The New Bern base ball team was beaten by the Aurora team yesterday by a score of 13 to 0. Loyd Wooten pitched for Aurora and played a matchless game. Only one hit was made off him and he struck out over twenty men.

It is not likely that the interested parties will forget the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening. But this is to remind them that it will be a very important one and as there will be a great deal of business to be transacted it will be a long meeting and should therefore begin early.

Mr. Brantley Kennedy of Deep Run, was in Kinston today, and said the crops in his section have nearly doubled in value in the last two weeks. The tobacco on his own farm has been picked four times, and Mr. Kennedy thinks that there is as much there now as ever.

Mr. Thos. L. Willingham, special agent of the Union Central Life Insurance Co., of Cincinnati, delivered to Mrs. Nora O. Taylor, a check for $1924.21 in payment of a policy held by her on the life of Capt. J. D. Taylor, whose tragic death recently was recorded in the columns of The Free Press.

J. H. Hawkins, L. D. Merritt and Lewis Mason, colored, were before Mayor Webb this morning charged with a breach of the peace by engaging in an affray. The evidence showed a general mix-up in which Mason was struck on the mouth by Merritt, presumably with a chair at which stage of the affray Hawkins took a hand and forced Merritt away from Mason and into a ditch, where they fell together, Hawkins on top, who proceeded to pummel Merritt on the head and shoulders with his fist.

Prof. A. J. Barwick came yesterday evening from Goldsboro but returned this morning. He will stay here until about Sept. 1st preparing several young ladies and men for college this fall.

Messrs. L. V. Morrill of Snow Hill, and G. H. Simmons of Catherine Lake, have been appointed by Governor Aycock as delegates to the National Prison association, which meets in Philadelphia Sept. 13-17.

The telegraph pole near the A. & N. C. R. R. depot on Queen street, which was nearly in the middle of the street, has been moved a few feet closer to the sidewalk, a new pole being put in place of the old one.

Miss Cora Lee, daughter of Mr. Sam Lee, died yesterday at noon of typhoid fever. The flower had hardly blossomed in womanhood when it withered and died. She was only twenty years of age. The remains were interred today at Holy Innocent's Chapel near Seven Springs.

Lenoir, Greene and Craven counties are among the forty-two counties in the state which have taken advantage of the state's offer to help in establishing six free rural libraries in the different townships. Most of the counties only got one or two libraries, and some have not even taken enough interest to get one.

The East Carolina Land and Improvement company advertises fine city lots for sale. All the lots of Mr. J. W. Grainger are placed in the hands of this company. If you desire a nice lot see this company before buying.

In a case up before W. F. Dibble, J. P., yesterday in which J. W. Hood was suing the Atlantic Warehouse for the recovery of the amount of two piles of tobacco said to have been lost in that warehouse last September, judgment was found for defendants. The plaintiff waived notice and took appeal to the superior court.

Miss Grace Herring returned from visiting at Rocky Mount and Goldsboro this morning.

Messrs. R. E. Cox, Sam Cockrell and Lloyd Wooten returned from New Bern last night.

Mr. Paul M. Hood of New Bern, spent last night in Kinston, and went to Goldsboro this morning.
