Love is Lapsland.
In Lapland the crime which, after murder, is punished with the greatest severity is that of marrying a girl against the wishes of her parents. When a suitor makes his appearance she says nothing to the maiden, who often does not know who he is, but her parents inform her that she is sought in marriage. Shortly afterward, on a day appointed, the girl, her parents, friends and suitor all meet together at a feast, and the young man and maiden are placed opposite, so that they can look at each other freely and can talk with comfort. After the meal is over the company repair to an open space, where "the race for a wife" is run. The usual distance is about a quarter of a mile, and the girl is placed a third of the distance from the starting point. If she be fleet of foot she can easily reach the goal before her suitor, and in that case he may never trouble her again. If, however, he has found favor in her eyes, all she has to do is to lag somewhat in her flight, so that he may overtake her. If she desires to intimate to him that his love for her is returned she may run a little way and then turn with open arms to accept him.

English For French Tongues.
Persons who have worried through a "French Manual" may get some satisfaction from the thought that with their own language they are revenged upon the Parisian. "Methods Avec Prononciation" is a little book which makes straight the way of the English language for French tongues. Does one wish to say, "How is it, miss; one so charming and pretty walking alone?" (which, of course, would be one of the first remarks a French traveler would have occasion to make) it is only necessary to consult the "Non-velles Methods": "Aou iste, miss; oueune so tchamrinnque ande pretti ouakinnque alaune?" If the traveler goes to the theater the man at the box office may say, "Oul have ouil etcheer stalls laite, beute allow me tou rimaque sat se ara se beat stice for sinquele gentilemeine." Evidently "th" is given up as a bad job, and "j" is as difficult for the Frenchman as "r" is for the German, though a German manual gives John Bull as "Dachann Booll".

Great Mushroom Garden in France.
The strangest of the underground worlds in France which I visited was one devoted to the raising of mushrooms. Its limits seemed unbounded, as indeed they were, for it pierced the hillsides in every direction. We entered through an opening under an orchard of cherry trees. During "harvest time" a crop is gathered every twenty-four hours. Three men, with their great baskets, make the rounds of this underground farm every morning, and every day in the year can count on an immense crop, which they ship to the large cities near by and even several miles away. The discolored and infertile mushrooms are sent to the canneries, but for his best growth the producer receives only 20 cents a pound.—Scribner's Magazine.

Courage Begets Courage.
One brave step makes the next one easier. True, the road seems more piled up with obstacles as one goes along; but, then, one is made stronger and more capable with every step, so that relatively we have an easy road always before us. At least it is not exactly easy it becomes more interesting—one feels less inclined to grumble.—Cosmopolitan.

Turned Out.
"Our colleges turn out some pretty good men nowadays," remarked the elderly gentleman.
"Yes," replied his son gloomily, "our college turned out the man who was sure to have won the hundred yard dash for us next year just because he didn't pass any of his examinations."—Syracuse Herald.

Belgian Pigeons.
The Belgians are great pigeon breeders, and one of the choicest birds of this kind is the true Antwerp carrier, which is comparatively rare.
English Palace.
There is but one private "palace" in England, Blenheim palace, and there are three in Scotland—Scots, Walkie and Hamilton. But the residences of all English bishops and archbishops are termed "palaces".
Death Tests.
Undertakers test bodies to see if life is extinct by raising a blister with a match. If the blister is dry the body is dead; if it fills with water life is not yet extinct. If the cut made for the embalming syringe bleeds, the body is alive. The only absolutely certain sign, however, is beginning decomposition.

FOOLISH FEAR OF THE OPAL

Many people to this day have a superstitious dread of wearing opals, because they really believe ill-luck is attached to this beautiful stone. Three centuries ago the opal was an exceedingly fashionable gem, and the Italian goldsmiths particularly favored its use for their most exquisite settings. The opal was at the height of its popularity when the plague broke out in Venice. Some especially observant individuals discovered that when a plague-stricken sufferer was at the point of death the opal, if he wore one, would grow brighter, and after his death it would grow dull. The reason for this appears to have been that the burning fever warmed the stone and that after death the damp and chill of the body dulled it. But many deduced from this a belief that it was the opal that had brought death and misfortune, and with the spread of this superstition the opal declined in popular favor. Many persons would on no account whatever wear except one as a gift, much less wear what they foolishly deem the unlucky opal.—New York Press.

THE TWO METHODIST CHURCHES AGREE

Ashbury Park, N. J., July 9.—The joint commission of the Methodist Episcopal churches, north and south, has completed its ritual revision labors in Ocean Grove. The new order of worship adopted lays special stress upon reverent worship and provides for kneeling in silent prayer on entering church. There are extensive changes in the catechism. In the future a primary and a standard catechism, almost new, will be used in place of the three now in use. Bishop S. M. Merrill, of Chicago, in an interview, said: "The utmost harmony has prevailed and the Methodist Episcopal churches, north and south, are closer today than they have been since they separated in the days of slavery." The order of worship is practically the same as now used in the church north.

AMERICA WILL LET RUSSIA TAKE LIMIT

Washington, July 9.—The president has decided that the matter of the Jewish petition must be finally disposed of before any further effort is made here to compose the issues arising out of the Manchurian situation. Therefore, it is now said, that nothing is likely to be done in regard to Manchuria until next September, by which time, according to the last Russian engagement, the evacuation of Manchuria by Russian troops, save railroad guards, should be complete. It is understood that the Russian government has set up as one reason for not sanctioning the opening of new ports in Manchuria, the necessity of allowing her first to complete the evacuation of Manchuria, and, although the reasoning is rather obscure on that point, it is understood that our government is willing to wait until September before making the next move.

FED JEWISH TOTS POISONED CANDIES

Vienna, July 10.—A diabolical scheme on the part of anti-Semitic Russians, to do away with their greatest antipathy, the Jews, has been discovered at Cracow. Three of the czar's subjects were arrested there for distributing poisoned bonbons to Jewish children. When the men were arrested it was with great difficulty the officers could defend the prisoners from the infuriated Jews, who swarmed about them muttering threats and dire vengeance, and endeavoring to secure the men to lynch them. It transpired the work of the three men was part of a widespread conspiracy. Many children who ate the candies are ill, while some are dead.

SHOE ON OTHER FOOT

London, July 10.—The Catholic Herald has requested the Russian ambassador at London to forward to St. Petersburg a statement calling attention to the continuous and increasing number of outrages on negroes in the United States, which are usually accompanied by the most appalling brutality. The paper wished the Russian government to make representations to Washington. The ambassador, in reply to the request, said such action was outside of his purview, and he could not deal with it. The communication will therefore be sent direct to St. Petersburg.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle and a cure is certain. For sale at J. E. Hood & Co.'s drug store.

KISHINEFF MASSACRE

Odesa, July 10.—Prince Urusoff, the new governor of Bessarabia, has arrived at Kishineff and taken up his official duties. M. Chaplin, an official of the ministry of justice, and Judge Pollan, vice-president of the district court of Odesa, are also at Kishineff in connection with the inquiry that is being made in to the Jewish massacre. The examination magistrates have completed their investigation and will prepare the indictment of the prisoners in a few days. The officers absolutely refuse to give any information concerning the number of prisoners, what the charges will be and whether any of the accused will be capitally charged. The criminal courts of Russia are not empowered to inflict capital punishment under any circumstances. Capital charges are always remitted to a military tribunal. It is not believed that any death sentence will be imposed in connection with the massacre. The heaviest punishment probably will be a dozen years penal servitude or deportation.

THE TROUBLE AT EVANSVILLE

Evansville, Ind., July 10.—It is reported here that Lester Andrews and Ed. Mills, both half drunk, went to the home of Mr. Cliff Lipe, near Sandy Grove church, and assaulted his wife, choking her when she repulsed them and threatening her husband when he tried to enter the house, with a gun. The approach of a Mr. Cohen then frightened them off. Warrants have been issued for their arrest. Tarboro Southerner: On John H. Edwards' farm, near Lawrence, live 11 an old colored man, Isaac Whitehead, 79 years old. Realizing, he said, that he had only a few more days here, he came to town today to purchase his shroud and coffin. The first he bought, but his son, who was with him, drew the line on the coffin. Burial clothes and shrouds he could sleep in the same house with, but not with a coffin.

MONROE DOCTRINE

London, July 10.—In conversation with American officers at the king's dinner at Buckingham palace yesterday evening, members of the cabinet expressed a desire for an extension of the Monroe doctrine. Recognizing the paramount influence of the United States in the western hemisphere, Great Britain, they said, wants Washington to exercise control in some way over the financial obligation of the Central and South American states. Apparently Great Britain, not desiring a repetition of the Venezuelan affair, favors the adoption of means whereby the smaller republics will be compelled to meet their obligation without pressure from Europe.

WAR DEPARTMENT ASKED TO TEAR DOWN SIGNS

Atlantic City, N. J., July 9.—The machinery of the war department has been invoked to have removed an offending sign which ornaments the masts of a wreck at the mouth of the inlet. The sign advertises a brand of intoxicating liquor. A petition from indignant citizens was addressed to the secretary of war, was indorsed by the council and signed by the mayor, praying that the government would blow up the wreck, as "it was a menace to navigation." The wreck is that of the schooner A. Lee, bricklayer.

VALUABLE TIME SEVED

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood-poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without inflammation, and prevents any danger of blood poisoning.

WHO IS IT THAT MAKES THE FEWER-GALLONS WEAR-LONGER PAINT?

Who is He? Chamberlain's Paint is the answer. It is the only paint that wears longer and makes the painter's work easier. It is the only paint that is so easy to use and so economical.
