In the World of WOMAN

Miss Higgs, of Greenville, was the guest yesterday of Miss Charlotte Parrott.

Miss Isaacs to Wed.

A report from Goldsboro today says that on Tuesday evening, April 7, in Oheb Sikolom temple there Miss Jeanette H. Isaacs, a popular daughter of a leading family, will be married to Benj. B. Goodman, a Philadelphia young business man. An elaborate feast in Hotel Kenon will follow the ceremony.

The descendants of the Palatines will meet next Tuesday, March 31, with Mrs. Sac Sutton, the vice chairman. The February issue of Carolina and the Southern Cross contains a few family records of the Franks. There are only a few copies left. The March issue contains records and lines of descent from Phillip Miller, a Palatine, who lived first in "New Germany" (Jones county) and later bought a tract on Joshua's creek, now in Woodington township, Lenoir county which has been owned continuously by a Milley. These records and some other Miller records which will appear later, have cost for railroad fare, board, printing in the magazine, etc., over $50 in money and over three weeks in time. The several hundred descendants of Phillip Miller now living in Lenoir county should seize the opportunity to provide themselves with copies, to trace their descent to a connection, and to give their records to me for publication. Single copies are 20 cents, annual subscription $1. Mr. E. L. Miller, 407 Jack-on avenue, Kansas City, Mo., would be very glad to undertake the responsibility of a family history book of the Palatine Millers, after the data is collected and printed. The April issue will contain records of the descendants of Catherine Miller, daughter of Phillip Miller, who married a Brown, and Croom records. The Croom descendants are urged to send me all their data at once, so that I can work out at least one complete line. The Croom families were probably the richest families in this county before the Revolution. On the 1790 census the names of the following heads of families appear: Hardy Croom, Joshua Croom, Lott Croom, Isaac Crooms, Major Crooms, Jr., Major Crooms, Sr., Richard Crooms, Wm. Crooms, all of this county; Jesse Croom, of New Hanover county; John Croom, of Stokes county.

BURNED TO DEATH

Fate of Negro When Cabin Home Was Destroyed in Night.

A message from Snow Hill today tells of the burning to death of a negro, name unknown, at a sawmill hamlet near Lindell, in Greene county. The man built a fire in his cabin and lay down before it to sleep. The fire communicated to the walls and ceiling and rapidly consumed the shack, the thick smoke smothering the man before he could escape. The horribly burned body was without legs or arms when it was recovered from the ashes.

LEASES ATLANTIC

Asheville Man Will Operate Resort Hotel This Summer.

General Passenger Agent H. S. Leard and another Norfolk Southern Railroad official Wednesday leased the Atlantic hotel at Morehead City to R. P. Foster, of Asheville, for a period of five years. Foster, a veteran hotel man, was in charge of the Atlantic from 1886 to 1890. Repairs are to be made to the big resort house.

RETREAT OF GUARDIOLA ARMY

Guardiola Placed 100 Men on House-tops—Six Federals Got Away. Not Until Afternoon That Men Realized Position.

Zapata, Tex., March 25.—(Via Rider to Laredo, Tex.)—Monday's battle at Guerrero, near here, resulted in the retreat of the Federals under General Guardiola, numbering about 900 men.

Guardiola stationed 100 men on house tops at 1 o'clock in the morning to cover his retreat. For three hours these men held the position, possibly all of them in ignorance that they were making a perilous stand or covering a retreat. Meanwhile Guardiola's main force got safely away in orderly formation.

A federal sergeant who escaped to the United States was authority for the story of the retreat. He claimed Guardiola attempted to sacrifice the lives of 100 men of the 39th infantry to save the major portion of his command.

These men, said the sergeant, were disposed along the outskirts of the town and on the house tops where they kept up a furious rifle fire under cover of which Guardiola's retreat was executed rapidly. It was not until 4 o'clock that the band of 100 realized that they were fighting alone, facing a constitutionalist force of about 1600, which was equipped with cannon and two machine guns. Consternation immediately spread among the handful of defenders who scattered in all directions, pursued by constitutionalists. Some of the federals were killed, some captured, six crossed into the United States and the others were said to have escaped to the hills.

The sergeant said it took him about two hours to reach the Rio Grande, eight miles from Guerrero, in his own flight, where he was overtaken while standing on the bank by a squad of constitutionalists. With his gun strapped to his back, he said, he dived into the river, the constitutionalists firing at him.

He was hauled out nearly drowned on the American side. Guardiola is somewhere southeast of Nuevo Laredo and marching to that city.

UNIVERSITY FOR CONVICTS

Prison Classes at Folsom Penitentiary Are Visited Once a Week by an Instructor.

Folsom, Cal., March 25.—Inmates of Folsom penitentiary take kindly to the university extension course of the University of California, says a report of Warden J. J. Smith to Governor Johnson.

The report covers prison improvements of the last two years, made possible largely through legislative appropriations.

The prisoners, it is reported, specialize in a large variety of subjects offered by the extension courses, and their efforts are aided by weekly visits from a university instructor, who holds classes in the prison.

Entire segregation of tubercular prisoners and those suffering from other infectious diseases is now possible at the institution for the first time in its history, according to Warden Smith, and a complete ventilating system sends pure air through every cell.

The prison farm of 300 acres is now ready to produce all the vegetables for the prisoners' mess, and the convicts also will grow their own tobacco.

Ex-Governor Robert B. Glenn will deliver the commencement address at the East Carolina Teachers' Training school at Greenville. Rev. H. D. C. Macleachlan, a Richmond Christian minister, will preach the commencement sermon.

GOVERNMENT'S STATEMENT

Comedy of Errors in Ulster Affair. Tangled Situation May Yet Result In Tragedy—Seely Takes the Blame.

London, March 25.—The government today published its promised statement of its dealings with the revolting officers of the Third Cavalry brigade and the house of commons held another heated and disorderly session. Between the documents presented and the various statements drawn from Cabinet ministers, vital facts of the affair were made clear. They reveal a comedy, or tragedy, of errors perpetrated by Colonel Seely, secretary of state for war, and Sir Arthur Paget, commanding the troops in Ireland.

Colonel Seely took all the blame on himself. He frankly declared he had made a great mistake. His written assurance to General Hubert Gough that the government "must retain its right to use all the force of the crown in Ireland or elsewhere to maintain order and support the civil powers in the ordinary execution of their duty, but has no intention whatever of taking advantage of this right to crush political opposition to the policy or the principles of the Home Rule bill," was given without the knowledge of the cabinet and contrary to its policy.

The war secretary tendered his resignation to Mr. Asquith, but the Premier refused to accept it. The government has withdrawn Col. Seely's guarantees, according to statement by Viscount Morley in the house of Lords and Sir Edward Grey told the house of commons that the government's decision would be made known to Gen. Gough tomorrow. Thus the situation with respect to General Gough and his 59 comrades, who sent in their papers, is still in a state of suspense.
