 TEMPLE-MARSTON DRUG CO.—Flinch

The colored people will have a grand concert in the court house here August 25th.

Some coon hunters near LaGrange a few nights ago cut a tree in which they found 19 coons.

Mrs. Pattie Tucker, of this place, raised a pea in her garden that is 27 inches long. The peas in the hull are about an inch apart but fully matured.

Mrs. N. L. Bruton is the possessor of a night blooming series that is expected to bloom tonight between 9 and 12 o'clock. It will be displayed in her show window in the Webb building and all are invited to watch for the bloom.

There will be a grand educational rally and big dinner in Pink Hill township next Wednesday, August 12th, at which speeches will be made by Hon. R. F. Beasley, of Monroe, an eloquent speaker, and prominent public men of this county.

Mr. Thomas S. Grady, manager of the Kinston Coin and Book Exchange, has sold his school book and stationery business to J. E. Hood & Co., and will only deal in literary books, papers, magazines and periodicals. He has moved to Hood & Co's. Caswell street entrance of their new store.

There was quite a pleasant dance given at Lofin's opera house last night, complimentary to Misses Thorpe and Whitehurst of Newbern, who are guests of Miss Annie Archbell. About twenty couples participated. Music was dispensed by "Kinston Star Orchestra." Chaperones were Mesdames Long, Skinner and Cummings.

On account of the firemen's tournament at Durham August 11 to 13, the A. & N. C. Railroad will sell round trip tickets to individuals from this station to Goldsboro for one first-class fare. Tickets will be on sale August 9, 10, 11, good to return August 15th. Fire companies or bands in uniform with 10 or more on one ticket will be given a rate of one cent a mile for round trip to Goldsboro.

Jesse Wiggins, a negro beating his way on the A. & N. C. freight from Goldsboro early this morning, was stricken by the dark house just this side of Stony Creek and sustained injuries that may prove fatal. He was riding in a box car and stuck his head out of the car door just as the train was entering the dark house and his head struck the wall and he was knocked out and went back for him and brought him to LaGrange where he is now in a precarious condition.

A New Teacher Elected.
 Yesterday afternoon the board of trustees of the graded school met and elected a teacher to take the place of Miss Margaret Perry who declined an election to the faculty of the graded school recently.

The young lady chosen was Miss Florence May Ellington, of Louisburg, a recent graduate of Trinity college. Miss Ellington will teach Latin and English in the eighth and ninth grades. She comes with the very best recommendations, and undoubtedly she will show the wisdom of her selection as a member of the faculty of our graded school.

Will Parch Flour and Play it is Snuff.
 Last night at a called meeting of the retail grocers' association, a good brother or business man of Kinston remarked that the greatest trouble they would have to overcome would be the snuff question.

Now man-like, something has to be laid on the women. I want to say in behalf of the women of North Carolina and other tobacco states, that we are now, as we have always been, ready to come to the front to help and stand by our husbands and fathers in any way that is for their good.

Now brethren, of the association, I am sure the women will pledge you not to use the snuff made by the A. T. company. I don't say we will do without our snuff altogether, but we will not touch the A. T. Co's snuff if we have to grind our tobacco leaves and form a trust of our own. We will keep our pledge if we have to parch flour and use it and play it is snuff.

So now brother farmers and merchants let us all come together and do what we can. "For in union there is strength."
 N. L. A.

Play Ball.
 The down town team will meet the tobacco boys on the diamond Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and something very interesting in the way of baseball is expected. With Billy Coleman behind the bat and Lisha Lewis in the box, who will revive some of those fancy Allegheny quivers of days gone by, for the down town bunch, and Eustler, whose success as a league player was phenomenal, to twirl the sphere for the tobacco aggregation, there is bound to be something of unusual importance to fans at the ball park Monday. The admission to the game will be 25 cents for men and nothing whatever will be charged for the ladies, who it is expected and hoped will grace the occasion with their presences in large numbers. The line up will be as follows:

Town:—Will Coleman, c; E. B. Lewis, p; E. Whitaker, 1 b; Harper, 3 b; S. Whitaker, 1 b; Stevenson, 3 b; Kilpatrick, 1 f; Hawkins, r f; Sutton, c f.

Tobacco:—Eustler, p; Adams, c; Long, 1 b; Moonham, 2 b; Palmer, 1 f; Jones, 3 b; Perry, c; McCormick, r f; Emma Wooten, umpire.

THE OWL DRUG STORE

No Standing Still.

This is not the same drug store that it was 30 days ago. It is constantly changing, always progressing, ever improving. We get new suggestions from our customers, new ideas from traveling men, new plans from visiting successful drug stores in other cities. Gradually these suggestions, ideas and plans get worked into our store. That is why it keeps growing and improving. It seems to be a pleasure for our customers to trade with us, and it certainly is a pleasure for us to conduct such a store. We invite your patronage. Your money back if we don't suit you.
