latters of Interest Condensed Into Brief Paragraphs.

At Norfolk, Va., Sunday, Wm. Small-good, while cleaning a pistol, accidentlly discharged the contents into the ody of his half-brother, Sylvanus Brown-ill, who was watching the operation. When he found he had killed the boy, he Leslie Eastburn, aged 21, shot Jasper utton, an aged citizen of Bloomfield, Ia., unday, three bullets penetrating Suton's abdomen and causing almost in-tant death. Eastburn called at Suton's home to take Sutton's 18-year-old laughter, Alice, to church. The father met Eastburn at the door and ordered him away. An altereation ensued, and sutton followed Eastburn to the road. Finally weapons were drawn by both men. Eastburn fired first, the older man lalling before he could raise his weapon.

The debate upon the Porto Piccount guarantee of success.

In a letter to Secretary Green the professor says he will bring with him the monster balloon "Dewey," the largest in the United States, and make the parachute leaps therefrom, while at a heighth of 8,000 feet.

The debate upon the Porto Rico tariff ill, which is to continue throughout the week and possibly longer, opened in the house Monday. On all hands it is agreed that this bill, though it applies only to Porto Rico, involving as it does the question of the power to govern our new pos-ecssions outside the limitations of the constitution, is the most important meas-ure which will come befor- this congress. Interest in the bill is intense among the members on both sides and there is an urgent demand for time. The Democrats are solidly arrayed against the measure, and they will have powerful support from the Republican side in Mr. McCall, of Mas-sachusetts, and Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, both able and forceful debaters. How far the Republican disaffection will ex-tend or whether it will endanger the bill, it is impossible to say at this time.

MACRUM WOULD TESTIFY.

The Former Consul at Pretoria Coming to Washington Again.

Pittsburg, Feb. 18.-Charles E. Mafrum, former United States consul at Pretoria, South Africa, left for Washing- nouncement of the formation, he said, ton tonight at 10 o'clock on the Balti-Ohio railroad. Before leaving he said:

"I do not withdraw" a word of my charges against the British officials in South Africa. If I am called upon, I am prepared at any time to testify to them and furnish evidence of their truthful-

Mr. Macrum is evidently delighted over the effect of his statement, made public last week, and says that, although he is not acquainted with Representative Wheeler, of Kentucky, who introduced a resolution in the house asking for an investigation of his case, he will call upon him tomorrow or next day. The exconsul says he is not going to Washington on any special mission, but wants to be on the ground to give his testimony, should it be needed.

TO FIGHT TOBACCO TRUST.

Rumor of Organization of a Company With $25,000,000 Capital-

Roleigh Post, Feb. 29th.

There were rumors yesterday of the or-ganization of a big tobacco company, with a capitalization of millions, which is to fight the American Tobacco company.

Particulars of the organization of the new concern could not be obtained. A gentleman who is well informed as to the tobacco conditions in this and other had been a concern had states declared that such a concern had been organized and that it would fight the American Tobacco company. An would follow in a day or two.

It was stated that the new company

CRONJE HEMMED IN.

"Dewey" Balloon. The Goat Lord Roberts Between the Boer Commander and His Capital. Kelly-Kenny Behind Him, Making His Position Precarious.

> London, Feb. 20.-Lord Roberts is between Gen. Cronje and Bloemfontein, according to war office bulletins, issued this afternoon. Gen. Kelley-Kenny is behind Cronje, and Roberts is between him and the Free State capital. This makes it reasonably certain that the Boer commander is in a precarious position.

REPORT CRONJE CORNERED.

Rumor That the British Have Surrounded Him. Buller Captures Southern End of Monte Christo.

London, Feb. 20.—(Tuesday—12:80 a. m.)—The war office at midnight announced that it had nothing further for publication from South Africa.

In the lobbies of the house of commons last evening, however, it was rumored that Gen. Cronje's army was surrounded, that Gen. French had got between the Boer forces and Bloemfontein, and that he was only waiting reinforcements to close in on the enemy.

No confirmation of this rumor is obtainable, although the general idea is that the government has received important dispatches.

ant dispatches.

Capture of Monte Christo.

London, Feb. 19.—(3:80 p. m.)—The war office has received the following dispatch from Gen. Buller:

"Chieveley Camp, Feb. 19.—Lyesterday moved around the enemy's flank. The Queen's, who had bivonacked on the northern slope of Cingolo crossed the nek and supported by the rest of the second brigade, under Hildyard, assaulted and took the southern end of Monte Christo."

> How He Knew His "White Folks." Atlanta Constitution

One of the old-time southern negroes went to Boston to make his fortune. After a week of walking up and down he found himself penniless and no work in sight. Then he went from house to house.

"El you please, suh," he began when his ring at the front door was answered, "Can't you give a po' culled man work ter do or something ter ent? And the polite answer invariably was,

"No: Mister,-very sorry, but have nothing for you." Every one who answered his, ring addressed him as "Mr.." but shut their doors and hearts against him. Finally he rang the bell at a brownstone front. Agentleman appeared and the old man began:

"Boss, I's starvin'. Can't you gimme some vittles?"

"You darned black, kinkey-headed rascall" exclaimed the gentleman. "How dare you ring the bell at my front door? Go round the back yard way to the kitchen and the cook'll give you something, you black—."

But just there the old man fell on his knees, exclaiming:

"Thank de Lawd, I foun' my own white folks at last! Thank de Lawd, I foun' 'em-I foun' 'em!"
