WANT OUTSIDE HELP

The Republicans Want to Settle the Kentucky Trouble in Federal Courts, Which Democrats Refuse to Agree to. Refusals to Obey Taylor. Assassin May Never Be Known. No Federal Interference.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1.—For the first time since the shooting of Gov. Goebel there were today signs of a peaceful settlement. The signs have disappeared, but there is a chance that they may reappear. The original proposition looking toward an amicable adjustment came from the Republican side just before noon. When T. L. Edelen, of Frankfort, one of Gov. Taylor's attorneys, appeared at the Capitol Hotel to hold a conference with Judge Pryor, Lewis McQuown and Col. William Scott, legal advisers of the Democracy. After a short talk Mr. Edelen declared that Gov. Taylor and the Republican party were anxious to avoid anything that might possibly lead to serious trouble, as the present conditions might do, if nothing was done to prevent it.

He was assured by the Democratic attorneys that they were as anxious to save any clash between the parties as the Republicans could be. Mr. Edelen then proposed to submit the case of the rival governors to the Kentucky court of appeals, which, he declared, judging by the action of Judge Haselrigg in swearing in Gov. Goebel, would probably decide against Gov. Taylor. He then wanted the right to submit the matter to the United States supreme court for final settlement.

The Democrats declined to have any federal court intervention, stating that they desired it settled in the state courts. Mr. McQuown urged the Republicans to concede the election and seating of Gov. Goebel, which Mr. Edelen declined to entertain. The lawyers then separated, Mr. Edelen intimating that he might be able to submit another proposition at some time later. He was given to understand that he will be met half way and the conference was at an end.

Refuse to Obey Taylor.

Two direct slaps were given Gov. Taylor today by public officers, who declined to obey his orders. The first came from President Rodman of the Farmers' Bank, which is a state depository. Some vouchers on the bank were signed by Gov. Taylor in favor of some of the militia officers, who wanted money for their companies. When they were presented to the bank payment was refused. President Rodman said that he did not see how he could pay out the money on orders signed by Gov. Taylor until he knew for certain who was the actual governor of Kentucky.

The second instance promised for a time to have serious consequences, and trouble may yet arise from it.

Gov. Taylor issued a pardon to Douglas Hayes, a convict in the Frankfort penitentiary, who is serving a five year term for manslaughter, having been sentenced in March, 1899. When the pardon was sent to Warden Lillard, he decided that he could not turn the man loose until he was satisfied regarding the legal status of the governorship. He made no reply to Gov. Taylor, but declined to honor the pardon, and informed the penitentiary commissioners of his action. They agreed with the position taken by the warden, and the man was held.

There was some wild talk by Republicans of sending soldiers to release Hayes by force, but it didn't materialize.

To Enjoin Taylor.

Tomorrow morning an injunction will be asked from Judge Cantrell, of the fiscal court, restraining Gov. Taylor from interfering in any way with the proceedings of the legislature. Gov. Taylor has announced before this that he would pay no attention to the orders of the fiscal court. The probabilities are that some trouble will ensue.

Assassin May Never Be Known.

Frankfort, Feb. 1.—At police headquarters here today it was said that nothing was being done to run down Goebel's assailant. Officers said they were not in a position to do anything. Admittance to all places where information could be secured was denied them. Senator Goebel's closest friends declared they were powerless to do anything looking to the capture of his assailant. Some of them expressed a melancholy belief that the assassin would never be known.

The legislature was not allowed to meet today. In a body it got as far as the door of the capitol where the members were turned back by soldiers.

NO FEDERAL INTERFERENCE.

McKinley Decides That Legislature of Kentucky is the Sole Judge of Which of the Two Contestants is Governor.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Nearly the entire cabinet meeting today was devoted to a discussion of the situation in Kentucky and the rights and duties of the president in connection therewith.

A decision was reached at once and when Senator-elect Blackburn with Representatives Rhea, Allen, Gilbert, Smith and Wheeler called this morning to protest against Federal interference in the contest in Kentucky, the president promptly gave them to understand that he had already reached the conclusion on the subject and that he had found that the situation did not warrant the federal authorities in interfering.

Attorney Gen. Griggs, Secretary Root and the other lawyers of the cabinet sustained the president's conclusions. The law which must govern in this case authorizes federal action only when the legislature is not in session and cannot be convened.

The president and the members of his cabinet without exception recognize the fact that the legislature of the state of Kentucky by a majority thereof is the sole judge of which of the two contestants was elected governor of the state at the recent election.

After the cabinet meeting the following statement was made:

"The president has decided that no case has yet arisen to justify the intervention of the national government in Kentucky and has so informed the governor."

Some significance may attach to the use of the word "governor" in this statement, inasmuch as the reply was directed to Gov. Taylor.

Senator Blackburn left this afternoon for Kentucky and Representative Rhea will follow him tonight. They will use their utmost endeavors to prevent a collision. At the same time they will act as advisors of Goebel in the legal proceedings that are to be instituted. They assert that Goebel is the legal governor, and that the courts will uphold him.

Democrats Re-elect Goebel.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—The Democratic members of the legislature today effected a regular organization for the first time since the swearing in of Gov. Goebel. A secret session of the members of both houses was held in one of the parlors of the Capitol Hotel, at which the election of William Goebel as governor was re-affirmed, first in separate sessions of the house and senate and afterward in a joint session.

Some action is expected at the session Monday in regard to offering a reward of $50,000 for the arrest and conviction of the would-be assassin of Gov. Goebel. The Democratic leaders, to a man, are in favor of such action.

Notice Served on Taylor.

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—Gov. Taylor was today served with notice of suit for an injunction to restrain him from interfering with the action of the legislature, and to prevent him from holding a session of the legislature at London.

THERE IS HOPE FOR GOEBEL.

Physicians Now Think He May Recover. A Decided Improvement.

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—The condition of William Goebel is tonight considered better than at any time since he was shot. The iron will and determination of the wounded man that he will not die by an assassin's bullet is, however, still considered the main factor in sustaining him, but tonight the attending physicians, for the first time, hold out some hope for his ultimate recovery.

Gov. Goebel secured some sleep during the day, which increased his strength perceptibly, and though unfavorable symptoms showed themselves at times, the sick man always rallied well. Compared with 24 hours ago, his condition shows a decided improvement, his temperature being more nearly normal, though some fever still shows itself. His pulse and respiration are still high, but his kidneys, the condition of which last night was regarded as the most unfavorable symptom, are performing their functions in a more normal manner, thus obviating in a degree the danger of anæmic poisoning.

Gov. Goebel during the day complained somewhat of bed-soreness and he was turned partly on his side to relieve the strained muscles. This for a time had an unfavorable effect, but he soon rallied and shortly afterward fell into a light sleep. Should the wounded man succeed in passing through tonight well, his physicians express the hope that his recovery, though necessarily slow, will be sure.

90,000 MORE BRITISH

Called for South Africa by Gen. Roberts. Militia Ballot Act to be Enforced. Collapse of Boers Hinted At.

London, Feb. 2.—Dispatches from several points in South Africa merely tell of desultory shell firing and the movements of patrols, though Cape Town mentions a rumor that Gen. French has captured 800 Boers, where and when not being announced.

Sensational rumors are current that the militia ballot act will be put in force Feb. 14th, and that Gen. Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa, has cabled for 90,000 additional men, which, it is added the government has promised to give him, sending 50,000 militia and volunteers and 40,000 militia reserves.

It is also said that the volunteers will be mobilized forthwith. It is even asserted today, that the cabinet has especially dealt with these matters.

The militia ballot act makes every unmarried man between 18 and 30 years of age liable to serve for five years.

Mafeking Not Yet Relieved.

Lorenzo Marques, Feb. 1.—A dispatch from Gaborones, dated January 28d, describing a reconnaissance of some of Col. Plumer's forces around the Boer laager southward, seems to dispose of the story that Mafeking has been relieved. On that date the Rhodesians captured two Transvaal flags and drove off the Boer outpost before returning to Gaborones.

Collapse of Boers Hinted At.

London, Feb. 2.—A dispatch to The Times from Cape Town, dated yesterday, says:

"It is not improbable that Boer resistance will collapse with unexpected suddenness, and the troops now in South Africa may prove more than adequate. Widespread rising of the Dutch or natives is very unlikely."

"Nevertheless, no risks should be taken. Every volunteer that can be raised should be sent immediately, even before Lord Roberts asks for them, in order to make ready for an emergency. And they should not come in dribbets as stoppage when the mischief is already done."

BIG BOER LOSS.

Dispatch From Ladysmith Claims Boers Lost 1,100 Killed and 600 Wounded.

London, Feb. 3.—A dispatch from Ladysmith claims that the Boers lost 1,100 killed and 600 wounded in last week's fighting. Five field cornets were among the killed.

It is also claimed that this explains why the Boers did not follow Gen. Warren in his retreat from Spion Kop or harass Gen. Buller.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration, of Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Temple-Marston Drug Co.

ENGLAND'S BIG ARMY.

London, Feb. 2, 4:30 a. m.—Mr. Wyndham's remarkable declaration in the house of commons today that Great Britain will have in a fortnight a total of 213,000 troops in South Africa with 452 guns, is received with wonderment. All are now there, except about 18,000 that are afloat. Beyond comparison this is the largest force Great Britain has ever put into the field. At the end of the Crimean war she had scraped together 80,000 men. Wellington at Waterloo had 25,000.
