WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 4, 1900.

M. H. E. Shaw will address a meeting at Edwards' bridge next Friday night, when a White Supremacy club will be organized.

Deputy Collector J. E. Cameron requests us to state, for the benefit of those interested, that a good many people in the country make cider and adulterate and label it under different names. All who do so are liable to $25 tax. Only pure cider is exempted.

Lehr & Williams' Comedy Co. presented last night at the opera house the laughable comedy "Pug, or Escaped from Sing Sing," to a fair sized audience. All who attended were immensely pleased. They will present tonight "Triss, or Beyond the Rockies," a western border drama in four acts.

A special train will be run on the A. & N. C. railroad to Raleigh on April 11th, for the benefit of those who wish to attend the meeting of the Democratic State convention. Fare for round trip from Kinston to Goldsboro will be 80 cents; from Goldsboro to Raleigh and return, $2.50. The special train leaves Kinston at 5:37 a. m., arriving at Raleigh at 8:51.

Advertisements point the way to commercial bargains. The spring shopping has begun, and careful buyers peruse the columns of their favorite newspaper before starting out to make purchases. With the special qualities of goods explained to them in well worded advertisements, shopping is made easy, pleasant and satisfactory.—Philadelphia Record.

Kinston lodge, No. 174, I. O. O. F., has decided to hold its anniversary celebration meeting Wednesday night, April 25. An invitation to attend has been extended to the Snow Hill lodge. An appropriate address to the occasion will be delivered by Mr. Plato Collins, after which the members will banquet. The Kinston lodge of Odd Fellows has grown to such an extent that all the members do not know each other, and it is desired that all of the members be in attendance and become more intimately acquainted.

Some of the trees in front and on the side of the new Baptist church are being cut down and the remainder trimmed of all their branches. The seats for the church are being put up, and the first sermon in the church will be delivered on Sunday, April 15th. The interior of the church is arranged in a splendid manner. The floor slants gradually upward in every direction from the pulpit, which is in the center of the east side of the building. The seats are of oak and are very fine. The windows are magnificent. The ceiling and walls are of oak finish and beautifully designed. The church is handsome on the outside, but the inside is beautiful and perfect from every point of view. We understand that, while the men had charge of building the church, the ladies took control of completing the interior, and the interior is the best part of it.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The Great Newbern Fair.

Raleigh Post.
 We are but doing our duty to our up-country friends in reminding them that the Fish, Game and Agricultural fair at Newbern takes place on the 16-21 of this month. The exhibits made on these occasions, and this year it is promised they will exceed all former occasions—are a revelation, instructive and suggestive, to all not residents of the sea-coast and to North Carolinians a source of great State pride. The boundless resources of our State are not to be appreciated by any mere description that can be given; each section from the Tennessee state line to the sound-washed shores where old ocean vies with terra firma in contributing to the wealth and comfort of the citizen, possesses advantages peculiar to itself. These must be seen to be approximately appreciated. The fair at Newbern reflects well, fully we should say, the resources, agricultural as well as industrial, the products of the water, as well as of the air—fish and fowl—of our entire eastern and coast section. Every citizen who can do so should spend a day or more at this fair. Such will be more than repaid for so doing.

The Best Prescription for Chills and Fever is a bottle of Groves' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price, 25c.

Good printing at low prices. THE FREE PRESS furnishes it.

TIRED OF BEING ANNOYED.

Former Republican Wants Butler's Literature Sent to Negroes.

Raleigh Post.
 LaGrange N. C., April 2.—The following letter was handed me for publication, and the writer expressed the wish that all Democratic papers in the State copy:

LaGrange, N. C., April 2.
 Hon. Marion Butler, Washington, D. C.:
 I was in the Confederate war; I was a Union man, opposed to the war. After the war I took sides with the Republican party until 1898, then I changed my party affiliations, it being time for white men to stand together. I am in full fellowship with the Democrats in favor of the amendment, I hope you will not annoy me with any more of your literature; better send it to the coons.
 F. B. FIELDS.

Not a Political Office.

Charlotte Observer.
 In a letter in the Raleigh News-Observer of Sunday, Superintendent of Public Instruction Mebane says:

"I see in your paper that certain correspondents are emphasizing the fact that the Democratic party is under no obligation to me. I wish to say to all such that I am glad to know, that, in looking back over my term of office, is found the fact that no political party is under any obligation to me for party service; that whatever service I have rendered, though public it be, I have tried to render it honestly and conscientiously to the children of this State."

That rings right. It will be an evil day for the children of the State when this office is given to any man as a reward for his services to any party.
