Friday Evening—March 27, 1914.

Shut out the carnival. Everybody's too busy down here for that kind of rot.

The English suffragettes should try their hand at settling the Irish question.

The union depot has not yet made its appearance; though it is believed to be incubating.

Kinston's June Chautauqua should be made an occasion of great value to us as well as a source of excellent entertainment.

A carnival takes from town almost all that we don't want it to take and it leaves behind almost everything we want it to take away.

The Wilmington Star says that strawberry shipments will begin about the middle of April. That's not so long to wait.

Remember the health conference in April. It ought to be made to contribute most effectively to the promotion of the betterment of health and sanitary conditions.

Sickness and disease are a terrible handicap. Why stand for it? A large part of it cannot be prevented and so must be endured. But a surprisingly large amount of it is preventable and we ought to rebel against it.

Some things worth remembering: "A city is as clean as its people. Well kept alleys pay bigger dividends than well kept cemeteries. A man is known by the company he keeps. A town is known by the streets it sweeps."

The west weighed the carnival in the balances long ago and found it wanting. It's time the south were doing so too. Let's have amusement, but give us something wholesome and uplifting.

This week and next the administration forces will have a pretty severe battle on their hands in trying to repeal the free tolls provision. But the president, our national honor and a correct financial policy will win.

What is all this hubbub about? Simply that certain statesmen want to barter America's honorable standing in the eyes of the world for the privilege of subsidizing American coasters to the amount of two million dollars a year.

Insurance is right much of a load, but when the pinch comes it is a most welcome one. Durham's fire losses will aggregate over a million dollars; though after the returns from insurance are in the net loss will probably be covered by $100,000.

Tolls exemption was not passed by the Democrats in congress. A majority of the Democrats voted against it; and the subsidy was passed by a combination of Democrats and Republicans—each being a minority of the party represented.

Durham is a plucky town and even now is planning a sky-line for the burnt district that will eclipse anything to be found elsewhere in North Carolina. Durham grit, Durham brains and Durham money are a combination that's bound to win.

The weather bureau has announced that it doesn't believe in the ground hog. First thing you know they'll be calling it all a myth and Colonel Reece will have as hard a time as the Charlotte folks are having about that Mecklenburg declaration.

It is probable that the third district will hold a primary on the congressional nomination. Thomas, Hood, Koonce, Credle and Faison have united in a petition to the executive committee that one be called; and so have large numbers of Democratic voters in the counties concerned.

KINSTON 11 YEARS AGO.
(Daily Free Press, Mar. 27, 1903.)
Wisconsin's legislature passed an anti-cigarette bill.
Woodington reported that tobacco plants were flourishing.
Neuse river was high and rising. At Raleigh it was within a foot of the record.
The Bank of Kinston was rated as 106th in a list of 7,000 state banks in the country.
Frost damaged growing stuff.
John W. Grisham, 70, a planter of Beaufort, died suddenly of heart failure in Hotel Tall here.
Dr. Jno. A. Pollock went to Dover.
Dr. H. O. Hyatt spent the day in Dover.
Mrs. R. W. Spilman returned from Raleigh.
Judge Oliver Allen, in Monroe, told a prisoner named McBride in sentencing him that the day of whiskey-selling and barn-burning was passed, and that if ordinary means would not prevail to uphold the law the militia could be called upon.

AFTER COUGHING TWO YEARS
Waycross, Ga., Woman Found Relief in Vinol.
Did you ever cough for a week? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for two years.
Mrs. D. A. McGee, Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for fully two years, and felt tired all the time. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, is that my cough is gone, I can now get a good night's rest and I feel much stronger in every way. I am 74 years old."
It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cod's livers aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.
Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. J. E. Hood & Co., Druggists, Kinston, N. C. (adv.)
P. S.—If you have any skin trouble try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are entirely effective, thoroughly cleansing and always pleasant in action. They contain blue flag, are a remedy for constipation and sluggish liver, and a tonic to the bowels, which are improved by their use. Try them. They do not fail to give relief and satisfaction. J. E. Hood & Co. (adv.)

Mr. C. V. York, of Raleigh, is in the city.

JUDGE OLIVER H. ALLEN
morally and physically.—Everything, Greensboro.
The Judge With a Heart.
The Observer can give its endorsement to the sentiments expressed by The Duplin Enterprise in a recent reference to Judge O. H. Allen of the North Carolina superior court bench. This jurist, as The Enterprise says, has made a reputation on the bench "in behalf of Houses of Correction" and in doing so he has been a friend to youthful criminals and women criminals. He has made the cause of crime a study and we have heard him from the bench speak eloquently and touchingly on neglected childhood. Up in the mountains Judge Allen lectures to the people and appeals to their best side, and when down home he does the same thing. He acts in a way, like a minister trying to help the weak. It is justice tempered with mercy in his court.
It is popular in certain circles to exploit a judge as one "to be feared," this on account of the known merciless way in which he is accustomed to deal with unfortunates, but Judge Allen is not of this sort. Yet he accomplishes as good results as the best of them—better results in many instances, perhaps, because of the making of good citizens, which otherwise a hardened criminal might have been the result. In advocating the house of correction he has pointed out the right line of procedure by the state in handling the so-called problem of the criminal courts. The solution is in the helping hand, rather than the flaming sword which the judges that are "feared" are wont to flash.—Charlotte Observer.

STOMACH SUFFERERS

Ways' Wonderful Stomach Remedy Is Recommended and Praised By Thousands Who Have Been Restored

"I was a sick man for about three months, caused from Gall Stones of the Liver and was told by three of our most prominent physicians that I would have to submit to an operation to get relief, but heard of your wonderful Stomach Remedy and secured a full treatment and took it according to directions and passed hundreds of Gall Stones. Since taking your medicine I work regularly and don't feel any ill effects. I am praising your Remedy to all my friends. I think it's worthy of the highest praise."BL. DOOLEY, Roanoke, Va.
Sufferers of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Affections are not asked to take Ways' Wonderful Stomach Remedy for weeks and months before they feel benefited. Just try one dose, which should make you feel better in health, convince you that you will soon be well and strong, free you from pain and suffering and give you a sound and healthy stomach, as it has done in thousands of other cases. Whenever it is taken you will hear nothing but the highest praise. Go to your druggist—ask him about the great results it has been accomplishing in cases of people he knows or send to Geo. H. Ways, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for a free book on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored.
