KORNDAKY.—This Week.
C. BAILEY.—Here Again.
OETTINGERS.—Clearance Sale.

Work has been begun on the repairing of the court house. The parapets are being removed and a change will be made in the appearance at the top of the building.

The members of Universalist Mission Circle of Kinston are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. Z. Rhodes, on north Heritage street, August 20th, at 3 o'clock p. m. All interested in mission work are requested to be present.

Mr. Dave Raub, representing the J. B. Bennett & Co. jewelry establishment, of Norfolk, Va., will conduct an auction at Mr. C. Bailey's jewelry store for several days. Mr. Raub has been here before and made some very satisfactory sales.

Quite a large crowd attended the funeral of Mr. L. A. Mewborn this morning. The last rites were conducted by Rev. J. H. Griffith, Jr., assisted by Rev. Edward Wooten, of Wilmington. The Masonic ceremony was very impressively conducted by the members of St. John's Lodge, No. 4.

Prof. L. L. Hargrave, who was principal of the Dove High school last year, has been elected to the principalship of St. Paul school in Beaufort, and has accepted. The school, though comparatively young, is a strong school which numbered last season 250 students and the scope of its influence is broadening all the time.

At the request of State Councilor Geo. E. Hood, of Goldsboro, for Lenoir council, No. 78, J. O. U. A. M., to recommend a member from the council at this place to be appointed deputy State councilor, the local council recommended Mr. C. W. Forlaw for the appointment. The deputy State councilor is invested with the power to institute new councils.

Mr. Henry Tucker was severely gored by an ox yesterday near Dover and it is almost a miracle that he is living today. He was at the W. M. Tyndal mill, three miles from Dover, standing near some oxen when one of them flung his head around, his horn striking Mr. Tucker in the throat and piercing deeply into his throat. Mr. Tucker was badly injured about a year ago in the explosion of a boiler at Mr. F. N. Hawkins' mill near Dover.

The court house pump, we are glad to say, has been repaired and a tin cover put over it to prevent the leakage flowing back into the well, thereby making the water bad. The well was pumped out a few days ago and the accumulated trash removed and the "court house pump" will soon be reinstated in its pristine glory as the famous spring from which the thirsty having drunk will return once again to partake of its sweet, sparkling fluid, though he travel for away. Long may the sweetness of its cooling draught remain with us and wider the range of its fame extend.

In a discussion on the streets today concerning life insurance it was discovered that the six men discussing the matter were paying annually a total of $1,000 for premium on insurance. None of these were the big policy holders of Kinston either, but are supposed to be about what the average "good liver" in the town pays for insurance yearly. It was said that some people in the city pay $2,000 a year insurance on their lives. And it was further estimated by a conservative man that $100,000 a year is approximately what is paid out in the county annually on life insurance.

Teachers' Institute Begins Monday.
The Lenoir County Teachers' institute begins here next Monday and lasts two weeks. Dr. R. H. Lewis, of this place, and Prof. E. P. Mangum, of Wilson, will be the instructors. The teachers are requested to attend these sittings and bring their text books, as there will be recitations.

Beat His Mother.
A warrant was issued today for Isaac Boykin, colored, who last night beat his own mother while under the influence of "bug juice." Boykin went home drunk and demanded of his mother if she had cooked him anything to eat. On being answered in the negative he began cursing her and to beat her, hurting her right badly.

A Farewell Luncheon.
Mr. Errol P. Dixon was the host at a delightful farewell luncheon given to the guests of Miss Anna Howard—Misses Josephine McLeod, Mary Moye, Janie Howard and Clara Cox—at his home Monday evening, August 17. Mrs. D. V. Dixon acted as hostess and was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Loops and Miss Hattie Moseley. Supper was served in the dining room at half past nine. Here too, were given to the guests favors—souvenirs of the pleasant house party spent in Kinston as well as of the present enjoyable luncheon. Those present were Miss Janie Howard, Miss Maye Moye, Miss Hattie Moseley, Miss Anna Howard, Miss Clara Cox, Mr. Joseph Howard, Mr. L. O. Moseley, Mr. C. C. Harper and Mr. Ed. Parrott.

Cut this out and take it to J. E. Hood & Co's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They clean and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c. per box.

SMALLPOX IN PROSPECT.

Raleigh, Aug. 4.—In the course of a talk today about smallpox Dr Lewis took occasion to say that he expected to see an even more extensive outbreak of it in the State when cold weather comes.

By the carelessness of the general public it really appears that they do not care whether they have this disease or not; this in face of the official statement that in the past four years there have been thousands of cases and nearly two hundred deaths in the State.

FIFTY CENTS will insure in the PACIFIC MUTUAL Life Insurance Co.
