GATHERED FROM ALL SOURCES

Brief Chronicle of the Day's Events in All the Nations of the Earth to Keep Readers Abreast of the Times.

New York, Jan. 19 .- When court adjourned late this afternoon only four jurors had been selected for the second trial of Hans Schmidt for the murder of Anna Aumuller. As in the first trial, which ended with a disagreement, insanity will be Schmidt's defense.

Washington, Jan. 19 .- A joint resolution introduced today by Senator Overman would require the Prestdent to consider the expediency of effecting a treaty with the European powers for neutralization of the Philippines and for protection of an independent government there when established.

Washington ,Jan. 19 .- Frederick T. McCarthy, of East Cambridge, Mass., was indicted by a grand jury here today charged with offering William L. Austin, chief clerk of the Census Bureau, $150 for a position as typewriter at $900 a year. Me-Carthy later was arrested at East Cambridge and will be brought to Washington for trial.

Washington, Jan. 19 .- Under suspension of the rules, the house today senate. It would appropriate $480,- ern Carolina a hundred fold. 000 the first year for government aid to state agricultural schools-$10,-000 to each state-and the amounts would increase yearly until after ten A. W. Kilman Returns to Greensboro years $3,000,000 a year would be appropriated.

Washington, Jan. 19.-Chairman Overman, of the senate lobby committee, declared today that if George Joslyn, president of the Western Newspaper Union did not come to Washington voluntarily, he would be subpoenaed to testify on the charge that his concern had been paid by the Canadian government to furnish to American newspapers, "patent insides" containing favorable reprehentations of agriculture in Canada.

Richmond, Jan. 19 .- Members of the graduating class of Benedictine Millitary College, this city, are literally up in arms over the transfer of Rev. Father Jerome, prefect of studies, to the college at Belmont, N. C., and are threatening to resign in a body. It appears that this class recently had a clash with Major Joseph Lemasurier, the military director, and although Father Jerome took no part in the affair, it is hinted that his sympathies were with the students with whom he was exceedingly popular. Father Jerome was relieved of his duties here by Bishop Haid soon after this incident and is already on duty at Belmont.

LEGLESS MAN TURNS UP

For Short While.

Greensboro, Jan. 19.-Thé disapless man," from this place shortly after Christmas and as a result of which the police of several nearby towns and cities were asked for aid in an effort to solve the "mystery." has been solved. Kilman solved it himself by putting in an appearance at the local station. A crowd gathered about the man, who, at one time, it was feared had met with foul play. The thing that attracted the crowd's attention was Kilman walking around.

It was not known here before that he could walk. In fact, he appeared the aforesaid wagon being still at police headquarters in Greensboro. Kilman told those at the station that he was held up and robbed here, but he didn't know by whom or how many were in the crowd; neither did he know how much he had lost. He said that when he "woke up" he was near Bluefield, West Virginia. While here Kilman wouldn't go to the police station for his wagon, but after spending a short time at the station boarded a train for the north.

Suspicion When Kilman Vanished.

Kilman, a frequent visitor in Kinston, was seen here shortly before Christmas and confided to a FREE PRESS man that he would "put on something" about the first of the year. It was believed by those who know him here when Billy Kilman, shrewd and witty, disappeared, he was "putting on the something." He secured a great deal of valuable advertising, his pictures were printed in the newspapers, and the police in Greensboro were troubled at the mystery accompanying his disappearance.

Creensboro, Jan. 19 .- The adoption of schedule for 1914 was practically the only business transacted by the directors of the North Carolina Baseball Association here today. The season will open April 23, with . Raleigh at Durham, Greensboro at Winston, and Charlotte at Asheville. Asheville will have two games July 4, Charlotte none, and other towns one each.

Wilson, Jan. 19 .- Wilson's firefighting apparatus will soon be greatly augmented by the installation of a modern motor power fire truck of 110 horse power that will pump 700 gallons of water per minute, and will carry roof ladders, extension ladders, chemical outfits, and has a carrying capacity of 1,200 feet of standard hose. The weight of the machine will be 8,500 pounds and will cost $9,000 to be delivered here about April 15.

Wilmington, Jan. 19 .- D. W. Murray, an aged white man of a neighboring town, while on his way from a down town district of Wlimington to his son's, just outside of the city, was held up by two negroes assaulted and rebbed. Both arms were broken, one in two places just above the wrist and he received a number of blows over the head and shoulders. The negroes used a heavy scantling He is in a hospital here. The highwaymen escaped.

Charlotte, Jan. 19. - Charlotte bankers and business organizations have left their case with the federal organization committee, after having presented their cause to the point and perhaps more briefly than Richmond and Atlanta, before this committee, and are now awaiting the outcome with some confidence that they will not be overlooked when the organization committee meets to decide definitely where the regional bank in the southeastern territory shall be located. The matter was argued particularly on geographical grounds, it being believed by the Charlotte delegation that it at least has the best of the argument in this

Durham, Jan. 19.-Attorneys for Cleve Daniels, held in the Durham jail for the murder of Jim Dunnagan last summer, and sentenced to death, will on next Thursday present a petition to the Governor to have the death sentence commuted to life imprisonment. The judge and ten of the members of the jury have signed petition for the change in the sentence, and the opinion of many people in Durham is that the plea is a just one. While the evidence was not brought out on the stand, there is a good deal of evidence going to show that the negro was grazed with cocaine when he killed his victim, and consequently did not know what he was doing. The state showed no malice other than as construed technically by the law.
