SOCIAL And PERSONAL

Misses Ruby Spear and Mary Lee Fort spent Sunday in Goldsboro.

Mrs. Cecil Mencham has returned to her home in Monroe after a visit here.

Mrs. Maggie Griffin, of Durham, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C.
Hooker.

Mrs. J. D. Bundy, of Wilmington, has returned home after a visit with friends here.

Miss Margaret Goodson is at home from Lynchburg, Va., where she attended a wedding.

After spending some time in Jacksonville, Fla., and Savannah, Ga., Mrs. A. Oettinger is at home in the city.

Mrs. Chas. Cummings, of Mt. Olive, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Nora Taylor, on Gordon street. Mr. Cummings spent Sunday here.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Blanchard are visiting their daughter, Mrs.
Baucon, at Clayton. Mrs. Baucon has been ill for some time.

Mrs. E. E. Entzler, who has been in Lake city, S. C., for a few weeks, has returned to the city and is at the home of her mother, Mrs. A.
Oettinger.

Miss Mary Shotwell returned today to her home in Oxford, after a short visit with friends here. Miss Shotwell was formerly a teacher in the Kinston schools.

School of Methods.

The first session of the school of methods to be held in the Gordon street Christian church each afternoon and night this week, was held this afternoon. All three of the Sunday School experts, who are here to conduct the meetings, were heard from. Mr. Guy Carter, Secretary the Virginia Sunday School Association, spoke on "What is Teaching?" Miss Lewis' subject was "Realization of Missionary Ideals" and Mr. W. J. Clark, of Cincinnati, told of the modern methods for administration of Sunday Schools.

The Sunday school rooms have been provided with tables arranged in desk form and a real school will be conducted. Those who expect to attend regularly will be enrolled and certificates given at the end of the sessions. Visitors, however, it was announced would be welcome at any and all sessions.

Tonight Miss Lewis will discuss the training of leaders and Mr. Clark will speak on the subject "The Church's School."

This school of methods will afford a splendid opportunity for Bible school workers of Kinston and vicinity to improve their knowledge of modern methods and those in charge of the school are very anxious that all the church workers of the district avail themselves of the chance now given.

County Store Burned.

(By the United Press.)
Raleigh, May 18.—The store of the Wake Mercantile Company at Mc-cluers, a village near here, was robbed and burned last night. The loss was $5,000. No arrests have been made.

Pulpit Announcement.

In the rural districts it is often necessary for one to turn one's trouser's up to keep them free from mud. A case of this kind resulted in the following amusing incident.
One muddy morning the absent-minded preacher having rolled down one trouser leg and forgotten the other, mounted the platform and started with his usual preliminaries.
He was about to announce his text when one of the deacons handed him a note from his wife, who was sitting in the audience. Thinking it a notice of some coming event, he calmly read: "Do turn down the other trouser leg."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

DEATH BROUGHT NO PAIN.

Norfolk Paper Tells of Death There of Professor Bible, Kinstonian.

The Norfolk Virginian-Pilot under a big head Saturday told of the death there of Prof. Geo. W. Bible, of Kinston, the day before. The aged man, who was in his 74th year, was on his way to Washington to tell to Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, the story of the death of Daniels' father, as papers in a pocket proved. Professor Bible, as related in THE FREE PRESS several weeks ago, started to Washington in April for that purpose, but illness came upon him suddenly. It was this sickness, from which he had partially recovered, that caused heart failure and death. The veteran newspaperman sat in a chair, his features composed, when the proprietor of the apartments where he was staying called a policeman.
A detective came in and viewed the body, but a physician who then came in declared the demise of Professor Bible due to a natural cause.

Bible's account of the killing of Daniels' father, while piloting a federal gunboat into the harbor at Washington, N. C., during the war between the states, had already been published. According to Bible, who was an eye witness and was slightly wounded himself, the vessel carried a flag of truce when fired upon by the Confederates.

The Virginian-Pilot related that in the dead man's hands was a copy of the popular song, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," some line of which probably had awakened a sentimental memory in the old man's heart.

The funeral was in Norfolk Sunday. As well it were there as anywhere else, his friends here say, since Bible's relatives are a scattered family and the friends of his youth all are gone before him.

cinets, Fai-on in many. Hood runs third.

Jones—A. H. White leads his native county, Thomas coming second and Hood third.

Pender—Thomas took eighty per cent of Pender and Hood received the second vote.

Sampson—Faison and Thomas divide this county equally.

Wayne—Wayne gives Hood 1,500 of the 1,800 votes. Fai-on taking 200 and Thomas the majority of the balance. Thomas on second choice gets 1,500.

Thomas Positive.

In his statement Mr. Thomas says he is positive of the nomination. The Guion forces counted on getting Onslow, Craven, Jones and Carteret failing, they find little hope.

Charles L. Abernethy seems to have won easily for solicitor, getting about 75 per cent. of the vote.

of war.
"A man aboard the Geneva knew the German Consul, Fritz Kayzer, and got in touch with him. Through him, I sent word to Capt. Ferguson that I would not leave until they were released. I arranged to steam away and pick them up after they had escaped in small boats.

"The Geneva's people were ready to escape in the small boats when the steamer Raleigh arrived. The Cetrina started to leave. Captain Ferguson raised the Stars and Stripes on the Geneva and a roar of cheers broke from the refugees on the Cetrina.

Judge Criticises Burns.

(By the United Press.)
Atlanta, May 18.—Detective Wm.
J. Burns was severely criticised from the bench when Judge Hill today charged the grand jury to rigidly investigate charges of bribery, perjury and coercion of witnesses made by Burns in the Frank case.

THAT TIRED FEELING.

Suggests Grandmother's Remedy.

It's true the season is here with its sudden changes, and the old idea that we need a blood medicine is not without reason. Too much heavy food has caused a torpid liver, sluggish blood, and a weak, tired out feeling.

Sulphur, cream of tartar and mollasses was grandmother's remedy but that has long ago been displaced by Vinol, a combination of the two most world famed tonics, namely, the medicinal curative elements of the god's liver, without oil, and iron for the blood.

Vinol builds up, makes you eat more and digest better, makes your blood rich and pure—puts healthy color in your cheeks.

N. G. Cliff of Opelika, Ala., says: Last spring I was all run-down, no strength, no appetite. I took Vinol and was greatly benefited by its use, as I soon felt strong and well as ever.

We guarantee Vinol to satisfy you and refund your money if it does not. J. E. Hood & Co., Druggists.
