MONDAY EVENING, Oct. 1, 1900.

Cotton sold in Kinston at 10% cents to-day.

There were big tobacco sales on the Kinston market today, especially for Monday.

Tickets were sold to 47 people at Kinston yesterday to people who spent the day at Morehead.

Fifteen car loads of cotton and tobacco were shipped from Kinston on the A. & N. C. R. R. Saturday.

Those participating in the Old Maids' convention are requested to meet in the opera house tonight at 7:30.

Rev. W. G. Johnson closed a meeting at Richlands last Friday. The results were six additions to the church by confession and baptism.

Electric lights were turned on at the Christian church last night for the first time. They are neatly arranged and made a pretty showing. There was one addition by letter to the church at this service.

The Sunday school conference that had been in session at LaGrange adjourned Saturday. This session of the conference was the best yet held, and was largely attended. Many people from Kinston attended.

We were told this morning by people who are in a position to know, that Simmons will carry Lenoir by a big majority. Mr. J. G. Cox said every man he had seen today favored Simmons, and he talked with quite a number.

Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Tuttle and two children returned from LaGrange this morning. Mr. Tuttle filled the pulpit at the M. E. church there yesterday. Rev. W. S. Rone preached at the Kinston church yesterday, both morning and night.

Charles Albert, 13-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. K. Bagby, died this morning at 9 o'clock, of bronchitis. The burial service will be held at the house at 10:30 tomorrow morning, and the burial will take place immediately after at the cemetery.

The meeting that had been in progress at Sandy Bottom, conducted by Revs. D. H. Tuttle, W. A. Jenkins and J. B. Webb, closed yesterday. A church will be erected at that place. Rev. Mr. Jenkins left on the morning train for his home at Goldsboro.

There was a runaway on Queen street Saturday evening. A mule hitched to a cart, and without a driver, went plunging down the street at a furious gait, scattering portions of the cart in many places, running into other vehicles and creating much excitement.

The mayor had more cases before him last week than in any week for quite a while. Chief of Police Rouse informs us that he had 12 cases before Mayor Webb during the week—the fines amounting to $25. The three other police also did a rushing business, so the town treasury was considerably helped last week.

Mayor Webb had another busy day Saturday. Mr. Judge Perry was fined $2 and costs for drunkenness. Mr. Haskell Perry was fined $2 and costs for being drunk and using profane language. Mr. E. E. Rouse and Mr. C. K. Bailey's case came up Friday afternoon. Mr. Bailey was found not guilty. Mr. Rouse had to pay the costs. Mr. Jeff Hill was up for an affray Saturday morning—fined $2 and costs.

Mr. Thomas Singleton was found dead at his gate in Duplin county, on Tuesday morning, Sept. 25th. He was a good and clever man, loved by all who knew him. He had started to town with a load of produce about 3 o'clock, and about 5 o'clock his wife found him at the gate dead. Hart disease caused his death. He was 38 years of age. He leaves a wife and mother and many friends to mourn their loss.

Last year chrysanthemum shows were held all over the country, several being held in the larger North Carolina cities. There is no reason why Kinston should not have a show of the pretty Japanese flowers. We may not have as big a population as other cities but the flower-loving women of Kinston raise just as large chrysanthemums as anybody. Bring out the flowers in November and let the people see them.

The firm of Temple-Marston Drug Co. has been dissolved, Mr. E. B. Marston purchasing the interest of Dr. R. H. Temple. The business will be continued by Mr. Marston under the same firm name. Mr. J. L. Harwood, of Wilson, a registered pharmacist, of five years' experience, will have charge of the prescription counter. Dr. Temple left this morning for New York, where he will take a two-months, post graduate course. He will then resume the practice of medicine.

We learn that a fatal accident occurred Saturday morning at Mr. Calvin Tucker's gin, about three miles from Grifton, by the explosion of the boiler. One negro employe was killed outright, and an-
