Cotton sold on the Kinston market today at 10 1/2 to 10 1/4.

There will be no services in the Episcopal church Wednesday night. About 75,000 pounds of tobacco was sold on the local market today. The prices are about the same that prevailed last week.

Mr. T. B. Ashford has invented a useful tool to be used in mixing mortar, that is highly approved by some of the contractors in the city.

Rev. E. H. Davis preached a special sermon to the members of the J. R. O. U. A. M. last night at the Methodist church. The local council attended in a body.

Justice W. F. Dibble officiated at a marriage Sunday night at 7 o'clock on Blount street in which Mr. Junius Beaman and Miss Ethel Thigpen were happily married.

Mrs. J. M. Stephenson has just returned from New York, accompanied by her milliner, Miss Wolfe. Miss Wolfe is a graduate from Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, in millinery and designing, having had experience of several years in New York and other cities.

Mr. W. M. Bagwell, representing the Cable Co., received a carload of pianos and organs this morning and has them at the W. T. Mercer Co's. furniture store, for inspection. Mr. Bagwell has placed a good many instruments in this city at a former date and his transactions have proven satisfactory. See his ad in tomorrow's paper.

News reached here this morning of a very large catch of mullets near Morehead Saturday. It is said that mullets are being caught in large numbers by all the fishermen. Between 80,000 and 90,000 pounds were landed at the docks in Morehead Saturday night and the forces were kept busy Saturday night and Sunday splitting and packing them. They are unusually fine this season and the fishermen are all happy.

Richard Morris, familiarly known in these parts as "Dick Dinah," got on a full dress of "war paint" out at Hines' mill and started in to "carve" somebody. Dick had met with more or less success until he ran up with Herman Carmon, another colored youth, and then Dick stopped. Dick's stopping was not altogether a voluntary act but rather the result of butting into a piece of 2 x 4 scantling welded by the aforesaid Carmon. Morris was "about" yesterday.

Mr. E. B. Lewis had returned to him today a baseball "bag" that was taken a year or two ago. Mr. George Suggs recognized the bag in Jacksonville, Fla., this summer while playing ball in that city. Mr. Lewis thinks that it was taken by a player here a few years ago, according to the "custom" of ball players and by a strange coincidence Mr. Suggs and the "bag" landed in Jacksonville during the same season. When lost the bag contained two uniforms and a pair of shoes, but these had gone the way of all flesh and blood and baseball uniforms. Mr. Suggs recognized the bag by the name of Mr. Lewis, which was on it.

Superior Court.

The criminal docket of the court was finished Saturday afternoon and the civil docket taken up today.

The following cases were tried at the morning session:

Mrs. E. J. Sanderlin vs Mrs. Rebecca Smith and Mrs. Rebecca Peele; ejectment. A juror withdrawn and a mistrial ordered.

Jobe Connor vs Lilly Connor; divorce. Verdict for the plaintiff, granting divorce.

Fannie Smith vs Robert A. Smith; divorce. Verdict for plaintiff, granting divorce.

An Old Document.

Among a lot of old papers owned by Mr. H. W. McKinne is a receipt just 100 years old yesterday. It is a receipt bearing the date of September 20th, 1803, and was given by C. A. Jenkins to executors of some of Mr. McKinne's forefathers' estate in settlement of part of an inheritance falling to Mr. Jenkins.

The writing is remarkably distinct and the paper in a splendid state of preservation for an instrument of its age.

Mr. McKinne has, also, a number of letters written to his father, by a brother in Mississippi, in 1844 and 1845, in which there is more or less deploring the low price of cotton, which was selling at 4 to 6 cents a pound at that time.

A Free for All Fight.

Policeman Taylor was attracted to the rear of Mr. Chestnut's bar Saturday night where there seemed to be "something doing" among the scrappers and as he entered about 25 came out.

Investigation showed that Ed Johnson, colored, had thrown a beer bottle at a fellow that had hit him in the face with his fist and then the ball opened. Johnson got away in the dark but was located by Mr. Taylor a few minutes later.

The OWL DRUG STORE

Pine Tar Cough Balsam

Pine trees seem to furnish the best remedies for Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis and other throat troubles. We make a syrup of Pine Tar that in our opinion and that of many of our customers has never been excelled as a cough cure. We are willing to sell it with the distinct understanding that if it is not satisfactory to you, you can exchange what is left of the bottle for any other medicine, or we will refund your money. That is a fair proposition. We know what this syrup will do.
