BANK OF KINSTON.—Statement.
KORNBAY.—Harrisburg Slippers.
CITIZENS SAVINGS BANK.—Statement.

Phone subscribers will please add to their lists No. 273, W. T. Fields & Co., store, and No. 263, the Elk's lodge rooms.

The Odd Fellows will run their annual excursion to Seven Springs Thursday on the steamer Goldsboro. A delightful time is anticipated by all.

As good a baseball team as Goldsboro can get will be down here tomorrow to play the Kinston team. Game will be called at 4 o'clock, p. m. Go out and "root" for the boys.

Mr. Chas. S. Andrews, who received such painful injuries yesterday by being kicked by a horse on the side of his head, is somewhat better today. Mr. Andrews was partially deaf before the accident, but could hear better with one ear than he could with the other. The good ear was the one injured yesterday, causing almost total deafness.

The Masonic entertainment which was scheduled for Thursday night has been postponed till Friday night, the 24th inst., on account of the Odd Fellows' picnic to Seven Springs, Thursday. The entertainment will be an event to amusement lovers and the proceeds will go to the local lodge of Masons, a worthy cause. Go and take your families. Reserved seats for sale at Hood's drug store, on Wednesday.

A remarkable thing occurred yesterday in the primary for the nomination of aldermen. A certain young man on his way to the polls stopped at a merchant's place to ask the merchant to join him in going to vote. They both live in the same ward and were undecided as to who to vote for, alderman, and threw up a penny to decide the matter for them. Head for one man and tail for the other. Tail came up and the men voted for the candidate which it represented, and the remarkable part of it is that the candidate voted for by these two men was elected by two majority.

The health of our community is good. This morning the farmers are out with all their force setting tobacco plants.

Rev. Mansfield preached at Bethany yesterday. He is a tireless worker. We predict good revivals on Dover circuit.

Two gentlemen from Kinston have been down prospecting about our bridge across Neuse river. It will be a great benefit to Kinston and to us.

W. Closs West has launched out in the mercantile business, making two stores in our community. He also has set out over 200 fruit trees besides walnut in his orchard. Makes a fine appearance on Kinston road.

HOLLY BRANCH ITEMS.

April 20.

We are having nice weather now.

Mrs. W. H. Ormond is visiting her parents.

Mr. Odell White visited Mr. A. S. Powell, Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. John White and Bryant Griffin visited Mr. B. F. Ormond, Sunday.

A terrible hail storm visited our neighborhood last Wednesday afternoon, but not much damage was done.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ormond and sister, Miss Mamie, attended church at Ft. Barnwell Sunday, being guests of Mrs. L. H. Fields.

Too Great a Risk.

A reliable remedy for bowel complaints should always be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy never fails and when induced with water is pleasant to use. For sale by J. E. Hood.

AS THEY COME AND GO.

These Were Seen at the Train, Coming and Going.

Mrs. E. E. Rouse returned last night from Grifton.

Mr. George Dall came yesterday from Newbern.

ADAMS SCHOOL HOUSE ITEMS.

April 20, 1903.

Messrs. J. B. and Forney Huffman are about through setting out tobacco plants.

Mr. I. A. Scott and wife are spending some time visiting friends in Richlands, among whom is Mr. J. H. Aman.

We had a white frost the other morning, and some ice. It injured tobacco plants very much both in bed and patch.

Mr. T. A. Marshburn expects to go to Kinston this week with about 2,000 pounds of fine bacon. Mr. Marshburn is a good farmer and a good man too.

Prof. Walter Thompson lectured Saturday night, April 18th, on the subject of education at Adams School House. His speech was highly appreciated.

Mr. Scott Brown, of this county, has an 18-months-old son who is a wonder. He can drive nails with a hammer as well as any man can. He has never been known to mash his fingers.

On the 14th inst. we had a tornado to pass through our neighborhood. It did much damage, blowing down trees, demolishing fences and gardens and injuring houses. It unroofed Mr. E. L. Marshburn's corn barn.

The Inevitable Issue.

Atlanta Constitution.

The Brooklyn Eagle remarks by way of warning that the Republicans "will find themselves put on the aggressive or defensive, both this year and next year, on tariff questions, and they will do well to choose which role betimes. The issue," the Eagle declares, "will not be postponed. It will not be silenced. We do not presume that any Republican statesman expects to avoid the tariff issue."

The Republicans have chosen their role, and it is the defensive one. The last vestige of honest resentment toward that part of the tariff which "protects" nothing but the trusts in their fleecing of the consuming public has been wheeled or browbeaten into silence, so far as administration influence is concerned, and the surrender is to be complete, if not unconditional.

To use a popular modernism, the administration itself has enjoined the "Iowa idea" to "go way back and sit down." Secretary Shaw, himself from Iowa, echoes the "stand pat" dictum when he tells the Hawkeye malcontents dictatorially that revision is out of the question, adding with a flagrant disregard for the truth of political history: "There has never been an attempt to amend a protective tariff law that has not been met by the well-nigh universal demand to let it alone." Secretary Root is scolding the same keynote on the stump. As for President Roosevelt, from the time he underwent that surgical operation in the last Congress, he has undergone experiences calculated to make him sing low on tariff changes and reciprocity. Lo, what a docile lambkin the strenuous lion of reform has become!

Bishop Satterlee on Divorce.

Washington, April 19.—"The Jews are preserving the homes and family better than we Christians are doing, do not know how to account for this, but I do know it to be a fact." Bishop Satterlee, of the Episcopal church, made this declaration in a sermon tonight in which the main subject was divorce. "Men," said the bishop, "are losing respect for the home and caring less for the family—this unit of our civilization. On the shoulders of the husbands and fathers of the land," he continued, "rests the responsibility for the low estate to which the family has fallen in this country. This fostered and encouraged the greatest curse of the age, divorce, and the loose manner in which the sacred marriage vows were being kept.

"The great evil—the most frightful danger—of our age is divorce and the breaking down of the family institution," said the bishop. "It is not stopped women of this country and of our race will be degraded within fifty years."

Ohio Convention.

Columbus, O., April 18.—It was decided recently by the Republican leaders that their state convention should be held June 9 and 10. Everybody was satisfied except one woman, and she appears to hold the whip hand. She is Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of the senator. Her marriage to Joseph McCormick is scheduled for June 10, and the Republicans of the state will be asked to postpone the state convention for a week so as not to interfere with the wedding.

There is a disposition to hold the convention earlier than the first date fixed on, and the indications are that it will be held June 2 and 3, or May 25 and 26.

The chamber of commerce, of Glasgow enthusiastically passed a resolution favoring a treaty of peace between Great Britain and France.
