The annual dinner for the Confederate veterans will be given on June 3rd, President Davis' birthday.

All who attend the memorial services in the Baptist church next Sunday are requested to bring as many flowers as possible for the purpose of decorating the soldiers' graves.

Miss Laura Kirby returned from Greensboro this morning. She, as president of the North Carolina Association for the Betterment of Public Schools, presided at the convention of educators in that city, this week.

THE FREE PRESS was in error yesterday in saying that the old post office building would be occupied by the White Furniture company. The building will be occupied by W. T. Mercer & Co., furniture dealers.

From The Insurance Press, of New York, it is learned that the amount of money paid to beneficiaries, presumably from old line life insurance companies, in Kinston, during the year 1902, was $14,000. The amount paid to people in the State was $1,603,749.

Mr. G. W. Knott received a message last night from Oxford stating that Mrs. Sophia Hobgood, mother of Mrs. Knott, suffered a stroke of paralysis there yesterday and died last night. Mr. and Mrs. Knott and children left this morning for Oxford to attend the funeral.

The Baptist Sunday school left this morning at 7:20 on the steamer Goldsboro for Seven Springs for their annual picnic. The boat was comfortably filled and a pleasant time is anticipated by all as the weather is fine for picnicing. No tickets were sold because the Sunday school required all of the room on the boat for their number. The steamer will return this evening about 7 o'clock.

Mr. Emanuel Jarman brought to THE FREE PRESS office last night a bundle of hall, larger than a man's fist gathered from the ground last Monday, in the Richlands section, after the severe hail storm which passed over that section. The ball of hall consisted of a number of hall stones collected together and preserved from Monday until Wednesday night. The storm did considerable damage to crops near Richlands.

Mr. Derwood Outlaw and Policeman Ed White, of Dover, brought to Kinston last night a negro arrested there yesterday evening, for being disorderly, and placed him in jail at this place for safe keeping, last night. The negro was a pretty desperate character, having recently been released from serving a long term in the penitentiary, for killing a woman he says. While Policeman White was arresting another man yesterday evening, this one interfered by cursing and talking in a way to incite resistance and Mr. White attempted to arrest him. The negro backed off and drew a pistol and a razor, so it was said, and was in the act of cutting the policeman when help came up and aided the policeman, got the negro to the town lock-up. Quite a crowd of colored people gathered and it was feared that there might be trouble if the negro remained in Dover last night and he was brought here. Mr. Outlaw carried him back to Dover this morning where he will be tried today.

Officers Sworn In.

The newly elected mayor and board of aldermen were sworn in this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Justice of the Peace L. J. Newborne.

Those present of the newly elected officers who qualified were: Mr. N. J. Rouse, mayor; Messrs. H. E. Mosley, W. D. LaRoque, Jr., J. C. Wagner, J. H. Ellis and J. A. McDaniel, aldermen.

Mr. J. W. Lynch, alderman-elect of the first ward, was unavoidably absent, being called out of town.

The mayor and board, after being sworn in, organized and adjourned without transacting any official business out of courtesy to Alderman-elect J. W. Lynch, who was absent, and who will return tomorrow. This being the initial meeting of the board, and matters of importance to be transacted, those present thought best to wait until a full meeting of the board to attend to them.

Quite Different.

From the train from Goldsboro this morning alighted two baseball teams, one of white boys and one of colored boys, who had been chasing the "pig-skin" on Goldsboro's field.

On the faces of the colored "wagon tongue artists" were depleted evidences of glory a plenty, but—well those white boys didn't stay at the train long and no one could be seen later who had been to Goldsboro at all. The news leaked out, however, that the score was 8 to 2, and Kinston didn't get the game either. 'Twas a hard blow, but our boys are young and will recover.

The colored team from this place took three straight from the Goldsboro aggregation, yesterday's being a complete rout, with the score 20 to 7.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

In the Baptist Church Next Sunday Afternoon at 4 O'clock.

Memorial services will be held in the Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, May 10th, at 4 o'clock. A sermon appropriate to the occasion will be preached by Rev. Davis, of the Methodist church, who will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. E. D. Brown and Rev. P. B. Hall.

After the exercises a line of march will be formed; and the Daughters of the Confederacy, the two military companies, the school children and any of the congregation, who wish to participate, will proceed to the cemetery, where the graves of the honored Confederate dead will be decorated.

Judge W. R. Allen.

The following appreciative estimate of Judge W. R. Allen, brother of our townsman, Judge O. H. Allen, is taken from the Oxford Public Ledger:

We have known but few judges who, in our opinion, were so well equipped for the high position as Judge Wm. R. Allen, who held the last two terms of Granville superior court. In this opinion we believe both the people and the bar concur as he is very popular with both. He has a well-balanced legal mind. His thoughts and expressions are never "muddy." His mind is strong, clear and coherent. His diction is finished and yet plain, so that everybody understands him. He never tries to make a show of his learning, but always goes straight to the mark, which is true, we think, of the really good jurists. He has a mind of his own because he knows the law. While on the bench he seldom refers to the books, but seems to have the law at ready command from memory. The editor was especially impressed with his charge to the grand jury. Every sentence of it was clear and impressive and could not possibly be misunderstood, and yet there was no needless repetition. His charges to the petit jury were comprehensive and covered every point of the evidence and were made without the notes. To both sides he was eminently fair, as all attorneys of our bar will agree.

His demeanor on the bench is always dignified and becoming. While never severe he maintains the best order in his court. He does not have to ask for order, but commands the respect which always secures it. Perhaps his strongest quality is that he thinks for himself and allows no influence to swerve him from the course of justice. While this is true he is never unkind or harsh to attorneys or others, but is glad to give them all a patient hearing. He is sympathetic, but at the same time believes that crime must be punished.

Mrs. J. E. Patrick Dead.

Mrs. J. E. Patrick, wife of Dr. Patrick, of Snow Hill, died Tuesday night and was buried yesterday afternoon at the Patrick family burying ground in Institute township, this county.

Mrs. Patrick was formerly Miss Lewis, of Littleton, and was married to Dr. Patrick in January of 1902. She was an estimable lady and loved by all who knew her.

A number of friends and relatives throughout the State and country mourn her death, among them a sister in New York, who was apprised of her death but could not reach here in time to witness the last sad rites.

Marriage in Greene County.

LaGrange, May 6.—Mr. Lloyd Davis and Miss Sallie Walters, of this place were married last night by Mr. Charlie Swinson, J. P., in Greene county, near the Lenoir county line. May the sunshine of happiness illumine their pathway over the trackless sea of matrimony.

Don't send for any plumber, no matter how urgent the need for one may be. A rash order may result in nothing more than a promise to send a man around. Take the time—a minute or two longer, perhaps—to communicate with us. Then the job is as good as done and "done good." We are the plumbers who never promise unless we can perform and never fail to perform well.
