Selma, Ala., Aug. 20.-Judge Partridge today refused bail to Special Constables Ransom, Stanfil and Cherry. Edward Bell, a negro, charged with murder was taken from these officers and met his death at the hands of a mob. The three men are now in jail, charged with murder in the first degree. They allege that negroes took Bell from their custody.

Gripple Creek, Col., August 20 .- Intense excitement prevails here and bloodshed is expected before the night is over. A mob is in control of the town and wholesale deportations were begun this evening. Already a dozen prominent men not in sympathy with the citizens' movement have been run out. The armed men on horseback are now making a round up to gather more men to drive from the county.

St. Paul. Teachers' Institute.

The second week of the institute was begun this morning at nine o'clock. Prof. Coon opened the morning session in the white graded school build- a. m. to 6 p. m. ing by reading and commenting on a few verses from the 6th chapter of Matthew. Prof. Coon is peculiarly happy in the comments on scripture passages which he reads every day.

The professor then gave a lecture on the teaching of the sound method, cordially condemning the word method of teaching reading. He said that "a tree is known by its fruits" and called for the fruits of the word method.

At ten o'clock Dr. Lewis lectured on the cultivation of the imagination, as an aid in the prosecution of many studiets. He was followed by Professor Brogden in his usual clear and elegant presentation of the subject of language, in which he is an expert. Prof. Coon then lectured on arithmetic.

For Sheriff.

We see that though Sheriff Wooten will not himself seek the nomination for sheriff, his friends have presented and will press his name before the Democratic primaries, Sept. 3, 1904. We are of it as voters of Trent township. Everybody concedes that he has made an efficient and honest officer. Why then should we change? The people desire and demand capable officials. Why swap off a horse that has that he should be nominated. Let us rally to his support.

SHOOTING AT CAMP MEETING

Two White Men Shot and Negro Cut in Row at Negro Camp Meeting at Falling Creek. A row between Mr. W. H. Ham, of Falling Creek, and a negro at a negro camp meeting at Falling Creek, Sunday, resulted in Ham's being shot through the hand, Mr. J. H. Horner re-

As well as could be learned from the many conflicting reports the circumstances are as follows:

The camp meeting was near Mr. Ham's home and he furnished a negro to sell drinks and about 2 o'clock in the afternoon got into a dispute with him over the proceeds. Ham began cutting and the negro, or some negro, began shooting. Mrs. Ham ran out of the house to persuade her husband into the house, and while on the way Company. into the house received a stray bullet in the head. The bullet knocked him down. It entered just back of the of his head, lodging at the temple. He came over to the city and had his wound dressed Sunday afternoon.

Ham was shot in the hand and was not seriously hurt. The negro, who is said to be from LaGrange, escaped. He is said to have been badly cut.

Reports have it that "moonshine" whiskey and hard cider were at the bottom of the trouble. The camp meeting broke up with the row and the depot about a mile away.
