TRENTON MERCHANT FAILS.

Mr. R. P. Parker Closes His Doors and Names Senator Thos. D. Warren Assignee.
 Mr. R. P. Parker, a general merchant of Trenton, made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of his creditors, naming Senator Thomas D. Warren, of that place, as assignee. There were no preferred creditors.
 The liabilities and assets are not known; an inventory of the stock is being taken today.
 Mr. Parker suffered right severe loss last spring in a big fire in Trenton.

COMMISSIONERS SWORN IN

And Make Their First Order For Stock For the Dispensary.
 The dispensary commissioners were sworn in last night by Mayor Rouse and organized, electing Mr. L. P. Tapp chairman of the board.
 Matters pertaining to the establishment of the dispensary were discussed and the first order for stock was made out and given. The first order was for about $2,000 worth of liquors.
 The place in which to run the dispensary was discussed but not decided last night though very likely it will be on Queen street in the central part of the city.

The Best Lintment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best lintment on the market," write Post & Ellis, of Georgia, Va. No other lintment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lumbago and pains in the chest. Give this lintment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by J. E. Hood & Co.
