MONDAY EVENING, Feb. 9, 1913.

There will be no preaching at M. E. church tonight, as previously announced.

The Round Table Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. Hickson, Jr., tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Cinders are being used on some of the muddy street crossings to good effect, relieving the conditions some.

Shad are beginning to be a little more in evidence on our streets now, the prices ranging from $1 to $1.50 a pair for buckets. No roe shad have been on the market yet.

Mayor Webb disposed of two drunks early this morning. One, a negro from LaGrange, named Barnes, who was drunk at the depot Saturday night, and Andrew Glover, who was unusually boisterous last night on North street, was fined $10 and cost.

We are requested to announce that Elder J. E. Howard will hold his first quarterly meeting at deep Run church on the third Saturday and Sunday in February. The public is cordially invited. Also we are requested to state that there will be preaching at the old church at Woodington the fourth Sunday in this month at 11 o'clock a. m.

Sign boards found nailed on the electric light poles yesterday morning bearing such injunctions as "Keep off the mud," "No fishing allowed," "Steamboats every thirty minutes," and others of like nature created more or less merriment. The condition of the streets were very muddy, which was the occasion for the funmakers to get in their work.

Three cars loaded with logs belonging to the Hines Bros. Lumber company were burned Friday night on the siding three miles below Dover. The train, of which these three cars were a part, contained seven or eight cars, but the wind blew the flames to the rear of the train which saved the balance of the cars. It was undoubtedly the work of incendiaries, as kerosene was found to have been used.

Saturday night the Coast Line freight engine in making a shift struck Mr. Jas. F. Parrott's dray, almost demolishing it and shaking up the colored man who was driving, pretty badly. The horse became frightened and ran away when looked from the dray. It was after night fall and it came near being a fatal accident to the driver of the dray, who bears marks of the thumps he got in the shake-up.

Mr. Jim Cox, son of Mr. Fred Cox, who is interested in the still on Adkin Hill, suffered a painful accident this afternoon in which the index finger of his right hand was driven back into his hand, causing a very painful dislocation. Considerable trouble was experienced by the doctors in getting the finger back into its place. He was driving a wagon in which was a load of empty barrels and was sitting on one of them, and on crossing the railroad track it caused the barrels to rock, throwing Mr. Cox from the wagon. He threw out his hand to protect himself in the fall with the result as above stated.

Ed Dixon colored, was sent to jail today in default of $100 bond required of him by Mayor Webb for his appearance at the next term of superior court. Dixon was tried under a warrant charging him with assault with a deadly weapon, namely a shotgun, on Scipio Locks about last Christmas, in which Locks was shot in the shoulder. FREE PRESS readers will remember that several colored boys were hunting during the holidays, when some of the boys began joking Dixon, who is a hunchback, among the crowd Scipio Locks, and Dixon became so enraged that he shot Locks, the load entering the shoulder and causing a dangerous wound from which he has just recovered sufficiently to be out today for the trial.

Eli Moore was tried before Justice J. G. Cox Saturday afternoon for the murder of Henry Arnold, last week on Mr. Doc Wallace's place. The main facts in the case have been given in THE FREE PRESS already, except that according to the evidence which developed in the trial Saturday, after the shooting, Moore jumped on Arnold and beat him with his fist until he was driven off by Arnold's father. Old man Arnold tried to get Moore off Henry Arnold, but failing by moral suasion, he took up the gun that Moore had fired the fatal shot with and struck Moore on the arm with it, causing him to leave off beating Henry Arnold. Moore was remanded to jail until Justice Cox makes his decision, which was reserved until today. Bail will probably be accepted for Moore if he can give a good bond, as the circumstances show a mutual willingness on the part of the men to kill each other, making it manslaughter, which is bailable. Old man Arnold was bound over to court for assault.

Gudger-Moody Contest Will Continue. Asheville, Feb. 6.—The Moody-Gudger contest will go on regardless of the death of the contestant. Testimony was being taken today and will be continued tomorrow, while the funeral of the principal in the contest is taking place at Waynesville. This strange procedure is necessary, the contestant's attorney says in order to maintain the contest.

The Easy Pill.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers do not gripe nor weaken the system. They cure biliousness, jaundice, constipation and inactive livers, by arousing the secretions, moving the bowels gently, yet effectively, and giving such tone and strength to the glands of the stomach, liver and bowels that the cause of the trouble is removed entirely. These famous little pills exert a decided tonic effect upon the organs involved, and if their use is continued for a few days there will be no return of the trouble. F. H. Hood.

Christian Science Legislation.

THE FREE PRESS has been requested to publish the following in regard to a bill before the New Hampshire legislature. The extract is from the Concord N. H. Daily Monitor.

"Bill to prohibit practice of Christian Science was reported adversely from committee and buried by large vote in the house.

"An act in relation to the practice of Christian Science. Inexpedient to legislate.

"Mr. Abbott of Manchester said that a requested hearing on this bill had been denied by the committee on judiciary and he moved that the bill be re-committed.

"Mr. Nason, of Dover, said the committee felt justified in refusing to waste time over this bill, which he read. The committee does not feel that constitutional rights or beliefs should be denied to Christian Scientists or any one else.

"Mr. Abbott said the bill was intended to protect children and others. The hearing denied is simply a matter of courtesy, which the ridicule of the bill certainly is not.

"Mr. Buckley, of Lancaster, said it would do no good to recommit the bill. The time of the committee is fully taken up and should not be wasted. He said that personally he was opposed to Christian Science, but was also opposed to such an insult to a large body of good people as this bill contemplates. To recommit it will be to provoke a long and costly battle.

"Mr. Cavanaugh, of Manchester, thought no member should be denied the privilege and courtesy of a committee hearing.

"Mr. Abbott's motion prevailed and the bill was re-committed on a viva voce vote.

"Mr. Ahern, of Concord, called for a division and took the floor.

"He said he was not a Christian Scientist and did not believe in that form of worship. But he was convinced that this bill had had sufficient consideration and that no good would come from recommitment.

"The division resulted: Yes, 70; no, 194, and the motion was lost.

"The resolution of the committee that it was inexpedient to legislate was adopted on a viva voce vote."

UTLEY SURRENDERS.

Says That He Escaped Unaided from The Jail at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C. Feb. 6.—Ed. L. Utley's voluntary surrender to the authorities this morning caused a sensation equal to his escape. His insanity is now generally conceded.

Utley says no outsider assisted him, that the locks were opened by a device of his own invention. He exonerates the jailer fully, saying that he simply let himself out and walked away. Near Wakulla, in Robeson county, he bought a horse to be called for later. He returned at night, and having read a newspaper account of his escape, realized that the jailer, who had befriended him in prison, was disgraced. On this account he made himself known to his host, a farmer named J. H. McGirt, gave him his pistol and a large sum of money and agreed to pay the expense of both back to Fayetteville.

Utley says he walked out of the jail at 10 o'clock Monday night and traveled on foot all that night. The next day and night he spent in a swamp. He is silent as to his whereabouts on Wednesday night. Thursday he spent in a swamp, and that night he stayed with McGirt, from whom he bought the horse.

At eleven o'clock today while the sheriff and a posse were out on a supposed clue, he entered the sheriff's office and entertained Col. Cook and others for an hour before the officers returned. Utley is now in his old cell, which has been furnished with new locks. McGirt, who accompanied him, does not claim any reward, although a total of $1,000 was offered for Utley's arrest.
