FRIDAY EVENING, June 29, 1900.

Mr. W. C. Fields is having improvements made around his residence on King street.

Mr. W. H. Hill, of Trent, reports that he has cured the first barn of tobacco this season that he has heard of.

Mr. H. F. Seawell, Populist, spoke in the court house this afternoon to a full house, about half of his audience being negroes.

The Sunday school excursion to Morehead City this morning was crowded. It is estimated that close to 1,000 people left Kinston on it.

News was received here today that Mrs. Council Davenport, of Jones county, died last night. She leaves a husband and a week-old child.

Bob Glenn spoke yesterday at Seven Springs to about 400 people. His speech was strong and forcible and did much good for the cause of White Supremacy.

Mr. C. T. Randolph has commenced the building of an annex to his present brick building on Queen street. As soon as finished he will have his shops complete at one location.

Mess. W. L. Kennedy and J. F. Mewborne caught fifteen large drum fish at Morehead Wednesday and a large number of sheep head. Mr. Mewborne sent a box of fish up here yesterday.

Mr. B. B. Wooten, of Ayden, who is the son of Mr. J. F. Wooten, of this place, and formerly lived at Kinston, is very dangerously ill with meningitis. He has many friends here who hope for his recovery.

Mr. A. S. Wooten has resigned as registrar in Kinston precinct No. 2, and Mr. J. T. Cockrell has been appointed in his place. The books will now be open at the A. C. L. depot, except Saturdays, when they will be kept at the Atlantic warehouse.

Sheriff B. W. Edwards, of Greene county, yesterday brought the negro rapist, Isaac Harris, from the Snow Hill jail and lodged him in the jail at Kinston. This was done to prevent the possibility of a lynching, as the people of Greene county were justly aroused.

There is no better judge of the value of publicity than the advertiser. He pays for it. The successful merchant recognizes the power of the press, and takes advantage of it to influence the public. This great power lies within the reach of all. No man has a monopoly of opportunity.—Philadelphia Record.

Married.

Mr. Azor Ellis and Mrs. Mollie Pate, both of Kinston, were married last night at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Alice Hemby, by Dr. H. D. Harper.

FOUNTAIN HILL ITEMS.

June 27, 1900.

Some of our farmers began laying-by crops this week.

Mr. T. G. Watford went to Kinston last Saturday and returned Sunday.

Mr. Billy Ormond, of near Ormondville, visited his parents here Sunday.

Mr. Jim Brooks, of Grifton, visited his uncle, Mr. Henry Brooks, last Sunday.

Mr. George McLawhon and sister, Miss Ola, were visiting Miss Mamie Barker Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Bland, of Grifton, visited her father, Mr. Chas. Odham, Saturday and returned Monday.

Mrs. Lon Pridgen and Misses Ebbie and Rosa Hooten were visiting at Mr. John Hooten's last Saturday and Sunday.

Last Sunday was rather a rainy day, but nevertheless Bro. Alonzo Edwards preached a good sermon at Edwards' Chapel.

NEW REGISTRATION.

An Entire New Registration is Required. Books Open Thursday, June 28th, and Close July 21st.

Beginning on Thursday, June 28th, the registration books will be opened and every elector must register, as an entire new registration is necessary.

The books open at 9 o'clock a. m., on above date and close at sunset Saturday, July 21, 1900.

The books are to be kept open each day (except Sunday) between the hours of nine o'clock a. m. and sunset.

On Saturday, June 30, Saturday, July 14, and Saturday, July 21, the registrar is required to attend at the polling places in his precinct with his books for the registration of voters.

The registrar is required to attend at the polling place in his precinct on Saturday, July 28, 1900, for the purpose of allowing an inspection of his books and entering any challenges that may be made.

But challenges may be made on the day of election.

No registration can be allowed after July 21, 1900, unless the person offering to register has become qualified since that date, and in that event he may register on election day.

Two robbers attempted to break into the People's National Bank at Martinsville, Va., Wednesday night. They saw a night policeman and fled, leaving their dynamite, caps and powder. The officer fired at them, but they escaped.

Call at J. E. Hood's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are an elegant physic. They also improve the appetite, strengthen the digestion and regulate the liver and bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parham returned yesterday from Raleigh.

Mr. J. W. Grainger returned this morning from Morehead City.

Mr. B. F. Nunn and two children, of Wilson, were in Kinston yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ashford and child returned this morning from Newbern.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ellis went to Winterville this morning. They will return tonight.

Mrs. J. C. Wooten left this morning for Ayden to visit Mr. B. B. Wooten, who is very sick.

Mrs. J. H. Griffith and little daughter left this morning to visit her parents at Alexandria, Va.

Miss Bessie Garris, who had been visiting at Mr. W. H. Claytor's, returned to her home near Ayden this morning.

Miss Lottie Wood, of Falling Creek, who had been visiting Miss Beatrice Rayner, returned home this morning, Miss Beatrice accompanying her.

Mess. H. T. Knott and Frank Quinerly went to Winterville this morning to the big Democratic rally and barbecue there today. Hon. R. B. Glenn spent last night in Kinston and left this morning for Winterville.

Died.

Mr. Wm. Tyndal died in East Kinston Wednesday night and was buried in the cemetery yesterday afternoon. He moved to Kinston from Onslow county. He left a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Miss Bettie Tuton, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tuton, died at her home in Kinston last night, of bilious fever. The remains were interred in the cemetery this afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is a very sad death indeed. She was a bright and promising young woman and had been sick only a short time. The family has our sincere sympathy.
