For a Disease Germ Liquozone Can't Kill.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Matters of Interest Condensed into Brief Paragraphs.

A LITTLE ABOUT NUMEROUS THINGS

The Pith of the World's News That Might Interest Our Readers. An Item Here and There.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 27.—The militia today was withdrawn from Berkley, a suburb of this city, where they were sent several days ago on account of the assassination of the negro politician Blount.

Washington, Oct. 27.—This is the anniversary of President Roosevelt's birth. He is forty-six years old. Throughout the day he was in receipt of messages of congratulation from friends in all parts of the country.

Stockholm, Oct. 27.—The skipper of the Swedish steamer Aldebaran, from Hull, England, which arrived today at Gefle, Sweden, says his vessel was chased in the Skagerack during the evening of Friday, October 21, by a foreign cruiser, apparently Russian, which threw its searchlight on her.

London, Oct. 27.—While no time limit for the receipt of Russia's reply has been fixed, it is generally understood today that the route of the Russian squadron past Gibraltar will be barred by the channel squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Baresford.

Havana, Oct. 27.—In compliance with a petition of Manufacturers' Union, President Palma has authorized a new government stamp of guarantee for export cigars. It will be engraved with Cuba's coat-of-arms and will not bear Senor Palma's picture, as originally proposed.

Huntsville, Ala., Oct. 27.—Thomas M. Higgs, a hotel man, has been arrested and placed under $5,000 bond on charge of conspiracy in the lynching of Horace Maples. Robert Powell, son of ex-Sheriff Powell, said to have been indicted by the United States grand jury on the same charge, will surrender today.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 27.—The submarine torpedo boat Simon Lake No. 10, was launched at the shipyard here today, Miss Mildred Lake, daughter of the inventor, acted as sponsor for the boat. The sub-marine will be tested in a few days. This is the third of the five boats believed to be destined for Russia or Japan now completed.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and be Cured.

If a few years ago some one had said you can cure catarrh by breathing air charged with healing balsams, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for that eminent investigator, E. T. Booth, to discover Hyomei which has performed almost miraculous cures of catarrh, and it is today recognized by leading members of the medical profession as the only advertised remedy that can be relied upon to do just what it claims. The complete outfit of Hyomei costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei.

Rev. J. B. Cook, of Holliston, Mass. says: "My wife has suffered greatly from catarrh for fifteen years. Nearly four weeks ago she commenced to use Hyomei and the beneficial effect was immediate. It is very seldom that she needs to clear her head and throat and she is able to rest quietly at night."

Breathe the Hyomei through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects a complete and lasting cure.

In Kinston there are scores of well known people who have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not help you J. E. Hood & Co. will return the money you paid for Hyomei.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

Is at Hand.—The Ladies Have Prepared an Elaborate Programme.

SPOOKS AND GOBLINS WILL WALK

The Kinston Library is to be the beneficiary.—An Evening of Fun and Frolic.

Communicated.
On Monday night, Oct. 31st at the opera house will be given the much talked of Hallowe'en Entertainment, for the benefit of Kinston Library. All those who have never had an opportunity of witnessing such a novel and amusing affair must make an effort to come and come early, those who have been more fortunate and given the "Spooks" a welcoming every year—well, they don't need any urging.

The visitors will be met at the door by two charming young ladies, Miss Clara Wooten and Miss Payne Killpatrick, representing the "Witch" and the Gypsy. These young ladies will initiate you into the pleasures and mysteries of the evening.

Here we have a large booth decorated with evergreens and rosy apples presided over by Misses Edith and Leah Oettinger. In this booth the old folks can "bob" for apples like they did in their young and courtin' days, while the youngsters can "bob" until their heads have passed the "bobbing."

Over there for "you courtin' couples" is the "Sea of Life," presided over by Mrs. O. K. LaRoque, come and see if your frail barques will weather the gale.

Right here, presided over by The Witches, is the fun producing "which" Which shall it be?

Miss Rosabel Rountree, Miss Lottie Tull and Miss Flora Oettinger have charge of the candies.

In the Witches' bag is contained your fate—a blank card—hand it to her and presto—before your eyes your fortune appears.

One of the chief attractions of the evening is a large pumpkin, uncut. A handsome pair of bisque vases, donated by our popular jeweler, Mr. Kleber Denmark, will be given to the person guessing nearest to the correct number of seeds. At 10 P. M. the seeds will be counted by Mrs. N. J. Rouse and Mrs. L. J. Mewborne and the vases awarded.

Everyone is entitled to a guess free. The refreshments will be dispensed at the doughnut booth by Miss Mae Oettinger and Mrs. Hugh Parham, and the lemonade well in the charge of Mrs. E. B. Marston and Mrs. H. D. Harper.

The great feature of the evening will be when the Kinston quartette, consisting of Dr. H. D. Harper, Arthur Einstein, Jessie Ball and Will Fields eat doughnuts for the prize, a handsome Hawes hat. If you want to see something funny be on hand. The judges for this feat are Dr. Faulkner Mr. Clyde Dunn and Mr. Felix Harvey.

Between whiles the following program will be rendered: The "Witches" graveyard when these spooks rise from their graves and dance their annual Hallowe'en "Pow Wow."

A ghost cake walk by Miss Lillie Cobb and Mr. Jesse Ball. You have seen a cake walk but did you ever see a ghost cake walk? Mr. Ross Bailey will give you a "clog."

A beautiful extravaganza will be sung by Mr. Henry Miller and participated in by a bevy of pretty girls representing chrysanthemums. Song and sketch by Messes Jordan and Miller. Miss Beulah Smith will be pianist.

Twenty-five cents includes everything there will be no extra charge.

The popular firm of Einstein Bros. has offered a prize for the best table of chrysanthemums. So all the planters will exhibit their marvelous flowers.

There were fewer planted this year than last but those few have received all the devoted care and are correspondingly beautiful.

The tables will be judged and then the ladies will be glad to dispose of them at the usual prices.

Opera house opened at 8 p. m. Admission 25c and nothing extra to get out.

UNIQUE SOCIAL EVENT

Was The Firemen's Square Dance at The Atlantic Warehouse.

THE AFFAIR WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

Largest Attendance Ever at Similar Event in the City and King Frolic Reigned Supreme.

The Firemen's Square Dance in the Atlantic warehouse in this city last night for the benefit of Kinston Fire Company, No. 1, was one of the most remarkable successes of anything of the kind ever held in the city. Both the amount realized and the number and enthusiasm of those participating was a pleasant and fitting reward for the tireless efforts of Miss Sybil Hyatt and her able assistants in the management of the affair.

The number who attended last night is conservatively estimated at 1,200 to 1,400 during the evening, and at one time the crowd on the floor of the warehouse was at least 1,000.

The huge crowd of people was of one spirit, that of fun and frolic and the perfect abandon with which each and every one entered into the enjoyment of the occasion produced an effect that was contagious and took possession of every one as soon as they entered the building.

The crowds began arriving early in the evening, and by nine o'clock there was 1,000 people on the floor. The dancing began at this hour, the first set forming with 38 couples, composed of people from all parts of the country and of many stations in life. The girl who earns her living by her daily toil, the richly gowned society girl, the matronly dame whose slipped feet have trod the polished ball room floor, but to whom the old-fashioned square dance was a revelation, the farmer boy, the merchant, the professional man, the man-about-town elbowed each other, jostled each other and danced with the freedom from restraint begotten of the free and easy air which pervaded all.

People from afar, people from nearby towns and from the country were there, and the amount of enjoyment each got out of it was measured only by their capacity for enjoyment. The "boys" from Pink Hill were there in numbers and it was to their stantorian calls that the figures were gone through with. It is estimated that there were at least three hundred people in attendance from a distance, people who came especially for the occasion.

Enjoy it? Well I reckon. Old timers said there was nothing like it ever happened in the city before and would stand with mouth agape, taking in the scene until in a few minutes they were caught with the influence of the spell and were participating in the fun themselves.

The crowd that wanted to take part in the dancing soon grew too large for the open "set" and gradually other "sets" were formed and four were going at one time. The music, which was furnished by Levin's splendid orchestra, of Raleigh, was especially adapted to the occasion and the "Virginia Reel" and similar old fashion pieces were listened to by those who had almost forgotten them, with great pleasure.

An amusing feature was the assistance rendered the orchestra by old man Frank Baker, who with his fiddle stood at the platform arranged for the musicians and sawed through the pieces with as much seriousness and attention to business as if he were the whole thing.

"Unfile" Nat Tripp, who has a peculiar style of locomotion entirely his own, got nervous down about his feet and couldn't stand the temptation and entered into the dancing with zest and with the result that he "cut the shine" off a lot of the young fellows.

Alderman Wagner, ex-Mayor George Webb, Dr. Hyatt, Capt. Wesley Swift and other 250-pounders made the floor groan with their weight as they

A Judicious Inquiry.
A well-known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by J. E. Hood & Co.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by J. E. Hood & Co.

ODD AND INTERESTING HAPPENINGS

Gossip Gathered from Murphy To Manteo of Importance to Our Tar Heel Readers.

The Selma News Company has been organized and in the course of a few weeks will put a weekly paper.

Two cars of a freight train were derailed at Burlington Thursday night, and a flagman, M. Arthur Peace, of Greensboro, had one leg broken by a falling cross-tie.

A unique ceremony will be carried out at the Catholic Orphanage church in Raleigh known as the "baptism of bells." Two large bells have been given the church and they will be dedicated by this ceremony which is quite an elaborate affair.

Nearly 7,000 negroes attended the colored fair in Raleigh Friday, that being educational day. Besides speeches by prominent colored educators, a foot ball game between two colored institutions, and an ox race added to the attracting power of the program.

A negro man was found beneath the bed of the daughter of Mr. Norman Stuart, a highly respected citizen of John's Station, six miles from Maxton. The negro escaped after he was discovered and is still at large with squads of citizens and dogs scouring the country.

Public Speaking.

The Democratic candidates for house of representatives, sheriff and other county offices will speak to the people of Lenoir upon the issues of the campaign at the following times and places. Other Democratic speakers have been invited and will join in the canvass.

In Neuse township, at Parrott's school house, Tuesday, Nov. 1st.

In Falling Creek township, at Falling Creek station, Wednesday, Nov. 2d.

Hon. Claude Kitchin, representative in congress from this district, and Democratic candidate for re-election, will address the people at LaGrange on Saturday, Oct. 29th.

Hours of speaking 11 a. m.
Let the people attend and hear the issues discussed.

J. W. GRAINGER, Ch'm'n.
E. M. LAND, Sec'y.

Public Speaking.

Hon. I. M. Meekins, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor will address the people of Lenoir county on the issues of the campaign at Kinston, Thursday, November 3, 1904, at two o'clock, p. m.

Come out and hear this distinguished speaker. JAMES F. PARROTT, Chairman Rep. Co. Ex. Com.
B. L. TAYLOR, Secretary.

Careless.
"It was careless of me to say that I admired Helen," remarked the young woman with glasses.

"Did you offend some Shakespearean student?"

"No. It was a Chicago pork packer. He frigidly remarked that he didn't care to talk shop."—Washington Star.

Baby Blubber.

"Fat babies," said the eminent scientist, "are unhealthy. You may think because a baby is fat that it is in the pink of condition, but the fat is simply so much blubber."

"My baby isn't fat," said the dejected father, "but we can't sleep at night because he has too much blubber."

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.
First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by J. E. Hood & Co.

Some Seasonable Advice.
It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by J. E. Hood & Co.
