Mr. J. F. Marquette has taken a position with Quinn & Miller in their furniture store.

All members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. are urged to be present at the meeting tonight at 8 o'clock.

The board of trustees of the Kinston graded schools will meet Thursday, the 20th, for the purpose of placing the order for the new desks for the school.

The sick benefit department of Neuse Ruling, No. 294, of the Fraternal Mystic Circle will hold a special meeting at Canada's hall at eight o'clock Friday night.

A very interesting and close game of ball was played at LaGrange Saturday between the Parks team, of that place and the Patetown team; score 9 to 3, when the game was called on account of darkness.

Col. George L. Kilpatrick, who lately attended the Fort Fisher reunion at Wilmington, showed us today a tallow candle, in a perfect state of preservation, which was washed ashore on the beach at Fort Fisher from the wreck of the ship "Beauregard" sunk during the war. It was given him as a souvenir of the reunion. The relic can be seen at J. E. Hood & Co's. drug store.

At a meeting of the promoters of the proposed stock company to manufacture smoking tobacco it was decided to open the books for subscriptions at the store of Cox & Co. and keep them open for the benefit of those who want to subscribe. If any one, in the city or elsewhere, wants to take stock in the enterprise they can do so by going there and writing their name and the amount they wish to subscribe opposite. The shares will be $50 each.

A bit of compliment for the enterprise shown by THE FREE PRESS Saturday in giving a full account of the mass meeting Saturday, though the meeting began at 2:30 and the paper had to go off on the 4:22 train, was heard on the streets from a colored man who remarked "these newspapers do beat de debil, dar dey done got dat man who spoke in the paper an hour after he spoke," referring, of course to the picture of Mr. Johnson, the speaker, which was used in the account of the meeting.

Abé Mason, colored, cut Louis Henry Wilson, colored, on the face this morning with a pocket knife, and also made a "wipe" at his bowels, but did not cut him the last time. Mason had his hand in Wilson's pocket, according to the latter's story, and he told Mason to take his hand out, that he had nothing in them for him to get but a knife. Mason remarked that if he told him he was trying to steal his knife he would cut his face off, cutting at Wilson at the same time. Mason escaped and has not been caught yet by the policemen.

Mr. Levi Mewborn Dead.

Mr. L. A. Mewborn, Sr., died at his home on east Payton avenue this morning at 4 o'clock. He has been ill for some time with a complication of diseases and his age militated against his recovery.

Mr. Mewborn was born in this county, near Institute, 74 years ago and has lived in the county since, for a long time past in Kinston.

He was a representative citizen and was generally loved for his genial good nature and was familiarly known as "Uncle Levy" by a wide circle of intimate friends.

For the past six months his health has been such that he was compelled to stay closely at his home.

He was one of the oldest members of St. John's Lodge, No. 4, A. F. & A. M., having become a member of the lodge in 1852 and will be buried with Masonic honors tomorrow.

Mr. Mewborn leaves a widow and three sons, Messrs. Will E., T. W. and Mark Mewborn and a host of relatives in the city and county.

The funeral will be conducted from his late residence at 297 east Payton avenue tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. H. Griffith, Jr., rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, of which Mr. Mewborn was a member, assisted by Rev. Edward Wooten, of Wilmington, chaplain of Mr. Mewborn's company in the civil war.

Rally at Ormondsville.

Ormondsville, N. C., Aug. 15.—The people of this section are moving for the betterment of their schools by the consolidation of three small districts here. By invitation State Superintendent Joyner and Prof. Alex. Graham, of Charlotte, discussed here today in the masterly manner for which both these gentlemen are famed, the question of consolidation. As a result of the agitation of this question and this meeting these districts will be united and a strong central school given to the people. The people here feel much encouraged at the prospect and at the interest manifested in the movement. We understand there will be a called meeting of the county board of education at an early date for the purpose of ratifying the consolidation.

LaGrange, Aug. 15.—Mrs. L. J. Joyner's mill, about two miles from here, was undermined and washed away Thursday night. As Mrs. Joyner is old she will not undertake to rebuild. The site will be offered for sale. The property was very valuable and its destruction is a public loss as well as a private one. Our fishermen were on hand and some fine fish were caught. The most of the timbers will be recovered.

SMALLPOX IN PROSPECT.

Raleigh, Aug. 4.—In the course of a talk today about smallpox Dr. Lewis took occasion to say that he expected to see an even more extensive outbreak of it in the State when cold weather comes.

By the carelessness of the general public it really appears that they do not care whether they have this disease or not; this in face of the official statement that in the past four years there have been thousands of cases and nearly two hundred deaths in the State.

FIFTY CENTS will insure in the PACIFIC MUTUAL Life Insurance Co against

Smallpox, Typhoid Fever and eight other diseases
