and people are not advertising," says John Wanamaker, "is the very time that advertising should be the heaviest." Such is the advice given by America's merchant prince. Some traders say it doesn't pay to advertise. They think they know more than Wanamaker. That's where they make a big mistake. Wanamaker's advertising has made him rich and famous. Wanamaker's methods on a smaller scale would be as good in Kinston as they are in New York and Philadelphia. Turn over a new leaf and advertise in THE KINSTON FREE PRESS.

The Kinston Electric Light company files articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The following are the stockholders, each of which subscribes to five shares: B. W. Canady, S. H. Abbott, J. W. Grainger, L. Harvey, A. Mitchell, H. O. Hyatt, F. A. Whitaker, W. C. Fields, J. B. Temple, E. M. Hodges, Louis Einstein, D. Oettinger, T. W. Mewborn, J. E. Hood, Lovit Hines, E. F. Cox, J. A. McDaniel, H. C. Harrison, G. E. Kornegay, Junius Stevenson. This move is in accordance with the plan outlined in THE FREE PRESS a few days ago which allows the town four years in which to redeem the plant.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Sattie Grainger returned yesterday from visiting at Wilson.

Attorney M. C. Richardson left this morning for Clinton, which he will make his home.

Mess. Geo. B. W. Hadley and M. C. Murchison, of LaGrange, were in Kinston today.

Mrs. S. J. Hudson, of Newbern, who had been visiting in Kinston, returned home this morning.

Solicitor Rodolph Duffy returned yesterday to Newbern, all criminal cases having been disposed of at the present term of court.

Mess. W. A. Mitchell, Charlie Bailey, W. H. Morton and J. S. Finley attended the show, "Side-Tracked," at Newbern last night.

Anthony Davis Will Case.

Yesterday afternoon's session of court was consumed by the jury trying the Anthony Davis' will case, listening to argument by T. C. Wooten and C. B. Aycok for caveators, and J. Q. Jackson for the propounders.

At the assembling of court this morning A. J. Loftin, attorney for propounders of the will, closed argument on the case.

All the speeches were good. The argument of counsel closed at 11:15 o'clock. By mutual consent of counsel, it was agreed not to review the evidence in its entirety.

The judge then began his instructions to the jury. The charge was an impartial, clear-cut one as to the facts to be passed upon by the jury.

The case was given to the jury a few minutes after 12 o'clock.

At the time of going to press the jury had not agreed upon a verdict. It is thought a mistrial will probably result. It seems to be the prevalent opinion that a majority of the jury are in favor of dissolving the will.

HUGO ITEMS.

January 18, 1900.

Mr. J. F. Jackson went to Kinston Tuesday.

Mrs. Harvey Griffin, of near Newbern, who had been on a visit here, returned home Sunday.

Several people from here attended services at Sharon Sunday and enjoyed an excellent sermon by Rev. W. S. Bone.

The Sunday school at Edwards' chapel will be reorganized next Sunday, with Mr. W. G. Harper as superintendent. Let old and young turn out and help this young man in a noble work.

LaGRANGE ITEMS.

FREE PRESS BUREAU,
 LaGRANGE, Jan. 18, 1900.

Our merchants are getting in large quantities of spring goods.

Mess. Williams & Creech have had a warehouse built back of their store.

Mr. John Willis Sutton will, in the near future, build a residence on Washington street.

Work is being rapidly pushed ahead on Mr. W. A. Thompson's residence, on Railroad street.

Miss Nellie Hill, who had been visiting friends here, returned to her home in Newbern Wednesday.

We are glad to note a gratifying increase in the attendance of pupils at the high school since Christmas.

Rolling a match on a match in the cotton warehouse here Monday caused one bale of cotton belonging to Mr. O. Taylor to be badly burned. But for prompt action, the damage would have been great, as there were about 60 bales in the warehouse.

Mess. Burt and Bain Kibler, of Florida, spent several days here this week visiting old friends. These young men left here when quite young and began life as telegraph operators. They now hold responsible positions as railroad agents of the Plant system in Florida.

The Permanent Advertiser.

National Advertiser.
 Advertising is an art—that everybody knows, and never so much an art as in these days when so much and as careful work is done in writing advertisements as in writing editorials, says the Indianapolis News. But advertising is also a science. A high authority says: "Advertising should be planned on the presumption that it is going to be permanent." That is a scientific statement. It means that advertising should be systematic, and not sporadic; that it is a distinct feature and department, and should be so administered. Announcements now and then cannot bring a strain of steady benefits. They may do for spurt sales, but when the sales run their course they are forgotten.

On the other hand, like the continuous dropping that wears away a stone, systematic advertising in an artistic way, day after day, year in and year out, becomes a part of the reading matter of the great newspaper. "You never miss the water until the well runs dry."

Newspaper readers do not know, perhaps, how much entertainment and benefit they get from the advertising columns until they think about it. Then they realize that all these merchants who, day after day, talk to them through the newspaper columns are their friends and very pleasant acquaintances, and they act accordingly.
